What are the key risks of a subscription under the Offers?	An investment in the Company carries risks that Qualifying Shareholders should consider before making a decision to subscribe for New Shares. These risks include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Company is (and has been) incurring ongoing operating losses. The Company and its subsidiaries ability to continue as a going concern is therefore currently reliant on it raising further capital (equity or debt) to fund working capital. The Company’s ability to raise further capital within an acceptable time, for a sufficient amount and on terms acceptable to it will vary accordingly to a number of factors. There is no guarantee that the Company will achieve commercial viability in the future. • The Company owes US$5.8 million to iBorrow REIT (facility expiry date 15 January 2026) and A$2.63 million to two companies associated with its Directors (repayable on demand). The Company may not be able to extend, refinance or repay the iBorrow loan on its due date.  - 2.1.2.2 any investor to whom the Directors elect, in their discretion, to place the balance of the Shortfall remaining after the QS Shortfall Offer in section 2.1.2.1 has been completed in accordance with section 2.12 (“Investor Shortfall Offer”),on the terms set out in section 2.12 (together the “Shortfall Offers”).

The Offers are not underwritten.

As the Entitlement Offer is non-renounceable, Qualifying Shareholders who do not wish to exercise their Rights to subscribe for some or all of the New Shares (and accompanying New Options) being offered to them under this Prospectus may not sell or otherwise transfer those Rights, and those Rights will lapse upon the expiry of the Offer Period.

2.2 Shares and Options offered for subscription under the Entitlement Offer

By this Prospectus, the Company is making a non-renounceable pro rata rights issue to Qualifying Shareholders of approximately 164,497,687 New Shares and 82,248,844 New Options (assuming that none of the Existing Options of the Company are converted to Shares prior to the Record Date) on the basis of 1 New Share for every 2 Existing Shares held as at the Record Date at an issue price of $0.035 each, together with 1 New Option free of charge for every 2 New Shares acquired (each New Option to acquire 1 Share at an exercise price of $0.07 exercisable at any time up to and including two years after the date of issue).

All New Shares issued pursuant to this Prospectus will be issued as fully paid ordinary shares and will rank equally in all respects with the Existing Shares (see section 7.4 of this Prospectus).

The New Options issued pursuant to this Prospectus will be issued on the terms and conditions set out in section 7.5 of this Prospectus. All Shares issued consequent upon the exercise of the New Options will be issued as fully paid ordinary shares and will rank equally in all respects with the Existing Shares. The New Options will not be quoted on the ASX.

2.3 Entitlement to Participate in the Entitlement Offer

Shareholders who are registered on the Company's Share Register and whose registered addresses are in Australia or New Zealand at the close of business on the Record Date, being 5.00pm WST on 18 August 2025, are eligible to participate in the Entitlement Offer (Qualifying Shareholders). An Entitlement and Acceptance Form setting out Qualifying Shareholders' Entitlements to New Shares and New Options will accompany this Prospectus.

Fractional Entitlements will be rounded up to the nearest whole number of New Shares and accompanying New Options. For this purpose, holdings in the same name are aggregated for calculation of Entitlements. If Eden considers that holdings have been split to take advantage of rounding, the Company reserves the right to aggregate holdings held by associated Qualifying Shareholders for the purpose of calculating Entitlements.

2.4 Applications

This Entitlement Offer may be accepted by Applicants in whole or in part prior to the Closing Date, subject to the right of the Company to extend the Offer Period or close the Entitlement Offer early (see section 2.15).

Instructions for accepting an Entitlement are set out in section 3 of this Prospectus and on the Entitlement and Acceptance Form which will accompany this Prospectus.

This Entitlement Offer is made on a non-renounceable basis such that Qualifying Shareholders may not sell or transfer all or any part of their Entitlement. If Qualifying Shareholders do not take up their Entitlement by the Closing Date, their Entitlement to new Shares under this Offer will lapse.

2.5 Application money

All Qualifying Shareholders who accept the Entitlement Offer made to them in its entirety will receive their Entitlement in full.

New Shares and accompanying New Options will be issued to an Applicant only after all of their Application Money has been received and ASX has granted permission for the New Shares to be quoted.

All Application Money received before the New Shares and accompanying New Options are issued will be held in a special purpose bank account. After the New Shares and New Options are issued to Applicants, the funds in the account will be received by the Company. All Application Moneys will be returned (without interest) if this Rights Issue is withdrawn or otherwise does not proceed.

If the New Shares are not admitted to Quotation by ASX within 3 months after the date of this Prospectus (or any longer period permitted by ASIC), the Company will refund all Application Moneys in full.

2.6 Issue outside Australia and New Zealand

This Prospectus does not constitute an offer of Securities in any place outside Australia and New Zealand in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer or to issue the Prospectus. The distribution of this Prospectus and the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form in jurisdictions outside Australia and New Zealand may be restricted by law and persons who come into possession of this Prospectus and the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form (including nominees, trustees or custodians) should seek advice on and observe those restrictions. Any failure to comply with those restrictions may constitute a violation of applicable securities laws.

Recipients (including any nominee, trustee or custodian who receives this Prospectus) may not send or otherwise distribute this Prospectus or the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form to any person outside Australia or New Zealand (other than to Qualifying Shareholders).

No action has been taken to register the Rights, the New Shares, the New Options or this Prospectus or otherwise permit an offering of the New Shares, New Options or the Rights in any jurisdiction outside of Australia or New Zealand. Without limitation, the Rights and the New Shares and New Options have not been, and will not be, registered under the US Securities Act 1933 (as amended) or the securities laws of any State of the United States of America.

2.7 Treatment of Non-Qualifying Foreign Shareholders

The Entitlement Offer in this Prospectus is not being extended to any Shareholder, as at the Record Date, whose registered address is not situated in Australia or New Zealand (Non-Qualifying Foreign Shareholders). This is because the Company is of the view that it is unreasonable to extend the Entitlement Offer to Non-Qualifying Foreign Shareholders having regard to the small number of such Non-Qualifying Foreign Shareholders, the small number and value of the Securities which would be offered to Non-Qualifying Foreign Shareholders, and the cost of complying with applicable legal requirements, and requirements of regulatory authorities, of the applicable jurisdictions outside of Australia and New Zealand.

Recipients may not send or otherwise distribute this Prospectus or the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form to any person outside Australia or New Zealand.

Accordingly, this Rights Issue is not being extended to, and no New Shares or New Options will be issued under Entitlement Offer to, Shareholders with registered addresses outside Australia and New Zealand, and no Entitlement and Acceptance Form will be sent to them. However, in compliance with Listing Rule 7.7.1, the Company will send each Non-Qualifying Foreign Shareholder details of this Rights Issue and advise them that the Company will not offer New Shares (and accompanying New Options) to them.

2.8 ASX Quotation of New Shares

Application will be, or has been, made within 7 days of the date of this Prospectus for permission for the New Shares offered by this Prospectus to be admitted to Quotation on the ASX.

If approval for Quotation of the New Shares is not granted within 3 months after the date of this Prospectus (or any longer period permitted by ASIC), the Company will not allot or issue any New Shares (or accompanying New Options) pursuant to the Entitlement Offer and will repay all Application Moneys without interest as soon as practicable.

Subject to approval being granted by ASX, it is expected that the New Shares and New Options will be issued to Qualifying Shareholders on 8 September 2025 and that Quotation of the New Shares will commence on ASX on a normal basis on 11 September 2025. It is the responsibility of all Applicants to determine their allocation prior to trading in New Shares.

The New Options will not be quoted on the ASX.

Applicants who trade in New Shares or otherwise deal with the New Shares or New Options before they receive holding statements will do so at their own risk. The Company disclaims all liability in tort (including negligence), statute or otherwise to persons who trade or otherwise deal with New Shares and New Options before receiving holding statements.

ASIC and ASX take no responsibility for the contents of this Prospectus. The fact that the ASX may approve Quotation of the New Shares is not to be taken in any way as an indication of the merits of the Company or the New Shares (or accompanying New Options) offered under this Prospectus.

2.9 Allotment of New Shares and New Options

Subject to ASX granting approval for Quotation of the New Shares, the allotment of the New Shares and New Options to Applicants will occur as soon as possible after the respective Offers have closed, following which holding statements setting out the number of New Shares and New Options allotted to Applicants under this Prospectus will be despatched.

2.10 Not Underwritten

The Offers are not underwritten.

2.11 Minimum subscriptions and oversubscriptions

There is no minimum subscription to the Rights Issue, and no oversubscriptions will be accepted.

2.12 Shortfall Offers

If the Entitlement Offer is not fully subscribed, those New Shares and accompanying New Options not taken up will form part of the Shortfall.

The Shortfall Offers are separate offers pursuant to this Prospectus.

2.12.1 QS Shortfall Offer to Qualifying Shareholders

Qualifying Shareholders may, in addition to their Entitlement, apply for additional New Shares (and accompanying New Options) forming part of the Shortfall, regardless of the size of their present holding.

Qualifying Shareholders who wish to participate in the QS Shortfall Offer by applying for New Shares (and accompanying New Options) above their Entitlement, should insert the number of additional New Shares they wish to apply for in that section of the table in the Entitlement and Acceptance Form headed "Number of Shortfall Shares (if any) applied for (in excess of the Entitlement shown above)". The issue price of any New Shares comprising part of the Shortfall shall be $0.035, being the price at which the Entitlements have been offered to Qualifying Shareholders pursuant to this Prospectus. Any additional New Shares applied must be paid for in the same manner as the Entitlement Shares are paid for. A single payment should be made for the Application Moneys for any New Shares you have applied for as part of your Entitlement and any additional New Shares applied for as part of the Shortfall. It is an express term of the QS Shortfall Offer that applicants for New Shares comprised in the Shortfall will be bound to accept a lesser number of additional New Shares (and accompanying New Options) than the number applied for.

The Shortfall will be placed at the discretion of the Company. The Company reserves the right to reject (either in whole or in part) any applications for the Shortfall. The Company also reserves the right to allot to an Applicant a lesser number of the New Shares (and accompanying New Options) comprising the Shortfall than the number for which the Applicant applies, or to allot none of the additional New Shares (and accompanying New Options) applied for by the Applicant. In assessing any applications by Qualifying Shareholders to take up a portion of the Shortfall, the Directors will take into account all of the following factors: the number of Existing Shares held by Applicants, the extent to which an Applicant has sold or bought Shares in the Company before or after the announcement of the Entitlement Offer and the Record Date, the financial needs of the Company, and the optimal composition of the Company's register following the completion of the Offers.

As a result, Qualifying Shareholders who apply for additional New Shares in excess of their Entitlement receive no guarantee that they shall receive all or any of those additional New Shares (and accompanying New Options) for which they apply. If a Qualifying Shareholder does not receive all or any of the additional New Shares (and accompanying New Options) they apply for under the QS Shortfall Offer, any excess Application Moneys will be returned to them (without interest).

The Directors (whether personally or through their associated companies or trusts) will not apply for any additional New Shares (and accompanying New Options) forming part of the Shortfall.

2.12.2 Investor Shortfall Offer to Investors

If the Entitlement Offer is not fully subscribed, the Directors reserve the right, subject to the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act, to place any remaining New Shares and New Options not then subscribed for under the QS Shortfall Offer referred to in section 2.12.1 above, at any time within 3 months of the Closing Date, at an issue price of not less than the issue price under the Entitlement Offer, being $0.035 per Share. The offer of the remaining Shortfall under this section 2.12.2 shall remain open under this Prospectus (and may be accepted by any investor who has been offered any portion of the Shortfall by the Directors in their discretion) until the date which is 3 months after the Closing Date. The Directors intend, in placing any remaining Shortfall (if any), to allocate it under this section 2.12.2 to sophisticated and professional investors at an issue price not less than the issue price under the Entitlement Offer.

None of the Company's Directors (whether personally or through their associated companies or trusts) intend to apply for any of the Shortfall under either of the Shortfall Offers.

2.13 Purpose of the Entitlement Offer and Shortfall Offers

The purpose of the Entitlement Offer and Shortfall Offers is to raise up to approximately $5,757,419 (before expenses of the Entitlement Offer). The funds raised under the Entitlement Offer and Shortfall Offers will be utilised in the manner set out in section 5 of this Prospectus.

2.14 Market prices of Existing Shares and Options on ASX

The highest and lowest market sale price of the Existing Shares during the 3 months immediately preceding the lodgement of this Prospectus with ASIC, and the last market sale price immediately preceding the lodgement date of this Prospectus, are set out below.

	3-Month High (on 2 June 2025)	3-Month Low (on 30 July 2025)	Last Market Price (COB 12 August 2025)
Existing Shares	$0.060	$0.020	$0.038

The approximate VWAP of the Existing Shares for the 30-day period prior to the date of lodgement of this Prospectus at ASIC was $0.048.

The prices above are on a post 1-for 20 share consolidation basis, with this consolidation completing on 29 July 2025.

The Existing Options have not traded in the 3 months immediately preceding the lodgement of this Prospectus

2.15 Opening and Closing Dates

Subscription lists for the Offers will open on 19 August 2025 and, subject to section 2.12.2, close at 5.00pm WST on 2 September 2025. Subject to the requirements of the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, the Company may either close the Offers at an earlier time and date or extend the closing time and date without prior notice. Qualifying Shareholders are encouraged to submit their Applications as early as possible.

No New Shares or New Options will be issued under this Prospectus later than 13 months after the date of this Prospectus.

2.16 Indicative timetable

Refer to the "Summary of Entitlement Offer" at the beginning of this Prospectus for an indicative Entitlement Offer timetable.

2.17 Existing Shares

At the Record Date (and following completion of the 1-for 20 share consolidation on 8 August 2025, and the issue of 123,500,000 Shares on 11 August 2025 to convert a portion of the debt owed by the Company to March Bells and Arkenstone into Shares as approved by Shareholders at a general meeting on 22 July 2025) there are 328,995,374 Shares on issue in the Company.

If this Rights Issue is fully subscribed, and assuming that none of the Existing Options are converted to Shares before the Closing Date, a total of approximately 493,493,061 Shares will be on issue in the Company at the conclusion of this Rights Issue.

2.18 Existing Options

There are currently 29,362,389 listed (ASX:EDEOD) Options on issue in the Company. Each Option entitles the holder to acquire 1 Share for an exercise price of $0.18, expiring on 11 September 2026.

Assuming this Rights Issue is fully subscribed, and assuming that none of the Existing Options are converted to Shares before the Closing Date, a further 82,248,844 Options (approximately) will be on issue in the Company at the conclusion of this Rights Issue.

2.19 Existing Optionholders

Holders of all of the Existing Options on issue in the Company, to the extent they will (on exercise) be a Qualifying Shareholder, may participate in this Rights Issue by exercising any or all of their Existing Options at least two business days prior to the Record Date.

All Existing Options on issue in the Company at the Record Date are capable of being exercised. If all of these Existing Options were exercised before the Record Date, an additional 29,362,389 Shares would then be issued. In addition, in the event that all of the Rights in respect of these additional Shares were subscribed for, an additional 14,681,195 New Shares (together with 7,340,598 accompanying New Options) would be issued under this Rights Issue, and a further $513,842 would be raised under this Rights Issue. However, given the current price of the Company's Shares and the price at which the Existing Options are exercisable, the Company does not anticipate that any of the Optionholders will exercise their Existing Options prior to the Record Date.

2.20 Director Shareholding

As at the date of this Prospectus, all of the Directors (either personally, or through associated companies or trusts) hold Shares in the Company. All of the Company's Directors are therefore Qualifying Shareholders and will receive Rights to subscribe for New Shares pursuant to the Entitlement Offer.

The relevant interest of each of the Directors in the Shares and Options of the Company as at the date of this Prospectus, and the Rights they will receive under the Entitlement Offer are as follows:

	Gregory Solomon and Arkenstone Pty Ltd (and associated companies and trusts) ("Arkenstone Group")	Douglas Solomon and March Bells Pty Ltd (and associated companies and trusts) ("MB Group")	Allan Larsen
Shares currently held	65,764,697	65,373,265	45,502,314
New Shares offered under this Offer (estimated)	32,882,349	32,686,632	22,751,157
Options currently held	-	-	-
New Options offered this Offer (estimated)	16,441,175	16,343,316	11,375,579

Nothing in this Offer Document will be taken to preclude any of the Directors, officers or employees of the Company or any of their subsidiary companies from applying for New Shares under the Entitlement Offer.

By virtue of the prohibition in s.606 of the Corporations Act, the maximum percentage interest which either the Arkenstone Group or MB Group can hold in the Company's total issued Share capital at the completion of this Offer is 19.99%. Each of the Arkenstone Group and MB Group have indicated to the Company that, to the maximum extent it is permitted to do so by s606 of the Corporations Act, it intends to support the Offer and to take up all or a portion of its Entitlements. Each of the Arkenstone Group and MB Group have indicated to the Company that it intends to apply a portion of the amount it has lent to the Company (which is repayable on demand) to pay for all of its Application Money(s) for the New Shares it subscribes for under its Entitlement, in partial satisfaction and repayment of such loan. Accordingly, the Company will not receive any cash from the New Shares issued to the Arkenstone Group or MB Group under this Offer.

2.21 Impact on Control

The New Shares offered under this Offer represent 50% of the Company's current issued Share capital.

The Arkenstone Group and MB Group, being two of the largest shareholders of the Company, each has indicated to the Company that it intends to support this Offer and to take up all or a portion of its Entitlements, to the maximum extent permitted by s606 of the Corporations Act (and so that its percentage shareholding in the Company at the conclusion of this Offer will not exceed 19.99%), in the manner set out below. Neither the Arkenstone Group nor MB Group will apply for any of the Shortfall.

If the Arkenstone Group and the MB Group take up all of their Entitlements and this Offer is fully subscribed, the percentage shareholding of the Arkenstone Group and MB Group in the Company will not change, and the maximum number of Shares they will hold in the Company at completion of this Offer is shown in the following table.

	Arkenstone Group	% of total	MB Group	% of total
Shares currently held	65,764,697	19.99%	65,373,265	19.87%
New Shares offered under this Offer (estimated)	32,882,347		32,686,633	-
Maximum Shares held on completion of this Offer (estimated) ⁽¹⁾	98,647,041	19.99%	98,059,898	19.87%

(1) On the assumption the Arkenstone Group and the MB Group take up all of their Entitlements and this Rights Issue is fully subscribed.

As at the date of this Prospectus, each of the Arkenstone Group and MB Group holds approximately 19.9% of the issued share capital of the Company. S.606 of the Corporations Act prohibits a person from acquiring a relevant interest in issued voting shares in a listed company if that acquisition will result in its voting power in the company increasing from a starting point that is from 20% or below to more than 20%, unless an exception in s.611 of the Corporations Act applies. As such, each of Arkenstone Group and MB Group will only be able to take up all or some of their Entitlements under the Entitlement Offer, if and to the extent other Qualifying Shareholders take up their Rights and/or participate in the QS Shortfall Offer.

Arkenstone and March Bells are owed, in the aggregate, $2,672,374 as at 11 August 2025 ("Shareholder Loans"), the majority of which amount has been used by the Company for working capital purposes.

As noted above, to the extent permitted by s.606 of the Corporations Act, each of Arkenstone Group and MB Group intend to take up all or a portion of its Entitlements under this Rights Issue, with the amount of the Shareholder Loan being applied to pay for all of the Application Money(s) for the New Shares it subscribes for under its Entitlement, in partial satisfaction and repayment of its Shareholder Loan. Accordingly, the Company will not receive any cash from the New Shares and New Options taken up by Arkenstone Group and MB Group under their Entitlements. If the Offers are fully subscribed, the indebtedness of the Company under the Shareholder Loans will be substantially reduced, assuming no other loan advances are received from Arkenstone and March Bells, to $398,628, including accrued interest, on 8 September 2025.

In view of the above, this Offer will not therefore have any material effect on the control of the Company, as the percentage of the issued share capital which is held by Arkenstone Group and MB Group will not increase from its present amount (each approximately 19.99%).

In any event, both the Arkenstone Group and the MB Group have indicated to the Company that they have no present intention to try to change the Company's main activities, business or direction.

The Company's largest Shareholder, Noble (a wholly owned subsidiary of Tasman), which current holds 33.9% of the Shares of the Company, has indicated to the Company that it does not intend to take up any of its Entitlement under the Entitlement Offer.

2.22 Effect on existing Shareholders and Optionholders

For the effect the Offers will have on Shareholders' and Optionholders' existing interests, please see sections 6.3 and 6.4 of this Prospectus.

2.23 No commission payable on New Shares and New Options

No commission will be payable by the Company in connection with any New Shares and New Options which are issued under this Prospectus.

2.24 No valuation

No formal valuation has been completed of any of the assets, or the New Shares or New Options, of the Company.

2.25 Risk factors

In addition to the general risks applicable to all investments in listed companies, there are specific risks associated with an investment in the Company. Please see section 5 of this Prospectus for further information.

The Corporations Act requires the Company to include information about each Shareholder (including name, address and details of the Shares and Options held) in its public register. The information contained in the Company's public register must remain there even if that person ceases to be a Shareholder. Information contained in the Company's register is also used to facilitate payments and corporate communications (including the Company's financial results, annual reports and other information that the Company wishes to communicate to its Shareholders) and compliance by the Company with legal and regulatory requirements.

Under the Privacy Act 1998 (Cth), Shareholders have a right to gain access to personal information that the Company holds about that person, subject to certain exemptions under law. A fee may be charged for access. Access requests must be made in writing to the Company's registered office.

If you are paying by cheque or money order and you do not provide the information required on the Entitlement and Acceptance Form, the Company may not be able to accept or process your Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

4. COMPANY OVERVIEW

4.1 Background and Business Operations

Eden was incorporated in Australia in May 2004 as a wholly owned subsidiary of Tasman Resources Ltd. Eden undertook an initial public offering pursuant to a prospectus in March 2006 and was admitted to the Official List of the ASX on 1 June 2006.

In addition to its proprietary, core methane pyrolysis process that cracks methane (in the form of Natural Gas) into carbon nanotubes (CNT) and hydrogen (the ratio (by mass) of CNT to hydrogen being 3:1), Eden has developed a range of downstream commercial products, comprising the EdenCrete® range of concrete admixtures, the OptiBlend™ dual fuel system and its Hythane technology for blending hydrogen and Natural Gas.

Eden's intention is to continue to develop global markets for each of its existing commercial products as well as for a range of other products (including EdenPlast®, for use in batteries and coatings) that use CNT.

If sufficient CNT can be used in these downstream applications, it could lead to commercial scale "turquoise" hydrogen production (hydrogen produced from a feedstock of Natural Gas using renewable energy or electricity from nuclear power to heat the reactor) using Eden's efficient, low cost, proprietary methane pyrolysis process.

Eden's Core Technology - the Proprietary Pyrolysis Project

Eden's 100% owned core technology has been commercialised in Colorado, USA since 2011 at its US facility, whereby methane (CH₄) is broken down into its constituents of gaseous hydrogen (H₂) and solid carbon (C), without the production of carbon dioxide. The solid carbon is produced as carbon nanotubes that each are many times stronger, in certain applications, than steel, whilst each also has a great capacity to conduct both electricity and heat. Carbon nano-fibres, an alternative form of solid carbon, can also be produced by Eden's process if required.

Eden's Pyrolysis Process – Production of Carbon Nanotubes and Hydrogen

Eden considers that its pyrolysis process is relatively efficient when compared with other methods of production of carbon nanotubes (CNT) (or carbon nano-fibres (CNF) if desired) as well as hydrogen. Eden's process:

- Requires only a relatively low level of energy to heat the reactor and lower cost capital equipment compared with most other published methods;
- Uses proprietary, relatively low-cost catalysts (no precious metals are used in the catalysts) that Eden manufactures;
- Has a low carbon footprint; and
- Produces low-cost hydrogen and CNT (or CNF if desired) from natural gas without generating CO₂.

Current and possible future applications for Eden's CNT are:

- Concrete (this led to the development of EdenCrete®)
- Carbon composite materials, including plastics and polymers for many purposes including the automobile industry and aerospace industry, and packaging materials (this led to the development of EdenPlast®);
- Conductive coatings; and
- Use in batteries and electrical storage.

The three EdenCrete® products (EdenCrete®, EdenCrete® Pz, and EdenCrete® Pz7) that have been developed and commercialised are all carbon nanotube-enriched, liquid admixtures for concrete that significantly improve tensile and flexural strength without compromising compressive strength, and improve permeability, or corrosion resistance. This results in greater load bearing capacity for applications such as slabs on grade, columns or footings, improved resistance to abrasive wear and frequently reduced shrinkage, all in a cost-effective manner, and usually without undesirable interactions with other admixtures already in the mix.

The original EdenCrete® was first developed for use in concrete manufactured largely with calcium-based Ordinary Portland Cement (OPC), and enhances many of the performance characteristics of the concrete (compressive and flexural strength, abrasion resistance, and reduced permeability) resulting in increased longevity and durability of the concrete.

EdenCrete® Pz and EdenCrete® Pz7 were developed to work with both concrete manufactured with OPC as well as with concrete that contains a significant percentage of pozzolanic cementitious material (primarily fly-ash and/or blast furnace slag, both of which are lower cost waste products that have a near zero Greenhouse Gas footprint) in substitution in the concrete mix for the same percentage of OPC. This results in cheaper, similar strength concrete that has a greatly reduced CO₂ footprint.

Low CO₂ Concrete for all Applications

The global use of concrete is estimated to contribute 8% of the total annual global CO₂ emissions. Most of this CO₂ comes from the production of OPC from limestone, for use as the primary cementitious material. With increasing concern about climate change, the Company is seeing a push by many of the major concrete producers around the world to develop concrete mixes with lower CO₂ footprints, largely by substituting high percentages of silica-based pozzolans for the calcium-based OPC.

The EdenCrete® Pz range of admixtures enable concrete incorporating significantly increased percentages (in some cases up to 50% or more) of low-cost, ultra-low CO₂ footprint pozzolans, such as fly-ash and blast furnace slag, in substitution for a corresponding reduction in the amount of high CO₂ footprint compared with the same mix made with OPC.

EdenCrete® Pz7 has recently been sold to two concrete plants in Ecuador and to one concrete plant in USA owned by subsidiaries of a global European-based cement and concrete company which has been trialling all the EdenCrete® products over the past two years. Trials have been conducted by this company or its subsidiaries, in France, USA, Canada, Ecuador, UK and Mexico and most of them are continuing.

For personal use only

The potential for the EdenCrete® Pz range of admixtures to enable a high percentage of OPC (up to 50% or more) to be replaced in US concrete mixes, with a similar quantity of far lower cost, ultra-low CO2 fly ash, bottom ash and/or pond ash, is considered by the Company to be of great importance in it achieving its targeted long- term growth in US sales of EdenCrete® products.

OptiBlend® dual fuel technology allows conventional diesel engines to run on a mixture of natural gas and diesel fuel, with natural gas being the primary fuel (up to 70%), without modifying the engine or the current diesel fuel system. This normally results in lower fuel costs (with natural gas generally being cheaper than diesel fuel), lower emissions, and increased runtime for the engine, by enabling the stored diesel fuel to last up to 3 times as long. This is a major benefit for operators of diesel generator sets that are used for back-up power in many countries in many critical industries including hospitals, jails, airports, data centres, shopping malls and government buildings. The product has been fully developed and marketed in USA and India and sold in a number of other countries for more than 15 years.

4.2 Directors

The current Directors of the Company are:

- Gregory Howard Solomon, LLB (Executive Chairman)
- Douglas Howard Solomon, B. Juris (Hons), LLB (Non-Executive Director)
- Allan Godsk Larsen, M.Sc., Ph.D. (Non-Executive Director)

5. RISK FACTORS

Investing in new Shares in the Company involves risk. There are a number of risk factors, both specific to the Company and of a general nature, which may affect the financial position, financial performance, cash flows, ability to pay dividends and growth prospects of the Company and the outcome of an investment in the Company. These risks are both specific to the Company and generally relate to an investment in the stock market. There can be no guarantee that the Company will achieve its stated objectives, or that forward looking statements will be realised.

5.1 Working Capital and External Borrowings

Eden's expenses currently exceed the income which is being generated by its US and Indian subsidiaries from sales of EdenCrete®, EdenCrete®Pz, EdenCrete®Pz7 and OptiBlend®. The funds which are being raised under this Prospectus will be augmented by funds received from sales to customers by Eden's subsidiaries.

Until the Company's sales to its customers exceeds its expenses, it will continue to incur ongoing operating losses. The Company's group condensed consolidated interim financial report for the half year ended 31 December 2024 states that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the group's ability to continue as a going concern, with the Company being dependent on continued loan funding from Arkenstone and March Bells until the Company can raise additional capital.

The Company's US subsidiary has borrowed US $5.8 million from iBorrow REIT ("iBorrow Loan"), the term of which expires on 15 January 2026. The iBorrow Loan is secured by all three of the Company's US subsidiary's commercial properties in the USA and is guaranteed by the Company.

The Company's US subsidiary has contracted to sell its 65-acre industrial property in Augusta, Georgia, USA, which is expected to settle in late August 2025. The Company expects that, when this property is sold, the net proceeds of sale will extinguish a significant portion of the iBorrow Loan. The Company is also endeavouring to sell its Mead Way property in Littleton, Colorado, USA. The Company expects that, when its Mead Way property is sold, the net proceeds of this sale together with the proceeds from the sale of its Augusta, Georgia property, will fully extinguish the iBorrow Loan.

There is a significant risk that both the Augusta, Georgia and Mead Way, Colorado properties will not be sold prior to 15 January 2026. Furthermore, there is a risk that the Company may not be able to extend, refinance or otherwise meet the obligations of the settlement of the iBorrow loan. If that risk transpires, iBorrow may institute enforcement action under the iBorrow Loan agreement, including taking steps to sell any of the Company's US subsidiary's remaining industrial properties in the USA and pursuing the Company under its guarantee.

The Company has also borrowed a total of $2,672,374 (as of 11 August 2025) from Arkenstone and March Bells. As set out in this Prospectus, each of the Arkenstone Group and MB Group have indicated to the Company that it intends to support the Offer, by taking up all or a portion of its Entitlements under this Rights Issue, to the maximum extent permitted by s606 of the Corporations Act, with a portion of the amount it has lent to the Company being applied to pay for all of its Application Money(s) for the New Shares it subscribes for under its Entitlement, in partial satisfaction and repayment of its Shareholder Loan. If this Offer is fully subscribed, the Arkenstone and March Bells loans would be reduced by the amount of $2,294,914, leaving a balance owing of $398,628 as of 8 September 2025, including accrued interest, and assuming no other loan advances.

The Arkenstone and March Bells loans are unsecured and at call. There is a risk that either of Arkenstone and March Bells may call on their loans.

The Company is seeking to raise sufficient funds pursuant to this Rights Issue to cover at least 12 months of working capital assuming all of the following:

- For personal use only
- (a) the Offer is fully subscribed;
 - (b) the Augusta, Georgia property is sold and the net proceeds of sale reduce or extinguish a significant portion of the amount owing under the iBorrow Loan before it matures, and the iBorrow Loan is refinanced for a further term from 15 January 2026; and
 - (c) sales revenue remains at current levels.

However, even if all of these assumptions are achieved, unless sales increase sufficiently above current levels, the Company is unlikely to be able to achieve financial self-sufficiency prior to this capital being exhausted. The Company is therefore likely to have to raise further capital or borrow further funds prior to this capital being exhausted, and/or sell one of its other two US properties in Littleton, Colorado.

If the Rights Issue is not fully subscribed, or if the Company needs to repay any amounts owing under the iBorrow Loan or Shareholder Loans, or there is requirement for significant capital investment or unexpected business expenses, the Company will have to raise further capital before the expiration of this 12 month period referred to above.

It is therefore likely the Company will have to raise further capital or borrow funds in the future. There is no guarantee that such additional funds will be available to the Company. Further, any additional equity financing which is available may be dilutive to Shareholders.

The Company's failure to raise capital if and when needed could delay or suspend the Company's business strategy and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities.

5.2 Risks associated with the commercialisation of new and existing technologies and competing technologies

There is no guarantee that the Company's commercialisation of EdenCrete[®], EdenCrete[®]Pz, EdenCrete[®]Pz7, OptiBlend[®] or Hythane[™] or the proposed commercialisation of any other new technologies will be successful. Commercialisation may be impeded by, for example, adverse market conditions, unforeseen technical or environmental issues or the failure of patent applications to be granted. In addition, commercialisation may be impeded due to competition from competing technologies or products (including new technologies). Further, the Company may not be able to establish a market for the sale of its new products which is of a sufficient size, or achieve sufficient growth in market acceptance for the sale of its existing products, for it to achieve financial self-sufficiency.

5.3 Product price volatility and exchange rate risks

The revenue which the Company will derive through the sale of its products, including EdenCrete[®], EdenCrete[®]Pz, EdenCrete[®]Pz7, OptiBlend[®] and Hythane[™] exposes the potential income of the Company to product price and exchange rate risks. Product prices fluctuate and are affected by many factors beyond the control of the Company, including pandemics, acts of war, supply and demand fluctuations, prices of competing technologies, technological advancements and other micro and macro-economic factors. As the Company's operations are primarily based in the US and India, the Company will also be exposed to the fluctuations and volatility of the rate of exchange between the United States dollar, Indian rupees and the Australian dollar.

5.4 External Borrowings

As noted in section 5.1, a USA subsidiary of the Company owes US $5.8 million to iBorrow REIT, secured over all three of the Company's US subsidiary's properties in the USA and guaranteed by the Company. The facility was extended and expires on 15 January 2026.

If the contract of sale of the Company's US subsidiary's Augusta, Georgia property fails to settle or the Company is unable to extend, refinance and/or raise funds (as applicable) to repay the iBorrow Loan as and when it becomes due, this would have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities (including requiring the sale of the other properties in the USA which are owned by the Company's US subsidiary). The Company may also only be able to extend or refinance its existing borrowings at a higher interest rate, which will increase its loan repayments and adversely impact its financial position.

The Company also has loans totalling $2,672,374 (as of 11 August 2025) from March Bells and Arkenstone, which are entities related to directors, Doug Solomon and Gregory Solomon respectively, which are repayable on demand. The indebtedness of the Company to Arkenstone and March Bells is anticipated to be reduced following completion of the Offers, depending on the extent of take up of the Rights in the Entitlement Offer. Each of Arkenstone and March Bells intends to take up all or a portion of its Entitlements under this Entitlement Offer, to the maximum extent permitted under the Corporations Act, with a portion of the amount owing to it by the Company being applied to pay for all of the Application Money(s) for the New Shares it subscribes for under its Entitlement, in partial satisfaction and repayment of up to a maximum of $2,294,914 of the amount owing from both companies, assuming the Entitlement Offer is fully subscribed.

5.5 Environmental Risks

Whilst the Company endeavours to comply with all present and proposed laws and standards, before the Company reaches the stage where 70 tonnes of carbon have been produced (which is not anticipated to occur for some time), the Company will need to complete further testing in order to give more information to the Environmental Protection Authority in the USA. It is only once this information has been provided to the EPA, and the EPA is satisfied with the information, that further production of carbon will be able to occur. Whilst it is anticipated that the Company will be able to comply with the necessary standards, there is no certainty that the EPA will be satisfied with the further information supplied by the Company.

5.6 Operating Risks

The operations of the Company may be affected by various factors including operational and technical difficulties encountered in production and commercialisation of its technologies, difficulties in obtaining environmental approvals, difficulties in commissioning and operating plant and equipment, mechanical failure or plant breakdown, industrial and environmental accidents, shortages of skilled contractors, industrial disputes, unexpected shortages and increases in the cost of consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment. No assurances can be given that the Company will achieve commercial viability through the successful commercialisation of its technologies. Until the income which is generated by Eden's USA and Indian subsidiaries from sales of EdenCrete[®], EdenCrete[®]Pz, EdenCrete[®]Pz7, OptiBlend[®] and Hythane[®] exceed Eden's expenses, Eden will continue to incur ongoing operating losses.

5.7 External Factors of influence

The Company's operations and activities, and the markets for the sale of its products, may be adversely affected by the ongoing impacts of pandemics, acts of war, supply chain and logistics constraints and demand fluctuations resulting from Government legislation or mandates.

5.8 Key Customers and Strategic Arrangements

The Company, through its subsidiary in USA, is increasingly selling its EdenCrete[®] range of products to a key customer group. The loss of reoccurring sales to this key customer group (or any new key customers) will have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, financial performance, cash flows, growth prospects, ability to pay dividends and Share price.

Further, the inability of the Company to conclude an agreement with a strategic industry-based partner or locate further key customers and distributors, and the possibility of future disputes or potential conflict with any key customers, or with its strategic parties or future distributors, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, financial performance, cash flows, growth prospects, ability to pay dividends and Share price.

5.9 No formal valuation of Shares or Options

No formal valuations of any of the Shares or Options, or any of the assets in which the Company has an interest, have been carried out.

5.10 Share market conditions

The price of the Shares and Options will be influenced by international and domestic factors affecting market conditions in equity, financial and commodity markets. These factors may affect the share price for all listed companies, and the price of the New Shares and New Options may fall or rise, and the price of the New Shares may trade below or above the issue price of $0.035.

If the prevailing trading price of the Company's Shares during the option exercise period for the New Options is lower than the option exercise price, of $0.07, then it is unlikely that the New Options will be exercised. In this scenario, the unexercised New Options will not have any value and will lapse at the end of the option exercise period (two years after their issue date).

5.11 US Tariffs

The United States of America has recently announced various tariffs on goods imported into the USA. The scope, implementation and duration of U.S tariffs – and any retaliatory actions by other countries remains highly uncertain. There is a risk that tariffs imposed may negatively impact, either directly or indirectly, on the pricing and demand for Eden Group's products with its U.S and international customers, which would have a negative impact on Eden Group's operations and financial position.

5.12 Intellectual property protection

The Eden Group owns intellectual property which it endeavours to protect by patents, trademarks and other general security systems. There is a risk that third parties could challenge the Eden Group's ownership of that intellectual property or allege that the Eden Group has infringed upon their intellectual property. The Eden Group can also not guarantee that the patent and trademark protection that it has endeavoured to obtain will continue to be observed by third parties, or that the security systems it has in place will not be breached. If the Eden Group did receive a challenge from a third party to ownership, an infringement notice, or experience a security breach, this could result in litigation and have an impact on the Eden Group's financial position.

5.13 General investment risks

In addition, there is a risk that the price of the Shares and returns to Shareholders may be affected by changes in many general factors including local and world economic conditions and outlook, general movements in local and international stock markets, investor sentiment, interest rates, the rate of inflation, exchange rates, levels of tax, taxation law and accounting practice, government legislation or intervention, inflation or inflationary expectations, natural disasters, social disorder or war in Australia or overseas, international hostilities and acts of terrorism, pandemics, as well as many other factors which are beyond the control of the Company.

5.14 Other risks

The above list of risk factors is not exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company and its Shareholders and investors. The above risks, and others not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially affect the financial performance of the Company and the value of the New Shares offered under this Prospectus. Therefore, no assurances or guarantees of future profitability, distributions, payment of dividends, return of capital, the future performance of the Company or its Shares, the price of the Shares or the return on any investment in the Company can be, or is, provided by the Company.

Before deciding to invest in the Company, potential Applicants should read this Prospectus in its entirety and, in particular, should consider the risk factors that could affect the financial performance of the Company. Applicants should carefully consider these factors in light of their personal circumstances and should consult their professional advisers (for example, their accountant, stockbroker, lawyer or other professional adviser) before deciding whether to invest.

Neither the Company nor its officers, employees, agents and advisers guarantee that any specific objectives of the Company will be achieved or that any particular performance of the Shares, including the New Shares offered under this Prospectus, will be achieved.

As with any equity investment, substantial fluctuations in the value of your investment may occur. This Prospectus does not set out all the risks you may face in applying for, and holding, New Shares in the Company.

There are a number of risk factors, both specific to the Company and of a general nature, which may affect the financial position, financial performance, cash flows, ability to pay dividends and growth prospects of the Company and the outcome of an investment in the Company. These risks are both specific to the Company and generally relate to an investment in the stock market. There can be no guarantee that the Company will achieve its stated objectives, or that forward looking statements will be realised.

6. EFFECT OF THE ISSUE

6.1 Introduction

Assuming this Rights Issue is fully subscribed, the gross cash proceeds that will be raised by the Company under this Rights Issue (before expenses of the Rights Issue) will amount to approximately $3,462,505 with a further amount of $2,294,914 being applied in reduction of the Shareholder Loans (on the assumption that none of the Existing Options are converted to Shares prior to the Record Date).

6.2 Pro-forma capital structure on completion of the Rights Issue

The pro-forma capital structure of the Company is set out below and reflects the issued and paid up capital structure of the Company assuming this Rights Issue is fully subscribed and that none of the Existing Options are converted to Shares prior to the Record Date or before completion of this Rights Issue.

Capital Structure (Offers fully subscribed)

	Shares	Percentage	Options	Percentage
Existing Shares and Options as at Record Date*	328,995,374	67.0%	29,362,389	26.3%
Maximum number of New Shares and New Options under this Entitlement Offer (estimated)	164,497,687	33.0%	82,248,844	73.7%
Total Shares and Options upon completion of the Offers (estimated)	493,493,061	100%	111,611,233	100%

* This follows completion of the 1-for 20 share consolidation on 8 August 2025, and the issue of 123,500,000 Shares on 11 August 2025 to convert a portion of the debt owed by the Company to Arkenstone and March Bells into Shares as approved by Shareholders at a general meeting on 22 July 2025.

The maximum number of New Shares and New Options which may be issued under the Entitlement Offer cannot be calculated precisely until Rights have been determined following the Record Date because of the potential for optionholders to exercise their Existing Options and the rounding up of fractional Entitlements.

On the assumptions set out above, in the event the Rights Issue is fully subscribed, a total of up to approximately 164,497,687 New Shares and up to approximately 82,248,844 New Options will be issued by the Company under the Offers.

6.3 Effect on Existing Shareholders and Optionholders

Qualifying Shareholders who hold Shares and who take up their Rights in full will not have their proportionate interest in the Company diluted by this Rights Issue. The proportionate interest of a Qualifying Shareholder who takes up their Entitlement in full and applies for (and is issued) additional Shares under the QS Shortfall Offer will increase.

Qualifying Shareholders who do not exercise their Rights in full will have their interest in the Company diluted.

Non-Qualifying Foreign Shareholders will have their interest in the Company diluted.

Existing Optionholders who are not able to, or who do not, exercise all or any of their Existing Options before the Record Date, will not be entitled to participate in this Rights Issue with respect to those Existing Options (and, if those Existing Options are subsequently exercised, the interest which the Shares issued consequent upon the exercise of those Existing Options will confer in the Company will have been diluted by this Rights Issue).

6.4 Purpose of this Rights Issue and use of funds raised under this Rights Issue

The gross cash proceeds to be raised by the Company under this Rights Issue (i.e. before expenses of the Rights Issue) will be up to approximately $3,462,505, being:

- (a) the maximum amount which may be raised under the Rights Issue, of $5,757,419; less
- (b) the maximum amount of the Application Moneys from each of Arkenstone and March Bells taking up their Entitlements, of, in the aggregate, $2,294,914 (with such amount reducing the Shareholder Loans, and not therefore increasing the Company's cash reserves),

(on the assumption that none of the Existing Options are converted to Shares prior to the Record Date and this Rights Issue is fully subscribed) ("Gross Cash Proceeds").

It is the Company's intention to apply the Gross Cash Proceeds which are raised under the Offers in the following order and for the following purposes:

1. Firstly, to fund the costs of the Offers;
2. Secondly, to provide the Company with funds to continue to develop and expand the global markets for its existing products, being the EdenCrete® range of carbon nanotube enriched liquid, concrete admixtures and its OptiBlend® dual fuel technology; and
3. Thirdly, to fund general working capital.

If the Rights Issue is not fully subscribed, the Company's expenditure will necessarily be more limited in extent and the Company may need access to further funding earlier than noted below.

Set out below is a table summarising how, subject to the qualifications below, the Directors intend to apply the Gross Cash Proceeds of this Rights Issue against the above three use categories, in each of the following scenarios:

- (a) this Rights Issue raises Gross Cash Proceeds of $3,462,505 (on the assumption it is fully subscribed).
- (b) this Rights Issue raises Gross Cash Proceeds of $1,981,253 (being the mid-point between the figures set out in paragraphs (a) and (c)); and
- (c) this Rights Issue raises Gross Cash Proceeds of approximately $500,000

Funds raised under this Rights Issue	$3,462,505	$1,981,253	$500,000
Intended Allocation of Funds:
Costs of the Offers*	$60,000	$57,500	$55,000
Business development activities & working capital*	$3,402,505	$1,923,753	$445,000
Repayment of Arkenstone Pty Ltd and March Bells Pty Ltd Loans (no cash raised)	$2,294,914	$1,400,000	$350,000

* The general working capital funds will be used to meet the ongoing expenses of the Company, including director fees, ASX and share registry fees, office accommodation, accounting and secretarial services, general administrative expenses.

Based on the information available to it, and its current plans and budgets (and subject to any changes thereto), and provided this Rights Issue is fully subscribed, the Augusta, Georgia property is sold and the net proceeds of sale reduce or extinguish a significant portion of the amount owing under the iBorrow Loan before it matures, the iBorrow Loan is refinanced for a further term from 15 January 2026 and sales revenue remains at current levels, the Directors believe that the Company will be able to pay its debts as and when they fall due, and fund ongoing working capital requirements for at least 12 months after completion of this Rights Issue, subject to the level of business development activities undertaken. If this Rights Issue is not fully subscribed, the Company will need access to further funding earlier than noted above.

6.5 Effect on the Company's financial position

Upon the successful completion of this Rights Issue and assuming this Rights Issue is fully subscribed, the Company's cash reserves will increase by approximately $3,462,505 (being $5,757,419, less the sum of $2,294,914 applied in repayment of the Shareholder Loans), minus the expenses of the Entitlement Offer.

Set out below for illustrative purposes are the historical consolidated balance sheet as at 31 December 2024 and an unaudited pro-forma consolidated balance sheet as at 31 December 2024 after the Rights Issue. The unaudited pro-forma consolidated balance sheet has been prepared on the basis of the accounting policies normally adopted by the Company and having regard to the basis and assumptions set out below. The historical and pro-forma financial information is presented in abbreviated form, insofar as it does not include all of the disclosures required by Australian Accounting Standards applicable to annual financial statements.

The unaudited pro-forma consolidated balance sheet set out above has been prepared on the basis and assumption that there has been and will be no material movements in the assets and liabilities of the consolidated entity between 1 January 2025 and the Closing Date other than:

- the issue of approximately 164,497,687 New Shares and 82,248,844 New Options under the Offers raising $5,757,419 before expenses of the Offers and on the assumption that this Rights Issue is fully subscribed;
- the repayment of the Shareholder Loans by $2,294,914 from the Entitlements taken up by Arkenstone and March Bells on the assumption that this Rights Issue is fully subscribed;
- the partial repayment of the Shareholder Loans by $4,940,000 through the issue of 123,500,000 fully paid ordinary shares of the Company, which occurred on 11 August 2025; and
- payment of the estimated expenses of the Offers of $60,000 is included in Issued capital and to be paid, net of GST.

The unaudited pro-forma consolidated balance sheet as at 31 December 2024 above is intended to be illustrative only. It does not take into account activities occurring between 1 January 2025 and the date of this Prospectus (or the Closing Date) other than those noted above and as such it does not accurately reflect what the actual balance sheet will be as at the date of this Prospectus or at the completion of this Rights Issue (by way of example, the cash and cash equivalent assets will not be as set out in the unaudited pro-forma consolidated balance sheet because, amongst other things, no allowance has been made in the unaudited pro-forma consolidated balance sheet for expenditure incurred in the normal course of business of the consolidated group after 31 December 2024).

7. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

7.1 Nature of this Prospectus

This Prospectus is issued under the special prospectus content rules for continuously quoted securities in section 713 of the Corporations Act. That section enables listed disclosing entities to issue a prospectus with less rigorous disclosure requirements if:

- the securities offered by the prospectus are in a class of securities that have been quoted enhanced disclosure securities at all times in the 3 months before the date of the prospectus or are options to acquire such securities; and
- the company is not subject to certain exemptions or declarations prescribed by the Corporations Act during the period during which the securities have been quoted or the 12 months before the date of the prospectus (whichever is the shorter period).

Securities are quoted enhanced disclosure securities if:

- the company is included in the official list of ASX; and
- the Listing Rules apply to those securities.

The information in this Prospectus principally concerns the terms and conditions of the Offers and the information necessary to make an informed assessment of:

- the effect of the Offers on the Company; and
- the rights and liabilities attaching to the New Shares and New Options offered under this Prospectus.

The Prospectus is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX. This Prospectus does not include all of the information that would be included in a prospectus for an initial public offering of securities in an entity that was not already listed on a stock exchange. Applicants should therefore also have regard to the other publicly available information in relation to the Company before making a decision whether or not to subscribe for New Shares and New Options.

7.2 Regular reporting and disclosure obligations

The Company is a disclosing entity under the Corporations Act. It is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations under the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules.

These obligations require the Company to notify ASX of information about specified events and matters as they arise for the purposes of ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by ASX. In particular, the Company has an obligation under the Listing Rules (subject to certain limited exceptions) to notify ASX immediately of any information of which it becomes aware concerning the Company which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of securities in the Company.

As the Company has been listed on ASX since June 2006, a large amount of information concerning the Company has previously been notified to ASX and is therefore publicly available. All announcements made by the Company are available from ASX.

The Company is required to prepare and lodge with ASX both yearly and half yearly financial statements accompanied by a Directors' statement and report and an auditor's report. The Company is also required to lodge with ASX quarterly cashflow reports which include details about its cash flows (the most recent of which was lodged at ASX on 31 July 2025).

A summary of the Company's current and recent activities, transactions and projects and the financial performance and position of the Company is set out in the Half Year Report to Shareholders for the period ended 31 December 2024 lodged with ASX on 28 February 2025 and subsequent ASX releases.

Copies of documents lodged with ASX in relation to the Company may be obtained from the ASX website.

Copies of all documents lodged with the ASIC in relation to the Company may be obtained from, or inspected at, the offices of ASIC. These documents can also be inspected at the registered office of the Company during normal office hours.

7.3 Right to obtain copies of Company documents

Rights on winding up

If the Company is wound up, whether voluntary or otherwise, the liquidator may divide among all or any of the contributories as the liquidator thinks fit in specie or kind any part of the assets of the Company, and may vest any part of the assets of the Company in trustees on any trusts for the benefit of all or any of the contributories as the liquidator thinks fit. Any division may be otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories and, in particular, any class may be given preferential or special rights or may be excluded altogether or in part, but if any division otherwise than in accordance with legal rights of the contributories is determined, any contributory who would be prejudiced by the division has a right to dissent and ancillary rights as if the determination were a special resolution passed under the Corporations Act relating to the sale or transfer of the Company's assets in a voluntary winding up.

Transfer of shares

Subject to the constitution of the Company, the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules and any other laws, Shares are freely transferable.

Future increases in capital

The allotment and issue of any Shares is under the control of the Board. Subject to the requirements of the Listing Rules, the constitution of the Company and the Corporations Act, the Directors may allot or otherwise dispose of Shares on such terms and conditions as they see fit.

Variation of rights

Under the Corporations Act, the Company may, with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a meeting of Shareholders, vary or abrogate the rights attaching to shares. If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of the issue of the shares of that class), whether or not the Company is being wound up, may be varied or abrogated with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company and with the consent in writing of the holders of three quarters of the issued shares of that class, or if authorised by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

Dividend rights

Subject to the rights of holders of shares issued with special, preferential or qualified rights (at present there are none), the profits of the Company that the Directors determine to distribute by way of dividend are divisible among the holders of Shares and is payable on each Share on the basis of the proportion which the amount paid is of the total amounts paid, agreed to be considered to be paid or payable on the Share. A dividend may be declared at a rate per annum in respect of a specified period but no amount paid on a Share in advance of calls is to be treated as paid on that Share.

The New Options will be issued on the following terms and conditions.

- (1) The Options are exercisable at any time prior to 5:00pm WST on the date which is two (2) years after their date of issue ("the Time of Expiry"). Options not exercised on or before the Time of Expiry will automatically lapse.

A Notice of Exercise cannot be withdrawn by the holder after service of it on the Company.

Prior to any new pro rata issue of securities to Shareholders, holders of Options will be notified by the Company and will be afforded 5 business days before the Record Date (as defined in the Listing Rules) (to determine entitlements to the issue), to exercise Options.
- (8) In the event of any reconstruction (including consolidation, sub-division, reduction or return) of the issued capital of the Company prior to the Time of Expiry, the number of Options or the exercise price of the Options or both shall be reconstructed (as appropriate) in a manner which will not result in any benefits being conferred on holders of Options which are not being conferred on Shareholders and (subject to the provisions with respect to rounding of entitlements as sanctioned by the meeting of Shareholders approving the reconstruction of capital), in all respects, the terms for the exercise of Options shall remain unchanged. For these purposes the rights of the Option holder may be changed from time to time to comply with the Listing Rules applying to a reorganisation of capital at the time of reorganisation.
