Yugo receives $0.4M VAT refund

Battery, base and precious metals exploration company Yugo Metals Limited (ASX:YUG) (Yugo or the Company) is pleased to advise its subsidiaries in Bosnia-Herzegovina, have received a payment of historical Value Added Tax (VAT) credits from the Bosnia-Herzegovina indirect taxation authority (UIO BiH) of approximately AUD $385,000.

Highlights:

- Yugo receives VAT refund of approximately AUD $385,000
- Combination of the VAT refund received with the recent A$3.5 million placement bolsters available funding to rapidly advance the Company's projects
- Preparations underway for commencement of drilling at Yugo's gold targets in Bosnia-Herzegovina

VAT Refund

The VAT refund of $385,000 has now been received, after completing the required audit process and review with the Bosnia-Herzegovina indirect taxation authority (UIO BiH).

The Company's financial performance in 2025 has been notably robust, underscored by key indicators:

- Successful capital raise: The Company secured $3.5 million in funding, further strengthening its balance sheet and enabling strategic growth initiatives. Tranche 2 of the previously announced placement to be approved at the Company's AGM on 28 November 2025.
- Resilience and improved local relations: The AUD $0.4M VAT refund received was previously written off, highlighting effective fiscal management, operational efficiency and significantly improved relations with local authorities.

Together, these milestones signal a strong trajectory and reinforce the Company's position as a financially sound and growth-oriented enterprise.

This progress paves the way for ongoing positive dialogue and development towards the granting of exploration rights for the Sockovac license.
