CAR Group Announces CFO Appointment

CAR Group Limited (ASX:CAR) today announced the appointment of Geoff Trumbull as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) effective 2 March 2026.

Geoff is an experienced CFO with over 20 years' experience in finance roles within the industrial, infrastructure and consumer sectors. Most recently, Geoff served as CFO of Symal Group Limited, an ASX-listed construction company. Prior to that, he was Group CFO of AMA Group Limited, an ASX-listed national automotive repair business, and held senior finance roles at Transurban Group Limited.

Commenting on Geoff's appointment, CAR Group Managing Director and CEO William Elliott said: "We are very pleased to welcome Geoff to CAR Group as our new CFO and member of our Global Leadership Team. With his strong experience in ASX-listed businesses, a proven ability to lead through complexity and growth, plus his focus on people, he is the ideal executive to support CAR Group through its continued growth. This is a very important role, and I am confident Geoff will play a vital part in advancing our strategic goals and delivering value to shareholders."

Commenting on his appointment, Geoff said: "I am delighted to be joining CAR Group at such an exciting time in its journey. The company's outstanding track record and growth make it an incredible organisation to be part of. I look forward to working with Will and the rest of the Global Leadership Team to build on this momentum and help drive continued success for our customers, employees, and shareholders."

Stephen Wong, who served as interim CFO during the executive search process, will resume his position as Chief Strategy Officer. CAR Group appreciates his dedication and long-standing commitment to the company, especially for stepping into the interim role with excellence despite his already demanding workload.
