Hiremii Commentary

Andrew Hornby, Managing Director of Hiremii said, "We're delighted to have completed the acquisition of Prince Migration at an exciting and strategically important time for both businesses. Leon and his team bring a strong track record and a clear vision for Prince's continued growth, and we're confident that, as part of the Hiremii Group, they are well placed to accelerate that trajectory.

This acquisition significantly enhances our capabilities at a time when global workforce mobility is becoming increasingly central to client success. It strengthens our ability to deliver flexible visa and migration solutions – a key differentiator as we scale to compete with larger international players.

Hiremii is now a leading Australian recruitment company, with a first-mover advantage through our commercialised AI platform and now a fully integrated migration and visa services division. The two teams are already collaborating on new business opportunities, and we're excited about the synergies ahead. We look forward to welcoming Leon and the entire Prince Migration team to the Group and are confident this integration will create long-term value for our clients and shareholders alike."

Mr Leon Yuan Gao, a registered migration agent with significant experience in the migration and education sectors across Australia and Asia, will continue in his role as the executive director of Prince Migration and will continue to be engaged by Prince Migration.

Leon Gao of Prince Migration said, "We are excited to be joining the Hiremii team. This allows Prince to both scale its existing services and to provide an expanded offering to its clients through the adoption of state of the art technology. In addition, we see tremendous opportunities for a strong cross referral model. We look forward to working closely with Andrew and the management team at Hiremii."

This announcement has been approved by The Board of Directors of Hiremii.
