

ROBEX OBTAINS FINAL COURT APPROVAL FOR PLAN OF ARRANGEMENT

Québec City, 14th January 2026 – Robex Resources Inc. (“Robex” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce it has obtained a final order from the Québec Superior Court (Commercial Division) approving the previously announced merger with Predictive Discovery Limited (“Predictive”) pursuant to which Predictive, through its direct wholly-owned subsidiary, will acquire all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Robex (“Robex Shares”) by way of a statutory plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Québec) (“Arrangement”).

Receipt of the final orders follows Robex’s special meeting of shareholders held on 30 December 2025, where a special resolution approving the Arrangement was overwhelmingly approved by shareholders.

Next Steps

The transaction remains subject to the remaining closing conditions including consents of the Governments of Guinea and Mali and other customary closing conditions for a transaction of this nature. Completion of the merger is expected to occur in Q1 2026.

Neither the TSX Venture Exchange nor its Regulation Services Provider (as that term is defined in the policies of the TSX Venture Exchange) accepts responsibility for the adequacy or accuracy of this release.

This announcement was approved by the Managing Director.

Forward-looking Statements

This announcement contains certain forward-looking information and forward-looking statements within the meaning of applicable securities legislation (collectively “Forward-looking Information”). These include statements regarding future outlook and anticipated events, such as the consummation and timing of the Transaction; the timing and receipt of the final order of the Superior Court of Québec; the approval of the TSXV; the satisfaction of the closing conditions under the Arrangement Agreement; and future plans, projections, objectives, estimates and forecasts and the timing related thereto. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, that address circumstances, events, activities or developments that could or may or will occur are Forward-looking Information. Forward-looking Information is generally identified by the use of words like "will", "create", "enhance", "improve", "potential", "expect", "upside", "growth", "estimate", "anticipate" and similar expressions and phrases or statements that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", or "should", or the negative or grammatical variations of such terms, are intended to identify Forward-looking Information. Although Robex believes that the expectations reflected in the Forward-looking Information are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on Forward-looking Information since no assurance can be provided that such expectations will prove to be correct. Forward-looking Information is based on information available at the time those statements are made and/or good faith belief of the officers and directors of Robex as of that time with respect to future events and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or suggested by the Forward-looking Information. Forward-looking Information involves numerous risks and uncertainties. Such factors may include, but are not limited to, risks related to the closing of the Arrangement, changes in commodity prices, foreign exchange fluctuations and general economic conditions, increased costs and demand for production inputs, the speculative nature of exploration and project development, including the risks of obtaining necessary approvals, licenses and permits and diminishing quantities or grades of reserves, political and social risks (including, but not limited to, in Guinea, Ivory Coast, Mali and West Africa more broadly), changes to the legal and regulatory framework within which Robex operates or may in the future operate, environmental conditions including extreme weather conditions, recruitment and retention of personnel, industrial relations issues and litigation, as well as the risks identified in the section titled "Risk Factors" in Robex's most recently filed Annual Information Form which is available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca. Forward-looking Information is designed to help readers understand Robex' views as of that time with respect to future events and speak only as of the date they are made. Except as required by applicable law, Robex assumes no obligation to update or to publicly announce the results of any change to any Forward-looking Information contained or incorporated by reference herein to reflect actual results, future events or developments, changes in assumptions or changes in other factors affecting the Forward-looking Information. If Robex updates any Forward-looking Information, no inference should be drawn that Robex will make additional updates with respect to such or other Forward-looking Information. All Forward-Looking Information contained in this announcement is expressly qualified in its entirety by this cautionary statement.

Production Targets

The production targets and forecast financial information in respect of Robex's Kiniero Project was released to ASX on 22 August 2025 in an announcement by Robex titled "Amendment to Kiniero Gold Project Technical Report", and in respect of the Nampala Project in an ASX announcement by Robex dated 6 May 2025 titled "Replacement Prospectus". Robex confirms that all the material assumptions underpinning the production targets and forecast financial information derived from the production targets in the relevant market announcement continue to apply and have not materially changed.
