DURATEC APPOINTS EMMA SCOTNEY AS NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Australian engineering, construction, and remediation contractor Duratec Limited (Duratec or the Company) (ASX: DUR) is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms Emma Scotney as a Non-Executive Director, effective 1 September 2025.

Ms Scotney is a former corporate lawyer and business person with over 25 years of combined experience across the mining, agricultural, and property sectors. She previously served as a non-executive director at De Grey Mining Limited (ASX: DEG), and currently holds non-executive directorships with Minerals 260 Limited (ASX: MI6) and Santana Minerals Limited (ASX: SMI).

Her skills span a wide range of critical areas including:

- Corporate governance
- Commercial contracts and business acumen
- Mergers and acquisitions (private and public)
- Due diligence
- International supply agreements; and
- Capital raisings

Emma holds a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) and a Bachelor of Arts, an Advanced Diploma in Management (Strategy and Finance), and is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors (GAICD).

The Board considers Ms Scotney to be an independent director. Her appointment supports Duratec's commitment to strong governance, diversity and strategic oversight.

Chairman of Duratec, Mr. Brydon, commented:

"We are delighted to welcome Emma to the Board. Her deep legal and commercial skills, combined with her board experience, will be an asset as Duratec continues to grow and deliver value to shareholders."

Incoming Non-Executive Director, Emma Scotney, said:

"I am honoured to join Duratec's Board at such an exciting time in the company's journey. I look forward to contributing my legal and commercial experience to support the Board and executive team in the pursuit of sustainable growth, sound governance, and continued value for our shareholders."

Authorised for release to ASX by the Board of Duratec Limited.
