ASX Announcement (AMX)

Aerometrex achieves key milestone of $10 million in MetroMap Annual Contract Value

Aerometrex Limited (ASX: AMX) is pleased to announce that MetroMap, the Company's flagship subscription platform, has achieved a significant milestone of surpassing $10 million in Annual Contract Value (ACV). This is an increase from the Company's previously reported ACV of $9.33 million on 31st December 2024 represents a compound annual growth rate of approximately 22%. This key achievement is a powerful endorsement of the strategic investments made in the MetroMap platform and a clear signal of the increasing value it delivers to customers across industries.

Aerometrex's Acting CEO, Robert Veitch said:

"We are extremely pleased to reach this important milestone of $10 million in ACV. This organic product was launched in Q1 of 2020 and has grown to achieve $10 million in ACV today. Our continued growth in ACV reflects the trust our customers place in MetroMap and the dedication of our team. This is more than just a financial benchmark—it is a validation of our mission to empower our customers in enabling them to make smarter, faster, and more informed decisions through our innovative platform.

As organizations continue to prioritize data-driven decision-making, MetroMap's intuitive tools and robust analytics capabilities have become essential to their operations. MetroMap continues to grow in popularity across many industry sectors and across small, medium and Enterprise organisations as well as our expanding partner network."

This release is approved by the Board of Directors of Aerometrex Limited.
