Section 3: Disclosure required for Placements made under Rule 4.5.1

Details of the approach in identifying investors who were able to participate in the offer and how their respective allocations in the offer were determined.

The explanation must set out the key objectives and criteria the Issuer adopted in the allocation process, whether one of those objectives was a best effort to allocate on a pro rata basis to existing holders of the Issuer's Equity Securities, and any significant exceptions or deviations from those objectives and criteria.

For the purposes of NZX Listing Rule 4.17.9(c), and having regard to the objectives which supported IKE's choice of offer structure (being a Placement and Share Purchase Plan), IKE's objectives and criteria for allocations under the Placement were primarily to:

- maximise participation by existing shareholders;
- endeavour to allocate to existing shareholders who participate at least their pro rata equivalent of the Placement, subject to their demand and IKE's other objectives and criteria;
- strengthen IKE's share register.

Any allocation of more than a pro rata equivalent, or any allocations to a new shareholder, were made having regard to the following criteria:

- quality of investor (including size and investment thesis);
- levels of historical engagement with or support of IKE (e.g. an existing or previous shareholding);
- potential to be a long term and supportive shareholder;
- timing of the investor's interest (in particular, how early in the offering process the investor expressed interest), seeking to prioritise investors that provide early bids and deal leadership;
- size of an investor's expressed interest (both absolutely and relative to the investor's portfolio) or assets under management;
- location of the investor and any applicable selling restrictions or other relevant legal or regulatory restrictions in jurisdictions with which the investor is located.

Final allocation decisions were made by IKE, and reflected input and advice from Shaw and Partners Limited and Unified Capital Partners Pty Limited, being the
