SETTLEMENT OF LEGAL DISPUTE, RECAPITALISATION AND CONSOLIDATION

Conico Ltd (Conico or the Company) is pleased to confirm a resolution of its legal dispute with drilling contractor, Cartwright Drilling Inc ("Cartwright") and the settlement of its liability related to outstanding drilling invoices for the 2022 field season in Greenland as detailed in the previous ASX announcement dated 19 December 2024.

Conico is also pleased to advise that it has placed a total of $900,000 in converting loans that will convert to ordinary fully paid shares in the capital of the Company following shareholder approval at a general meeting of the Company to be held in July 2025 ("Meeting") ("Converting Loans"). Funds raised will be used to pay the settlement fee with Cartwright and for working capital.

Further, the Company plans to recapitalise by undertaking a fully underwritten non-renounceable entitlement offer, on a 4 for 5 basis, to eligible shareholders to raise approximately $1.19 million (before expenses) at an offer price of $0.001 per share ($0.008 per share post-Consolidation), to be undertaken following the Meeting in July. Further Conico plans to convert related party debts, broker fees and advisory fees to shares in order to conserve available cash, subject to shareholder approval at the Meeting. Further details are provided following.

Legal Dispute Settlement

As previously announced to the ASX, the Company was disputing unpaid invoices with drilling contractor Cartwright. The arbitrator in Newfoundland handed down findings that Longland and Conico were joint and severally liable to Cartwright in the amount of CAD$951,420.87 related to drilling at Ryberg plus additional contractual interest to the date of payment. Additionally, that Longland is liable to Cartwright in the amount of CAD$391,247.41 in relation to invoices for drilling and related activities at Mestersvig and a further CAD$45,865.40 related to Cartwright's costs of the arbitrator ("Cartwright Liability").

Conico has reached agreement with Cartwright through an independent advisor for the extinguishment of the Cartwright Liability in exchange for total consideration of:

- cash payment of CAD$322,500 (~A$360,555) which has been paid from proceeds of the converting loans, and a further CAD$322,500 (~A$360,555) to be paid on or before 21 November 2025; and
- issue of 34,658,000 fully paid ordinary shares in the Company ("Settlement Shares"). The issue of the Settlement Shares occurred today, utilising the Company's Listing Rule 7.1 placement capacity.
