Monash IVF Group appoints Dr Dwayne Crombie to the Board of Directors

Monash IVF Group Ltd (ASX: MVF), a leading provider of assisted reproductive services (ARS) and specialist women's' imaging and diagnostic services in Australia, Singapore, Indonesia and Malaysia, is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr Dwayne Crombie as Independent Non-Executive Director effective from 24 November 2025.

Dwayne has spent his entire career working in various parts of the healthcare system in both New Zealand and Australia.

His experience has spanned public hospital provision, community-based, mental health and disability services. It has also included funding of public health and disability services, aged care, private health insurance and private healthcare.

Dwayne originally trained in medicine and specialised in public health before moving on to senior management roles.

He worked for global healthcare organisation Bupa for more than 15 years in several Managing Director roles. He most recently led Bupa Australia's health services and insurance businesses before retiring in 2022.

Dwayne's current governance roles include Southern Cross Healthcare and Southern Cross Society, as well as being chair of Repromed New Zealand, an IVF Provider.

As a director he relishes having the opportunity to help guide organisations through their journeys, helping patients, clients and consumers get the services they need and have more say in how those services are delivered.

MVF Chairman Richard Davis welcomed Dr Crombie to the Monash IVF Group Board. He said, "Dwayne brings considerable acumen and broad-ranging experience, and we are confident that his knowledge and expertise will further complement the existing skills of the MVF Group Board".

Authorised by the Board of Directors.
