Dear Vanessa,

Orcoda Limited (ASX Code: ODA) Request for Trading Halt

Pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 17.1, Orcoda Limited (ASX:ODA) (Company) requests that the ASX grants an immediate trading halt to the quotation of its securities effective immediately (Trading Halt).

The Trading Halt is requested pending the release of an ASX announcement regarding a proposed capital raise by way of a placement to sophisticated investors (Purpose).

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 17.1 the Company advises that:

1. In the Company's view, a Trading Halt is necessary to assist the Company to manage its continuous disclosure obligations until it can inform the market through an ASX announcement on the stated Purpose.
2. The Company confirms that this Purpose remains in line with rules concerning valid reasons to request a Trading Halt and therefore requests trading halt be put in place, though not longer than two (2) trading days, that is, either the earlier of when:
 - a. the relevant announcement about the Purpose is released on the ASX platform; or otherwise
 - b. when trading of securities on the ASX commences Wednesday, 16 April 2025.
3. The Company intends to make a further announcement related to this Purpose before trading commences on Wednesday, 16 April 2025.
4. The Company is unaware of any reason to deny this request for this Trading Halt. It also confirms that it has no information appropriate for market disclosure in connection to the Purpose except as described in this request for a Trading Halt under Listing Rule 17.1.

Do not hesitate to contact me should you require further information.

Yours sincerely,

Patricia Vanni
Company Secretary
