Quarterly Activity Report and Appendix 4C For the Period Ending 31 March 2025

Oldfields Holdings Limited (ASX: OLH) provides its quarterly activity report and Appendix 4C for the third quarter of FY2025, covering the period ending 31 March 2025.

Business Update

In Q3 FY2025, Oldfields continued its transformation following the strategic realignment initiated in June 2024. The company successfully exited the hire and service model on the East Coast, sharpening its focus on sales and distribution while maintaining stable operations in South and Western Australia.

The financial impact of this transition was largely realised in Q1 FY2025, with some outflows recorded in Q4 FY2024. Transition-related expenses continued to affect Q2 and Q3. The product recall, initiated before Q1, significantly impacted Q1 cash flow but eased in Q2, with minimal impact for Q3.

Despite these costs, Q3 delivered strong local sales momentum limited by inventory levels and seasonal factors, supported by ongoing scaffold system sales and the successful disposal of ex-hire assets. These factors contributed to an improved H1 financial position, setting the stage for continued gains in H2.

The early benefits of Oldfields' strategic transformation became evident in Q1 FY2025, with further acceleration in Q2 and Q3. The December quarter and half-year results reaffirm this shift, demonstrating tangible improvements in financial performance and efficiency. By adopting a leaner, sales-driven model, Oldfields has optimised resource allocation and strengthened customer engagement. These efforts have positioned the company to deliver positive NPAT and EBITDA for H1—an impressive turnaround from the prior year—while creating a more agile and scalable business structure for sustained success. Q3 results reflect the limitations placed on the business by restricted working capital paying down old ATO debts and non-payment by our US distributor. Demand for the product remains strong with restricted supply.

Looking ahead, Oldfields expects continued momentum, with stronger cash inflows from transition activities, ex-hire system scaffold sales, and capital injection. An increasingly efficient sales and distribution framework, alongside improved inventory management, will further strengthen financial stability. As the company progresses through H2 FY2025, it is focused on continuing for sustained profitability, market growth, and long-term value creation.

Financial Update

Key Financial Metrics:

Net Cash from Operating Activities: In Q3 FY2025, there was a net cash inflow of ($0.66million). Customer receipts totalled $5.7 million, marking a $1.35 million decrease from the previous quarter. Within the net cash from operation activities, we successfully reduced long-term ATO debt by $0.796 million. Operating cash flow inflows for the quarter increase will show greater value if exclude the old debt repayment to the ATO.

Sales and Operating Costs: Sales in H1 FY2025 and Q4 FY2024 were affected by a product recall that constrained mobile scaffold inventory available for resale in Q1 and Q2 FY2025. The financial impacts of the recall and sales restrictions have constrained our working capital for stock replenishment, particularly in paint purchases. Despite these challenges, demand for Oldfields products remains robust across both business lines. As our transformation initiatives progress, we anticipate improvements in working capital. Cash collected from ex-hire system scaffold sales exceeded $1.5 million, supporting inventory purchases and ATO debt repayment. Q3 saw the long term ATO reduce by $0.796m funded by trading working capital and sales of second-hand system scaffold. The lower cash collection has impacted Q3 profitability with limited working capital to fund both paint and scaffold inventory. It is expected Q4 results will be impacted by the working capital restrictions with orders placed due to arrive in June 2025.

Cash Flow from Investing Activities: March's quarter-end saw primarily cash outflows, with purchasing of steel scaffold to support a large project in WA with the out west coast hire service operation.

Capital Raise: In Q1 FY2025, Oldfields successfully raised $1.039 million through new share issuances. We remain proactive in capital raising efforts to further reduce debt and replenish working capital.

Sales Pipeline and Outlook: Year-to-date, our sales pipeline includes annuity opportunities totalling $9.7 million and one-off opportunities amounting to $8.8 million, reflecting strong domestic and international demand for scaffold and paint products. Additional sales of ex-hire system scaffolds are nearing finalisation, with payments expected between March and June. Projected cash flows from operations and other external sources are anticipated to support our working capital and inventory needs through Q4 FY2025.

Outlook

Q3 FY2025 marks a significant milestone in Oldfields' ongoing turnaround, with transformation initiatives driving sales growth, cost efficiencies, and improved profitability and liquidity. This positive trajectory is expected to continue through Q4, supported by strong demand for paint and scaffold products across both domestic and international markets, as well as the consistent performance of our SA/WA operations. The successful conversion of pipeline opportunities—both one-off and annuity-based—into sales and long-term contracts will be instrumental in advancing Oldfields' growth strategy. As the company further refines its sales and distribution operations and expands its expertise in H&S specialisation across SA/WA and Void Protection, it remains well-positioned for sustained success in H2 FY2025 and beyond.

For further details, please refer to the attached Appendix 4C.

This report underscores Oldfields' strategic transformation progress and the anticipated operational and financial benefits in the quarters ahead. We remain committed to strengthening our market position, enhancing profitability, and delivering long-term value to our stakeholders.

8.6 If item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, please provide answers to the following questions:
8.6.1 Does the entity expect that it will continue to have the current level of net operating cash flows for the time being and, if not, why not? Answer: The entity expects to have improved liquidity with the increased revenue from further asset sales including ex-hire equipment being sold at solid margins and other one-off cash inflows including active capital raising.
8.6.2 Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful? Answer: The entity has taken steps by mitigating and exiting a loss-making enterprise and liquidating the inventory from that enterprise. The process is ongoing with additional savings being recognised as the business liquidates underutilised assets and removes unnecessary cost. Demand for our core product has remained strong and the loss-making components are being phased out. Oldfields will continue to actively seek capital internally and externally.

8.6.3 Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?

Answer: Based on the future expected cash flow projections of the current sales pipeline, which consider the new domestic and international sales markets with new distributors and confirmed support by the enterprises primary lender and capital raise activities it is expected that the operations will have sufficient funds to meet current and future obligations when they materialise.

Note: where item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, all of questions 8.6.1, 8.6.2 and 8.6.3 above must be answered.
