

ROBEX SHAREHOLDERS VOTE IN FAVOUR OF MERGER WITH PDI

Predictive Discovery Limited ("PDI" or the "Company") (ASX: PDI) is pleased to acknowledge the announcement filed by Robex Resources Inc. ("Robex") that Robex shareholders have approved the merger (to be implemented by way of a plan of arrangement under Québec law) between PDI and Robex ("Transaction") at the special meeting of Robex shareholders held on 30 December 2025 ("Meeting").

Robex shareholders voted overwhelmingly in favour of the Transaction, with 94.54% of votes recorded in favour. This satisfies one of the outstanding closing conditions under the arrangement agreement dated 5 October 2025 between PDI, a wholly-owned subsidiary of PDI and Robex (as amended on 10 December 2025) ("Robex Arrangement Agreement"), being the approval of the Transaction by at least 66⅔% of the votes cast by Robex shareholders voting in person or by proxy at the Meeting.

Closing of the Transaction is subject to the satisfaction of the remaining closing conditions specified in the Robex Arrangement Agreement, including the approval of the Superior Court of Québec and receipt of the Key Regulatory Approvals (which include the consent of the Government of Guinea and the consent of the Government of Mali). Closing of the Transaction is currently expected to occur in Q1 2026.

Andrew Pardey, Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director of PDI, commented: "We are delighted with the strong support shown by Robex shareholders for the Transaction, which has the potential to create significant value for shareholders of the combined company. The Transaction consolidates two of the largest, lowest cost and most advanced gold projects in West Africa – Bankan and Kiniero – within a combined group with the execution capability and funding strength to grow into a significant gold producer with expected production of more than 400,000oz per annum¹ by 2029."

"The Robex team has done an outstanding job of developing Kiniero, recently achieving first gold pour on time and budget and now progressing through ramp-up towards commercial production. We are looking forward to the team turning their focus to the development of Bankan post completion of the Transaction, with 2026 shaping up as an exciting year for the combined company to advance its strategy of building a leading West African gold producer."

This announcement is authorised for release by the PDI Board.
