ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

HARMONEY NOTES PARTIAL SELLDOWN OF SHARES BY FOUNDER AND TRANSITION TO BEING A NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Harmony Corp Limited (ASX:HMY) ("Harmony" or "the Company"), notes the sale of 3.6 million shares in the Company (representing approximately 3.5% of the issued shares in the Company) by Neil Roberts, Harmony's Founder. Neil served as CEO until 2019 before handing over the role to David Stevens, Harmony's current CEO & Managing Director, who has led Harmony for the past six years.

This partial sell-down coincides with Neil's planned transition out of his executive role of Chief Strategy Officer of Harmony, with effect from 1 July 2025. Neil has been a director of the Company since Harmony's inception, and will continue as a non-executive director of the Company.

The Board of Harmony has determined that Neil may continue to participate in the Company's Long Term Incentive Plan after he ceases to be an executive of the Company, so that Neil can continue to hold the 1,185,000 unvested Rights that have been previously granted to him under that Plan. Those unvested Rights will remain subject to the relevant vesting conditions imposed by the Board and will be eligible to vest to the extent that those vesting conditions are satisfied.

The Company confirms that, on completion of the partial sell-down, Neil will remain the single largest shareholder in Harmony, with a shareholding representing approximately 15% of the issued shares in the Company. Neil has indicated to the Board of Harmony that he has no current intention to sell any further Harmony shares within the next 12 months.

This release was authorised by the Board of Harmony Corp Limited.
