COMPANY SECRETARY

Explanatory Statement

This Explanatory Statement has been prepared to provide information which the Directors believe to be material to Shareholders in deciding whether or not to pass the Resolutions which are the subject of the business of the Meeting.

1. Resolution 1 – Consolidation of Capital

1.1 Background

If Resolution 1 is passed, the number of:

- (a) Shares on issue will be reduced from 17 to 1;
- (b) Options on issue will be reduced from 17 to 1;
- (c) Share Rights on issue will be reduced from 17 to 1; and
- (d) Performance Rights on issue will be reduced from 17 to 1,

with fractional entitlements rounded up to the nearest whole number (Consolidation).

1.2 Legal requirements

Section 254H of the Corporations Act provides that a company may, by resolution passed in a general meeting, convert all or any of its shares into a larger or smaller number.

ASX Listing Rule 7.20 provides that where an entity proposed to reorganise its capital, it must tell shareholders:

- (a) the effect of the proposal on the number of securities and the amount paid (if any) on the securities;
- (b) the proposed treatment of any fractional entitlements; and
- (c) the proposed treatment of any convertible securities on issue.

ASX Listing Rule 7.21 provides that a listed entity which has convertible securities (except options) on issue may reorganise its capital if, in respect of the convertible securities, the number of its convertible securities or the conversion price, or both, is reorganised so that the holder of the convertible securities will not receive a benefit that holders of ordinary securities do not receive. This rule does not prevent a rounding up of the number of securities to be received on conversion if the rounding up is approved at the security holders meeting which approves the reorganisation.

Listing Rule 7.22.1 requires that where a listed entity with options undertakes a consolidation of its capital, the number of its options must be consolidated in the same ratio as the ordinary capital and the exercise price must be amended in the inverse proportion to that ratio.

1.3 Effect of the Consolidation

The Consolidation will reduce the number of existing Securities on issue. For example, a Shareholder currently holding 17,000 Shares, will, as a result of the Consolidation, hold 1,000 Shares and an Option holder currently holding 1,700 Options will, as a result of the Consolidation, hold 100 Options.

The Company's balance sheet and tax position will remain unaltered as a result of the Consolidation.

The Consolidation will not result in any changes to the substantive rights and obligations of existing Security Holders. As a result of the large number of Shares currently on issue, the purpose of the Consolidation is to reorganise the Company's share capital which, in turn, will provide a higher price per Share.

1.4 Fractional entitlements

Not all Security Holders will hold that number of Securities (as the case may be) which can be evenly divided by 17. Where a fractional entitlement occurs, the Company will round that fraction up to the nearest whole Security.

1.5 Taxation

It is not considered that any taxation implications will exist for Security Holders who are Australian residents arising from the Consolidation. However, Security holders are advised to seek their own tax advice on the effect of the Consolidation and the Company does not accept any responsibility for the individual taxation implications arising from the Consolidation.

1.6 Holding statements

From the date of the Consolidation, all holding statements for Securities will cease to have any effect, except as evidence of entitlement to a certain number of Securities on a post-Consolidation basis.

After the Consolidation becomes effective, the Company will arrange for new holding statements for Securities to be issued to holders of those Securities.

It is the responsibility of each Security Holder to check the number of Securities held prior to disposal or exercise (as the case may be).

1.7 Effect on capital structure

The effect which the Consolidation will have on the Company's capital structure is set out in the tables below.

Shares

Capital Structure	Shares
Pre-Consolidation Shares	6,454,030,514
Post Consolidation Shares	379,648,854

Capital Structure	Options

Post Consolidation Options	288,328 PNRAT unlisted Options

Note

The above Options have a nil exercise price are vest upon achieving certain milestones relating to relative shareholder returns and absolute share price performance. When assessing if the Milestones are met, the Board will disregard the artificial impact that the Consolidation has on the Share price and make the assessment on assumption that the Consolidation does not occur.

Employee Share Rights

Capital Structure	Share Rights
Pre-Consolidation Share Rights	21,130,000 PNRAH unlisted Share Rights
Post Consolidation of Share Rights	1,242,941 PNRAH unlisted Share Rights

Note

The above Employee Share Rights are employee Share Rights entitling the relevant holder to receive 1 Share per 1 Share Right exercised. There is no exercise price payable upon exercise. The Employee Share Rights vest upon achieving continuous service with the Company until 31 January 2028.

Post Consolidation Performance Rights	9,489,703 PNRAU unlisted Performance Rights

Note

These Performance Rights have 3 tranches, each with different milestones. Only 1 tranche has a milestone which is share price related and this milestone has already been satisfied so that tranche has vested and is capable of exercise.

Convertible Loan

As announced by the Company to ASX on 19 June 2023, the Company conducted a refinance of the debt facilities held by the Company and Tulla Resources Plc as part of the merger of those two companies. As part of the refinance, the Company entered into the new Loan Agreement with Nebari.

The Loan Agreement included a convertible loan facility of US$12.1 million (A$17.8 million) (Convertible Loan) net of a 3.0% original issue discount. The conversion price under this Convertible Loan is US$0.0636 (approx. A$0.10 as of the date of preparation of this Notice of Meeting) per Share subject to certain allowable adjustments.

Under the Loan Agreement, if there is a reorganisation of the Shares on issue in the Company the conversion price will be determined in a manner such that the conversion amount is convertible into the same percentage of Shares as it would have converted into immediately before the reorganisation event.

Accordingly, upon the Consolidation taking effect the conversion price under the Convertible Loan will become US$1.0812 (approx. A$1.72 as of the date of preparation of this Notice of Meeting) per Share.

1.8 Indicative timetable*

If Resolution 1 is not passed, the Consolidation will not proceed.

The Board unanimously recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 1.

2. Resolution 2 – Change of Company Name

2.1 General

Section 157(1)(a) of the Corporations Act provides that a company may change its name if the company passes a special resolution adopting a new name.

Resolution 2 seeks the approval of Shareholders for the Company to change its name to Pantoro Gold Limited.

If Resolution 2 is passed the change of name will take effect when ASIC alters the details of the Company’s registration. The proposed name has been reserved by the Company and if Resolution 2 is passed, the Company will lodge a copy of the special resolution with ASIC following the meeting in order to effect the change.

The Company’s ASX code will remain PNR.
