Visual estimates of mineral abundance should never be considered a proxy or substitute for laboratory analyses where concentrations or grades are the factor of principal economic interest. Visual estimates also potentially provide no information regarding impurities or deleterious physical properties relevant to valuations. The nature, grade, and economic viability of any mineralization can only be determined through detailed laboratory analysis. # Advancing Toward Near-Term Antimony Production

The works program to underpin the aim of a production start by the end of 2025:

1. Now: Conduct metallurgical, engineering, and environmental studies.
2. May: Begin drilling a minimum of 3,000 meters
3. June: Release the maiden resource estimate
4. July: Complete feasibility and permit applications
5. Sept: Obtain permits
6. Oct-Dec: Start construction in Oct, with the first production targeted for Dec 2025

- Permitting via Alaska’s streamlined small-mine pathway is set up for small-scale or placer mining operations.
- Small-scale operation similar to a placer operation provides a potential pathway for the aggressive timeline.
- Permitting, success of economic studies, procurement and other factors may impact this timeline.

The preceding statements of Mineral Resources conforms to the Australasian Code for Reporting of Exploration Results, Mineral Resources and Ore Reserves (JORC Code) 2012 Edition. Due to rounding to appropriate significant figures, minor discrepancies may occur, all tonnages reported are dry metric. Mineral Resource estimates are not precise calculations, and the reported estimate is dependent on the interpretation of limited data pertaining to the location, shape, continuity of the mineralisation and the quality and quantity of the samples of the mineralisation. Mineral Resources that are not Ore Reserves do not have demonstrated economic viability. No processing recovery factors, or other modifying factors have been applied to these resource figures. The estimate of Mineral Resources may be materially affected by environmental, permitting, legal, title, taxation, sociopolitical, marketing, or other relevant modifying factors. Effective date of 30 June 2021

The defined resource is contiguous, and by virtue of its grade and geometry, should be considered as a Mineral Resource. As such, the CP (Mr Ian Taylor of Mining Associates) considers that the reported Mineral Resource has reasonable prospects for eventual economic extraction by open pit mining methods, and Mineral Resources below the pit depth are considered at a higher cut off to reflect the higher cost of underground mining methods.

Grant Mine – Exploration Target

An Exploration Target (JORC 2012) of 5.6 Mt to 6.6 Mt at a grade of 1.9 g/t Au to 2.1 g/t Au for 338,000 ounces to 545,000 ounces of gold was independently estimated by CP Mr Ian Taylor of Mining Associates for the Grant Mine based on a proposed exploration program. The Exploration Target is an extrapolation of the Grant Mineral Resource. The target sits outside of the current Mineral Resource reported above and has been extrapolated along the strike extent of known veins to the lease boundary. The Ethel Elms, O'Dea, and Lois veins were extended to a maximum depth of 300 m, 500 m and 50 m below surface respectively. A density of 2.65 t/m<sup>3</sup> (same as resource estimation) was used. The Exploration Target was estimated by extending the estimated resource volumes and grade along strike. Grade ranges were determined using alternate estimation techniques during validation of the resource model. The potential quantity and grade of this Exploration Target is conceptual in nature, there has been insufficient exploration to estimate a Mineral Resource and it is uncertain if further exploration will result in the estimation of a Mineral Resource.
