It is information given in summary form only and does not purport to be complete. It should be read in conjunction with MVP's other periodic corporate reports and continuous disclosure announcements filed with the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX), available at www.asx.com.au.

This presentation is for information purposes only and is not a prospectus or product disclosure statement, financial product or investment advice or a recommendation to acquire MVP shares or other securities. No representation or warranty, express or implied, is made as to the fairness, accuracy, completeness or correctness of the information, opinions and conclusions contained in this presentation. To the maximum extent permitted by law, none of MVP or its directors, employees or agents, nor any other person, accepts liability for any loss arising from the use of this presentation or its contents or otherwise arising in connection with it, including, without limitation, any liability from fault or negligence on the part of MVP or its directors, employees, contractors or agents.

This presentation contains forward-looking statements in relation to MVP, including statements regarding MVP's intent, belief, goals, objectives, initiatives, commitments or current expectations with respect to MVP's business and operations, market conditions, results of operations and financial conditions, products in research and risk management practices. Forward-looking statements can generally be identified by the use of words such as "forecast", "estimate", "plan", "will", "anticipate", "may", "believe", "should", "expect", "project," "intend", "outlook", "target", "assume" and "guidance" and other similar expressions. The forward-looking statements are based on MVP's good faith assumptions as to the financial, market, risk, regulatory and other relevant environments that will exist and affect MVP's business and operations in the future. MVP does not give any assurance that the assumptions will prove to be correct. The forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and assumptions and other important factors, many of which are beyond the control of MVP, that could cause the actual results, performances or achievements of MVP to be materially different to future results, performances or achievements expressed or implied by the statements.

Important notice and disclaimer

Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include:

- the success of research and development activities (including clinical trials);
- decisions by regulatory authorities regarding approval of our products as well as their decisions regarding label claims;
- competitive developments affecting our products;
- the ability to successfully market new and existing products;
- difficulties or delays in manufacturing;
- trade buying patterns and fluctuations in interest and currency exchange rates / general market conditions;
- legislation or regulations, particularly that affect product production, distribution, pricing, reimbursement, access or tax;
- litigation or government investigations; and
- MVP's ability to protect its patents and other intellectual property.

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as at the date of the presentation. Except as required by applicable laws or regulations, MVP does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any of the forward-looking statements or to advise of any change in assumptions on which any such statement is based.

For marketed products discussed in this presentation, please see full prescribing information on our website at www.medicaldev.com

This presentation uses non-IFRS information including underlying revenue, underlying EBIT, underlying adjustments, gross margin and free cashflow. These measures are key performance measures used by MVP, the investment community, and peers with similar business portfolios. MVP uses these measures for its internal management reporting as it better reflects what MVP considers to be its underlying performance. Underlying revenue and EBIT are used to measure segment performance and have been extracted from the segment information disclosed in the FY24 Consolidated Financial Report.

FY25 Highlights

Step-change in financials

FY25 results Margins, earnings and cashflow strongly improved¹

- Group revenue of $39.1m (+18%) with improved results in Pain Management and Respiratory
- Margin improvements of ~$4m from enhanced pricing
- Significant operating cost reduction of ~$4m driven by efficiencies
- EBIT and cashflow strongly improved with underlying EBIT improved by $11.6m and free cash flow improved by $12.9m
- Cash at 30 June 2025 of $17.8m

FY25 strategic priorities Key milestones achieved

- Pentrox® volume growth of 43% in Australian hospital segment
- Underlying demand for Pentrox® in Europe up 15%
- Transfer of distribution of Pentrox® to partners in France and Switzerland complete
- Paediatric indication approved by HPRA. National regulatory approvals in the UK and European markets and device approval are expected within 12 months
- Share growth in the attractive US respiratory spacer market

FY26 Outlook Accelerating volume growth is now the key priority

- Increase investment in growth initiatives to embed Pentrox® as a standard of care
- Continue to engage with and support new and existing partners to increase Pentrox® penetration and leverage new paediatric label in select markets (following national approvals)
- Continue momentum in work already underway in commercialising Pentrox® in Australia
- The investment in growth initiatives and the change in Pentrox® distribution in France and Switzerland will likely result in softer underlying EBIT in FY26 versus the prior year. These initiatives are expected to deliver stronger financial performance over the long-term

Priorities for FY26

Accelerating volume growth is now the key priority

FY26 initiatives

Accelerate penetration of Pentrox®
