Aussie Broadband Board announces Sarah Adam-Gedge as new Non-Executive Director

16 June 2025

The Board of Aussie Broadband (ASX: ABB) is pleased to announce that Sarah Adam-Gedge will be joining the Board as a non-executive director, effective 1 July 2025.

Sarah joins Aussie Broadband with a wealth of experience as a Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director across several technology and digital businesses in Australia and New Zealand, as well as extensive experience internationally and throughout Asia-Pacific.

With significant management experience from over a decade at IBM, where she was the geographic leader across emerging and growth markets, Sarah has also led businesses such as Avanade Australia, Publicis Sapien and Wipro, which are large-scale businesses across information technology, consulting and digital solutions.

Her current roles include non-executive directorships at Emeco Holdings Ltd, Codan Ltd, Bravura Solutions Ltd, and Cricket Australia. Sarah is an experienced member of audit and risk committees, and was until recently Deputy Chair of Austal, an Australian sovereign shipbuilder and global Defence prime contractor.

“Sarah’s experience overseeing and developing complex technology solutions across multiple industries is an enormous resource for Aussie Broadband,” said Aussie Broadband Chair, Adrian Fitzpatrick. “Her global perspective across multiple industries at a high level, backed with her strong expertise in cyber and risk and compliance, will be of great benefit to Aussie.”

“As Aussie Broadband continues to grow, the depth and breadth of the skills mix and experience of our Board has been enhanced. The appointment of Sarah is testament to that, and I look forward to her contribution as we deliver on our strategy.”
