Court Approves Scheme of Arrangement

Clean Seas Seafood Limited (ASX: CSS, OSE: CSS) ("Clean Seas", "CSS", "the Company") is pleased to announce that the Federal Court of Australia ("Court") yesterday made orders approving the proposed acquisition by Yumbah Aquaculture Limited ("Yumbah") of all the issued shares in Clean Seas by way of a scheme of arrangement ("Scheme"). The Court's orders were sealed yesterday following market closure.

Clean Seas has lodged an office copy of the orders of the Court with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC") yesterday, with the registration being effective from later today, at which time the Scheme will become legally effective. The quotation of Clean Seas Shares on the OSE was suspended from close of trading, 14 July 2025 and will be suspended on the ASX from close of trading, 16 July 2025.

Subject to the Scheme becoming legally effective, Scheme Shareholders will receive the Default Cash Consideration of $0.14 cash per ordinary share in the capital of Clean Seas held, unless a Scheme Shareholder (other than Ineligible Shareholders) made a valid Election before the Election Deadline to receive the Yumbah Scrip Alternative of one (1) New Yumbah Share for every 2.8571 Clean Seas Shares held (together, "Scheme Consideration").

Scheme Shareholders will receive the Scheme Consideration on the Implementation Date (expected to be 24 July 2025) in respect of all Clean Seas Shares held as at the Scheme Record Date, being 7:00pm (Adelaide time) on 18 July 2025.
