Swift in Sydney's Children's Hospitals

- Secured two new contracts via Rauland Australia
- Four-year term for Swift Entertainment content
- Swift Entertainment now live at Sydney Children's Hospital Randwick and Children's Hospital Westmead

Swift is pleased to announce its expansion within the Hospital sector via a reseller agreement with Rauland Australia for two Children's Hospitals: Sydney Children's Hospital Randwick and Westmead Children's Hospital.

Rauland Australia is a care technology company with a successful history supporting the Australian healthcare care sector. With over 30 years in industry Rauland supports over 400 customers.

Under the two new 4-year reseller agreements Swift will provide Rauland with Swift's premium entertainment package, curated specifically for Children.

The total contract value over the 48-month term is $144,960. While the revenue associated with this contract is not material, the agreement is strategically important. It marks Swift's expansion in the Hospital sector and further validates the Company's reseller network strategy, leveraging partners with established access to high-value, mature markets to support scalable growth.

Swift CEO Brian Mangano commented, "Expanding Swift's reach through targeted reseller partnerships remains a core pillar of the Company's growth strategy. This approach enables us to maximise the utilisation of existing assets, enter new markets and enables scalable expansion without materially increasing the cost base. By leveraging strategic partnerships rather than direct infrastructure investment, Swift maintains capital efficiency while driving growth and improving overall returns"
