2.4 Mutual undertakings to progress the Proposed Transaction

- (a) During the Exclusivity Period, the Bidder and the Company must each commit all reasonably necessary resources and use its best endeavours:
 - (i) in the case of the Bidder, to conduct, facilitate and complete (to the Bidder's reasonable satisfaction), the Bidder's due diligence of the Company and the Company Group; and
 - (ii) in the case of Company, to make available reasonable access to due diligence materials and key personnel for the purposes of discussing, assessing or negotiating the Proposed Transaction (acknowledging that certain due diligence materials will be held back for a later stage of diligence, with such materials and disclosure to be assessed by the Company (acting reasonably and in good faith) for disclosure to Bidder having regard to Bidder's request that such information be provided within a reasonable period prior to the expiry of the Exclusivity Period).
- (b) During the Exclusivity Period, the Parties must each negotiate in good faith the terms of definitive transaction documents to be entered into in relation to, and on terms no less favourable to the Company than those terms set out in, the Offer Letter, before the end of the Exclusivity Period.
- (c) The Company must use its best endeavours to ensure that the virtual data room is made available to the Bidder, which virtual data room must:
 - (i) be substantially populated with the Data Room Opening Date Materials as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of this document and in any event within 5 Business Days of the date of this document;
 - (ii) provide for a facility for the Bidder (acting reasonably) to request further information from the Company during the Exclusivity Period and track the progress of responses to those requests; and
 - (iii) be populated with all documents (to the extent they exist) reasonably requested under clause 2.4(c)(ii) as soon as reasonably practicable.

- (d) The Bidder must immediately notify the Company if at any time the Bidder forms the view that it:
- (i) does not wish to, or is unable to progress to, negotiate the terms of the Proposed Transaction on terms no less favourable to the Company than those terms set out in the Offer Letter; or
 - (ii) does not intend to, or forms the view that it is unable to, consummate the Proposed Transaction on terms no less favourable to the Company than those terms set out in the Offer Letter by signing the definitive transaction documents with the Company.
- (e) The Bidder may at any time during the term of this document, by written notice to the Company, terminate the exclusivity obligations under this clause 2.
- (f) If, during the Exclusivity Period, the Bidder gives notice under clause 2.4(d) or materially breaches this document or the Confidentiality Deed, the Company may give the Bidder notice in writing terminating this document.
- (g) The Company has no obligation to provide the Bidder with access to materials or personnel under this document if that access would:
- (i) result in unreasonable disruptions to the Company Group's business;
 - (ii) require a Company Group Member to take any action that would be reasonably expected to result in a Company Group member breaching any applicable law, order, rule or direction of any government agency (including the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth));
 - (iii) breach confidentiality obligations owed to any third party (including any government agency);
 - (iv) result in the disclosure of information which, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, is commercially or competitively sensitive information having regard to the fact that the Bidder is a potential competitor of Domain, provided that the Company hereby agrees it will provide such information to the Bidder in an unredacted form shortly prior to entry into a binding implementation agreement in relation to the Proposed Transaction in a 'black box' diligence phase; or
 - (v) require the Company to make any disclosure that would compromise legal privilege, or that relates to the Company's Board or management's consideration of the Proposed Transaction or a Competing Proposal or any professional advice in relation to those matters, in each case in the opinion of the Company acting reasonably.

2.5 Fiduciary out

- (a) From the date of this document until 11.59 pm (Sydney time) on the Data Room Open Date, and on and from the Initial Exclusivity Deadline until the expiry of the Exclusivity Period, each of clauses 2.2(e) and 2.3 do not apply to the extent that the relevant clause restricts the Company Group, the Company's Board or the Representatives of the Company from taking or refusing to take any action with respect to an actual, proposed or potential bona fide Competing Proposal (in relation to which there has been no breach of clause 2.2(d)) if the Company's Board has determined, acting in good faith:
 - (i) after consultation with its external financial and legal advisers, that the Competing Proposal is or may reasonably be expected to become a Superior Proposal; and
 - (ii) after receiving written advice from the Company's external legal adviser (with experience in advising on Australian public M&A transactions) that compliance with clauses 2.2(e) and/or 2.3 (as the case may be) would, or would be reasonably likely to constitute, a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties of any director of the Company.
- (b) For the avoidance of doubt, the evaluation of a Competing Proposal for the purposes of this clause 2.5 is not a breach of this clause 2, further, nothing in this clause 2 prevents or restricts the Company, the Company's Board, or any of the Representatives of the Company from responding to an expression of interest, offer, proposal or discussion in relation to, or that may be reasonably expected to encourage or lead to, a Competing Proposal to (i) acknowledge receipt or (ii) advise that Domain is bound by the provisions of this clause 2.

2.6 Notification of approaches

- (a) During the Exclusivity Period, the Company must promptly notify the Bidder (and in any event within 48 hours of becoming aware) in writing if it, or any of its Related Persons:
 - (i) is approached by any Third Party requesting or proposing that it take any action which would breach its obligations under clauses 2.2 or 2.3 (but for any applicable exception under clause 2.5); or
 - (ii) it proposes to take any action which would breach its obligations under clauses 2.2 or 2.3 (but for any applicable exception under clause 2.5).
- (b) A notification given under clause 2.6(a) must include:
 - (i) the details of and the identity of the Third Party;
 - (ii) all material terms and conditions of the applicable Competing Proposal (including but not limited to price, value, funding, conditions and timing, to the extent known).

2.7 Matching right

- (a) Without limiting clauses 2.1, 2.2 and 2.3, during the Exclusivity Period, the Company:
- (i) must not, and must procure that the Company Group Members do not, enter into any legally binding agreement (whether or not in writing), other than a confidentiality agreement in respect of a Competing Proposal to which clause 2.5(a) applies, pursuant to which any person proposes, or proposes to undertake or to give effect to, any Competing Proposal; and
 - (ii) must ensure that no director of the Company publicly recommends a Competing Proposal (or recommend against the Proposed Transaction) or a proposed or potential Competing Proposal, or makes any public statement to the effect that they may do so at a future point,
- unless:
- (iii) the Company's Board, acting in good faith and in order to satisfy what the Company's Board considers to be their statutory or fiduciary duties (having received written legal advice from their external financial and legal advisers) determine that the Competing Proposal is, or could reasonably be considered to become, a Superior Proposal;
 - (iv) the Company has provided the Bidder with the material terms and conditions of the Competing Proposal, including the price and identity of the Third Party making the Competing Proposal;
 - (v) the Company has given the Bidder at least 4 Business Days from the provision of the information under clause 2.7(a)(iv) to provide a matching or superior proposal to the terms of the Competing Proposal; and
 - (vi) either:
 - (A) the Bidder has not provided a Counterproposal by the expiry of the period in clause 2.7(a)(v); or
 - (B) the Bidder has provided a Counterproposal by the expiry of the period in clause 2.7(a)(v) and:
 - (1) the Company's Board has made a determination under clause 2.7(b) that the Counterproposal would not provide an equal or superior outcome to the Company's shareholders as a whole compared to the Competing Proposal; and
 - (2) the Company has promptly given the Bidder notice of the determination of the Company's Board (stating reasons for such determination), provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, this clause 2.7(a) will be separately applied to each new Competing Proposal that is a material modification or variation of an existing Competing Proposal.

- (b) If the Bidder provides the Company with a proposal as contemplated by clause 2.7(a)(v) (Counterproposal) the Company must procure that the Company's Board considers the Counterproposal and determines whether, acting in good faith and taking into account all of the terms and conditions of the Counterproposal and such factors that the Company's Board considers relevant, including the views of the major shareholder of the Company and the ability to implement the Counterproposal, the Counterproposal would provide an equal or superior outcome to the Company's shareholders as a whole compared to the Competing Proposal, and then promptly give the Bidder notice of the determination of the Company's Board (stating reasons for such determination).
- (c) If the Company's Board has determined that the Counterproposal:
 - (i) would provide an equal or superior outcome to the Company's shareholders compared to the Competing Proposal, then the Company and the Bidder must use their reasonable endeavours to agree any necessary amendments to this document and agree such other documents that are reasonably necessary to reflect the Counterproposal as soon as reasonably practicable; or
 - (ii) would not provide an equal or superior outcome to the Company's shareholders compared to the Competing Proposal, then the Bidder may take steps to amend the Counterproposal to address the reasons given by the Company for that determination and must provide such revised Counterproposal to the Company within a further period of 3 Business Days, and if the Bidder does so to the satisfaction of the Company's Board, then the process in clause 2.7(b) applies to that revised Counterproposal.

2.8 Exceptions to the exclusivity arrangement

Nothing in this clause 2 prevents a Company Group Member from:

- (a) providing any information to its Related Bodies Corporate or their Representatives;
- (b) providing any information required to be provided by any applicable law, including to satisfy its legal obligations owed to any government agency and its continuous disclosure requirements;
- (c) providing any information to its auditors, customers, financiers, joint venturers and suppliers acting in that capacity in the ordinary course of business;
- (d) engaging with its shareholders (in their capacity as a shareholder of the Company) and their advisers, including in relation to any Competing Proposal (in relation to which there has been no breach of clause 2.2(d)); or
