Does the notifiable interest arise from an agreement referred to in Section 1055 of the Companies Act 2014 of Ireland?¹ (If yes, provide names and addresses of the parties to the agreement, the number of shares each party is interested in individually and the registered holder of such shares if different)	No

¹ Note: Broadly stated, an agreement referred to in Section 1055 is an agreement providing for the acquisition of an interest in the voting securities of an Irish public limited company, where the provisions impose obligations/restrictions on the use, retention or disposal by a party of their interests in a company. Specific advice should be sought in the event of any such agreement because, in certain cases, the interests of the parties’ may require disclosure (e.g. where a party acquires the right to control voting securities by way of the agreement).
