Name change of the PIMCO Australian Short Term Bond Fund to the PIMCO Australian Low Duration Bond Fund (ARSN 132 708 402) (“Fund”)

Dear Investor,

We are writing to notify you that as of the 6th January 2025 (the “Effective Date”) we have changed the name of the Fund from the “PIMCO Australian Short Term Bond Fund” to the “PIMCO Australian Low Duration Bond Fund”.

The change of name is designed to achieve multiple concurrent objectives:

- Clarity to investors, including with respect to the primary economic exposure of the fund
- Consistency in global nomenclature, both with respect to names used by category peers and other PIMCO funds with similar attributes
- The name change formed part of recommendations from a broader global strategic review of the Fund and its strategy.
- Finally, we believe that the name change will also help in maximising the marketability of the Fund amid an evolving competitive landscape.

We anticipate no material changes to specific strategies or investments in the Fund as a result of this change. Importantly, key characteristics of the Fund, including its Investment Objective, Strategy, Investment Guidelines and Management Costs remain unchanged.

Please refer to the Fund’s updated Product Disclosure Statement for further information.

If you have any questions regarding this change, please contact your PIMCO Account Manager.

Yours faithfully,

Sam Watkins
