ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

Harmony Announces “Big-4” Bank Corporate Debt Facility

Harmony Corp Limited (ASX: HMY) (“Harmony” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has executed a $15 million revolving corporate debt facility with one of Australia's leading “Big-4” banks to support further loan book growth and other general corporate purposes.

This facility will refinance Harmony's prior $22.5 million corporate debt facility at a materially lower margin, underpinned by Harmony's strong profit growth and the credit quality of its underlying loan book. This strong operating performance has also enabled Harmony to repay $7.5 million of the prior corporate debt from surplus operating cash flows.

The new facility has a 3 year term and market-standard financial covenants with no equity or convertible component attached.

This facility complements Harmony's existing ABS and warehouse facilities with 3 of Australia's “Big-4” banks, which together provide Harmony with a total warehouse credit capacity of around $1b.

Commenting on the new facility, Harmony's CEO & Managing Director David Stevens said:

“Achieving a corporate debt facility with one of Australia's leading “Big-4” banks is another significant milestone in Harmony's evolution, and enables us to significantly reduce our funding costs. A facility of this nature from a “Big-4” bank is rare in the non-bank financial institution industry, so is yet another pleasing and tangible endorsement of the underlying strength of our business, its growth, profitability, and the quality of our loan book.”

This release was authorised by the Board of Harmony Corp Limited.
