Clarification regarding Tesla offtake agreement

Syrah Resources Limited (ASX: SYR) ("Syrah" or "Company") wishes to clarify its previous disclosure regarding the offtake agreement ("Agreement") with Tesla, Inc. ("Tesla") for the supply of natural graphite active anode material ("AAM") from Syrah's 11.25ktpa AAM facility in Vidalia, Louisiana ("Vidalia").

In an ASX release dated 29 December 2021, Syrah noted that the offtake obligation in the Agreement is conditional on final qualification of AAM to Tesla's satisfaction by no later than 31 May 2025. Syrah notes that this was a target date based on Vidalia's expected start of production when the Agreement was executed and is no longer relevant.

Tesla may terminate the Agreement if final qualification of AAM to its satisfaction is not achieved by 9 February 2026. If not already terminated, Syrah may terminate the Agreement if final qualification of AAM to Tesla's satisfaction is not achieved by 9 February 2027.

The parties are continuing to advance qualification processes required for the offtake obligation and commercial AAM sales to commence.
