Dear Sir/Madam,

Domino's Pizza Enterprises Limited (ASX:DMP) ("Domino's" or the "Company")
Response to ASX Price Query Letter

I refer to your letter relating to:

A. The change in the price of DMP's securities from a low of $15.06 to a high of $18.13 today.

B. The significant increase in the volume of DMP's securities traded from 27 October to 28 October.

In response to your requests for information I respond as follows:

1. Is DMP aware of any information concerning it that has not been announced to the market which, if known by some in the market, could explain the recent trading in its securities?

No. However, see response to question 3 below. DMP believes an article which, as far as it is aware, is incorrect caused both the change in price of DMP's securities and the significant increase in the volume of DMP's securities.

2. If the answer to question 1 is "yes".

(a) Is DMP relying on Listing Rule 3.1A not to announce that information under Listing Rule 3.1? Please note that the recent trading in DMP's securities would suggest to ASX that such information may have ceased to be confidential and therefore DMP may no longer be able to rely on Listing Rule 3.1A. Accordingly, if the answer to this question is "yes", you need to contact us immediately to discuss the situation.

N/A

(b) Can an announcement be made immediately? Please note, if the answer to this question is "no", you need to contact us immediately to discuss requesting a trading halt (see below).

N/A

(c) If an announcement cannot be made immediately, why not and when is it expected that an announcement will be made?

N/A

3. If the answer to question 1 is "no", is there any other explanation that DMP may have for the recent trading in its securities?

Yes. An article was released by Sarah Thompson, Kanika Sood and Emma Rapaport of AFR Online at 11:10am concerning an acquisition of all or part of DMP by Bain Capital.

DMP confirms that, as far as it is aware, it has not received any proposal from Bain Capital or had any communication with that organisation.

Looking at the price and volume of DMP security trading at or around and after the time the AFR Online article was released, it is clear that the change in price of DMP's securities and the increase in volume referred to in your letter, all occurred after that article was published.

4. Please confirm that DMP is complying with the Listing Rules and, in particular, Listing Rule 3.1.

The Company confirms that it is in compliance with the Listing Rules, in particular Listing Rule 3.1.

5. Please confirm that DMP's responses to the questions above have been authorised and approved under its published continuous disclosure policy or otherwise by its board or an officer of DMP with delegated authority from the board to respond to ASX on disclosure matters.

The Company confirms that this response has been authorised and approved by the Board.

Yours faithfully
Domino's Pizza Enterprises Limited

Dear Mr Ryan

Domino's Pizza Enterprises Limited ('DMP'): Price - Query

ASX refers to the following:

A. The change in the price of DMP's securities from a low of $15.06 to a high of $18.13 today.

The significant increase in the volume of DMP's securities traded from 27 October 2025 to 28 October 2025.

Request for information

In light of this, ASX asks DMP to respond separately to each of the following questions and requests for information:

1. Is DMP aware of any information concerning it that has not been announced to the market which, if known by some in the market, could explain the recent trading in its securities?
2. If the answer to question 1 is "yes".
   (a) Is DMP relying on Listing Rule 3.1A not to announce that information under Listing Rule 3.1? Please note that the recent trading in DMP's securities would suggest to ASX that such information may have ceased to be confidential and therefore DMP may no longer be able to rely on Listing Rule 3.1A. Accordingly, if the answer to this question is "yes", you need to contact us immediately to discuss the situation.
   (b) Can an announcement be made immediately? Please note, if the answer to this question is "no", you need to contact us immediately to discuss requesting a trading halt (see below).
   (c) If an announcement cannot be made immediately, why not and when is it expected that an announcement will be made?
3. If the answer to question 1 is "no", is there any other explanation that DMP may have for the recent trading in its securities?
4. Please confirm that DMP is complying with the Listing Rules and, in particular, Listing Rule 3.1.
5. Please confirm that DMP's responses to the questions above have been authorised and approved under its published continuous disclosure policy or otherwise by its board or an officer of DMP with delegated authority from the board to respond to ASX on disclosure matters.

When and where to send your response

This request is made under Listing Rule 18.7. Your response is required as soon as reasonably possible and, in any event, by no later than 1:50 PM AEDT Tuesday, 28 October 2025. You should note that if the information requested by this letter is information required to be given to ASX under Listing Rule 3.1 and it does not fall within the exceptions mentioned in Listing Rule 3.1A, DMP's obligation is to disclose the information 'immediately'. This may require the information to be disclosed before the deadline set out in the previous paragraph and may require DMP to request a trading halt immediately.

Your response should be sent to me by e-mail at ListingsComplianceSydney@asx.com.au. It should not be sent directly to the ASX Market Announcements Office. This is to allow me to review your response to confirm that it is in a form appropriate for release to the market, before it is published on the ASX Market Announcements Platform.

Trading halt

If you are unable to respond to this letter by the time specified above, or if the answer to question 1 is "yes" and an announcement cannot be made immediately, you should discuss with us whether it is appropriate to request a trading halt in DMP's securities under Listing Rule 17.1. If you wish a trading halt, you must tell us:

- the reasons for the trading halt;
- how long you want the trading halt to last;
- the event you expect to happen that will end the trading halt;
- that you are not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted; and
- any other information necessary to inform the market about the trading halt, or that we ask for.

We require the request for a trading halt to be in writing. The trading halt cannot extend past the commencement of normal trading on the second day after the day on which it is granted. You can find further information about trading halts in Guidance Note 16 Trading Halts & Voluntary Suspensions.

Suspension

If you are unable to respond to this letter by the time specified above, ASX will likely suspend trading in DMP's securities under Listing Rule 17.3.

Listing Rules 3.1 and 3.1A

In responding to this letter, you should have regard to DMP's obligations under Listing Rules 3.1 and 3.1A and also to Guidance Note 8 Continuous Disclosure: Listing Rules 3.1 – 3.1B. It should be noted that DMP's obligation to disclose information under Listing Rule 3.1 is not confined to, nor is it necessarily satisfied by, answering the questions set out in this letter.

Release of correspondence between ASX and entity

ASX reserves the right to release all or any part of this letter, your reply and any other related correspondence between us to the market under Listing Rule 18.7A.

Yours sincerely

ASX Compliance
