

Current™, the New York based alternate banking platform, re-ups its agreement with Stakk, locking in ARR worth $280k

- Stakk has renewed a valuable agreement with New York based Current Financial, Inc.
- Current is using Stakk's Embedded Finance solutions, specifically, Stakk's image capture, authentication, and transaction processing capabilities.
- Stakk's solutions power a critical component of Current's alternative banking offering within the U.S.
- This renewal further strengthens the value of Stakk's contracted ARR base and is a solid foundation for ongoing organic growth in Stakk's ARR going forward.
- Current is yet another example of the pedigree of valued clients on Stakk's roster.

Sydney, 10 September 2025 - Stakk Ltd (ASX: SKK) is thrilled to announce it has renewed its longstanding Master Services Agreement with U.S. based Current Financial, Inc. (the Agreement). Stakk will continue delivering Current a solution encompassing its image capture, authentication, and transaction processing capabilities. The Agreement can be renewed by mutual consent for further terms of 1-year.

Current is a New York-based financial technology company, not a bank, that offers alternative banking services through its platform, "Current Core," which uses technology to lower costs compared to traditional banks. Founded in 2015, Current aims to improve financial access and build integrated solutions for Americans by providing services like faster direct deposits, paycheck advances, savings pods, and cryptocurrency services through its partnerships with FDIC-insured banks like Choice Financial Group and Cross River Bank for banking services and Zero Hash for crypto.

It is expected that this Agreement will contribute approximately $280,000 in ARR for Stakk over the next 12-months.

Andy Taylor, Chief Executive Officer of Stakk, said,

"The continuing support and respect we receive from award winning clients like Current is truly magnificent and greatly appreciated."

We are so proud to be a small part of the journey that trail blazers, like Current, take to democratize financial solutions for all to benefit from.

Thank you to Current for the partnership and continued confidence!"

This announcement has been approved for release on the ASX by the Board of Directors.
