Engineering company Monadelphous Group Limited (ASX: MND) ("Monadelphous" or "the Company") today announced the award of a major construction contract with BHP associated with a car dumper project, located at Finucane Island in Port Hedland, Western Australia.

The contract, valued at approximately $175 million, includes civil, structural, mechanical, piping and electrical works associated with the replacement of key equipment during a planned major shutdown.

Monadelphous Managing Director Zoran Bebic said the award reflects the Company's extensive experience and strong reputation in delivering car dumper works over many years.
