

Quarterly Update – Q4 FY2025

InFocus Group Holdings Limited (ASX: IFG) (the Company or InFocus), a data analytics and software solutions company, is pleased to provide an update on its activities for the quarter ended 30 June 2025 (Q4 FY2025 or the Quarter), including the annexed Appendix 4C.

Highlights:

- InFocus continues to push into frontier technologies – including artificial intelligence, machine learning, digital assets, fintech, and big data – with a USD 3.25 million B2B iGaming platform development contract
- Collaborative service delivery model across Onify, Prodigy9, and InFocus Analytics continues, with a consolidation of management in Thailand operational entities seeing Chakrit Wichian of Prodigy9 now leading Onify as well
- Significant contract wins across the business including an expanded relationship with Chubb Life Assurance Pcl Thailand, part of Chubb Limited (NYSE:CB), and others with Southeast Asian corporates
- AUD 1.17 million in cash receipts during the quarter reflects continued strong performance across business units

Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director, Ken Tovich commented:

“Q4 FY2025 was another exciting period for InFocus, marked by significant new business wins and ongoing development of our operational foundations. Our two areas of focus are frontier technologies such as digital assets and shifting further towards a large-scale enterprise consulting client base. We have seen even further success during the Quarter in these areas including our USD 3.25 million iGaming project, expansion of our activities with Chubb Life Assurance Pcl Thailand, part of Chubb Limited (NYSE:CB), and several other contract wins, largely in Southeast Asia.

“We are developing a robust foundation to pursue continued growth in our focus areas.”

Continuing to expand client base, particularly with large-scale corporate and enterprise clientele

During the Quarter, our largest contract win was an engagement as the exclusive technology partner on the development of an end-to-end iGaming platform solution for white-label distribution, with a contract worth USD 3.25 million.

Key features of the platform that InFocus will develop include the integration of digital collectible assets, a tokenised loyalty system, cryptocurrency-based payments processing, and various AI-powered engagement tools. These include dynamic content optimisation, e-sports integration with real-time data feeds, blockchain-verified fair play systems, and a comprehensive responsible gaming platform. The solution will also feature predictive player analytics, automated marketing tools, and client insight platforms to maximise operational efficiency for operators.

We have also expanded our engagement with Chubb Life Assurance Pcl Thailand, part of Chubb Limited (NYSE:CB) under the previously announced Master Service Agreement (ASX Release: 20 March 2025), and secured several other contracts with corporate and enterprise clients where IFG subsidiaries are providing software engineering consulting services on projects ranging from AI chatbots to automation modules for ERPs. We expect revenues from these contract wins to become visible through the remainder of 2025.

A collaborative and integrated operational model across InFocus business units

InFocus considers that its ability to attract and retain clients of this calibre and projects of this scale is driven largely by the integrated service delivery model being adopted by the Company's operating business units Onify (software and platform development), Prodigy9 (enterprise scale software engineering consultancy), and InFocus Analytics (data analytics).

As part of that integrated service delivery model across our business units, the Company has also looked to simplify its management structure with the promotion of Chakrit Wichian from Chief Executive Officer of Prodigy9 to also lead Onify. Chakrit was the founder and vendor of Prodigy9 - a software engineering consultancy firm based in Thailand, with deep expertise in fintech, insurance, and logistics – which InFocus acquired earlier this year. Chakrit brings to the Company a significant network of corporate and enterprise relationships in Thailand.

Chakrit's additional responsibility and leadership allows the Company to pursue an aggressive expansion strategy in Southeast Asia. Accordingly, IFG has also engaged Sawit Soothipunt to head business development in the region. With over 35 years of experience in information technology in Thailand, Sawit has witnessed and contributed significantly to the digital transformation of the commercial landscape in Southeast Asia having held executive and managerial roles with IBM, Huawei, TOA, and over 6 years with Microsoft.

Corporate

InFocus delivered strong customer cash receipts of AUD 1.166 million during Q4 FY2025, culminating in total receipts of AUD 3.69 million for FY2025. The operating cash outflow for the Quarter was AUD 0.49 million, reflecting continued strategic investment in innovation and product development.

Research and development expenditure totalled AUD 0.948 million. The expenditure related to a number of different projects within the Company in the data analytics sector involves data processing, automated insights, and improving algorithmic expertise. This new phase of R&D is not only expanding the Company's technological frontier but also laying the groundwork for long-term commercialisation across verticals that have historically lacked access to this kind of advanced algorithmic intelligence. With cloud-based flexibility and a deepening reservoir of proprietary IP, the Company is now uniquely positioned to deliver innovation in frontier technologies at enterprise scale.

Closing cash at the end of Q4 FY2025 was AUD 0.582 million. Payments to related parties during the Quarter totalled AUD 35k, comprising ordinary remuneration to directors.

In July 2025, the Company announced a further AUD 0.2 million being drawn pursuant to convertible notes issued post quarter close, and the ability to draw a further AUD 0.25 million, subject to shareholder approval to be sought in September 2025. The Company notes that the Convertible Security Agreement terms (as announced on 8 July 2025) are being amended to reflect a delay in seeking shareholder approval for the drawing of the second tranche of these Convertible Notes (which was otherwise due by 31 August 2025). The Company considers this change to be technical and immaterial. There are no other amendments expected.

In addition to the subsidiary-level management changes, InFocus was also pleased to see its Chief Executive Officer, Ken Tovich, become an Executive Director of the Company as former Managing Director Kenny Woo stepped down.
