archTIS Appoints Gerard Foley as Vice President and General Manager of Asia Pacific

Seasoned global strategic technologist and enterprise C-suite executive to lead the APAC region's software business archTIS Limited (ASX:AR9, OTCQB:ARHLF), a global provider of data-centric software solutions for the secure collaboration of sensitive information, is pleased to announce the appointment of Gerard Foley as Vice President and General Manager of the Asia Pacific region (APAC), effective 6 January 2025. He will oversee the strategic direction of the region's software business, focusing on sales growth and operational efficiency.

Gerard brings over 25 years of experience leading strategic sales initiatives in the defence, high-technology, and national security sectors. He is an accomplished sales and business development C-suite executive with a proven track record in driving revenue growth, influencing strategic procurement, building government relations, and executing high-stakes sales strategies across Australia, the UK, the U.S., the EU, and Southeast Asia.

Gerard built a successful career spanning 25 years at Raytheon Australia, where he held several senior executive positions, including Chief of Growth and Head of Strategy and Business Development. Additionally, he served as the Regional Director for South Asia at Raytheon International's Reston, VA office. Prior to that, as a graduate of the Royal Military College, Gerard served in various military roles encompassing command, training, and procurement, focusing on aviation engineering, leadership training, and major capital equipment acquisition. Gerard holds a Bachelor of Electrical Engineering (Honours) from the University of New South Wales and a Master of Science in Defence Technology from the Royal Military College of Science in Shrivenham, UK. He currently serves as a Board Director of the Sir Richard Williams Foundation.

Daniel Lai, archTIS CEO and Managing Director, said, "We are excited to announce the addition of Gerard Foley to the senior leadership team at archTIS. With his extensive expertise in defence sales, Gerard brings a wealth of knowledge and experience that will play a crucial role in shaping our regional strategy and driving growth. His proven track record in the industry positions him as a valuable asset, and we look forward to leveraging his insights to enhance our market presence and achieve our strategic objectives across the Asia Pacific region."

Gerard Foley, Vice President and General Manager of archTIS Asia Pacific, said: "This is an exciting time to be joining the archTIS team. I am thrilled about the opportunity to be part of such a dynamic and forward-thinking organisation, whose unique technology is trusted to safeguard the world's most sensitive information. The company's commitment to innovation and excellence coupled with its solid vision for future growth, presents a compelling opportunity. I look forward to leveraging my experience in international sales as well as my deep Defence and Technology sector expertise to contribute to archTIS' continued success and expansion."
