Organic Constant Currency

Constant Currency

- The presentation of constant currency information is designed to facilitate comparability of reported earnings by restating the prior period's results at the exchange rates applied in determining the results for the current period. This is achieved by analysing and estimating, where necessary, revenue and cost transactions by the underlying currencies of our controlled entities. These transactions are converted to US dollars at the average exchange rates applicable to the current period on a month-by-month basis (Currency Effect). In addition, the profit and loss impact of net foreign exchange gains/losses is excluded from the current and prior year's results (Net Exchange Loss).
- The principles of constant currency reporting and its implementation are subject to oversight by the Audit and Compliance Committee of the Board. It is considered as supplemental non-IFRS financial information.

Organic Constant Currency

- Organic constant currency compares the current period's performance to the prior period's results on a constant currency basis with organic adjustments, such as the effects of acquisitions, divestments, and business exits, including the contribution from exited product groups that are no longer sold in FY26.
