The Directors of Tolu Minerals Limited (“Tolu” or the “Company”) are pleased to provide a market update highlighting overall progress at the Tolukuma Gold Mine site (“TGM”) and recent advancements.

The Company launched its Destination 2026 prior to road showing the intentions of its corporate development plans and visiting most of its institutional investors at the 2025 Precious Metals Summit Beaver Creek and Mining Forum Americas 2025 in Denver USA during the month of September. This led to a significant interest in the company’s recent changes and plans for 2026 and beyond.

Tolu Minerals Quarterly Report, 30 September 2025

The Company previously announced implementing a significant exploration programme based on the results of the Airborne Magneto Telluric (“Airborne MT” or “Mobile MT”) survey and both recent and historical exploration.

Lineament analysis of the Airborne MT dataset has yielded a number of conductive vein targets akin to the Tolukuma vein corridor. The same processing technique has identified a range of targets, including a cluster of eight porphyry targets at the Mt. Penck project on New Britain Island and very prospective porphyry targets at the Company’s recently awarded Ipi River project, northwest of Tolukuma.

A major surface geochemical program has commenced in July for ridge and spur, base of slope and rock chip/stream float sampling, within ML104 and near-mine targets. Drilling options have been evaluated in detail and a decision approved to acquire the necessary drills and manage the drill program inhouse.

Dr. Chris Muller, whose discoveries at Wafi-Golpu and K92 are widely recognized, is very excited about the company’s future development following his appointment as CEO and Managing Director.

Dr Chris Muller commented:

"I am honoured to lead the Tolu team at the Tolukuma Gold Mine, historically one of the highest tenor gold-producing assets in Papua New Guinea. Tolukuma represents a truly exceptional opportunity—not only to reaffirm PNG’s standing in the global mining landscape but also to write a compelling new chapter in the country’s mineral resource story.

We have undertaken a strategic realignment of priorities and operations to ensure the mine’s restart and its resource and exploration potential are pursued with maximum focus and rigor. Key initiatives, including the mill recommencement, the resumption of underground production, and the planned development of new resource areas, are advancing with strong momentum.

As these transformative projects progress, we remain committed to transparency and will provide timely updates, demonstrating our dedication to unlocking the full potential of Tolukuma and delivering sustainable value for all stakeholders."
