Briscoe Group Limited (NZX/ASX code: BGP)

Highlights for the full year ended 25 January 2026:

- Record total sales $798.8 million, +0.93% on last year
- Both Homeware and Sporting Goods segments delivered positive growth, +1.42% and +0.13% respectively
- Gross profit margin 39.23%, -114 basis points (Margin decline for 2nd half of 76 basis points vs 154 basis points for 1st half)
- Online sales as mix of total Group sales 20.04%, (LY 19.69%)
- Total costs only 1.19% increase on last year
- Net profit after tax (NPAT) $59.2 million
- Total inventory $8.9 million below last year
- $50.4 million capital expenditure made during the period

The directors of Briscoe Group Limited announce a net profit after tax (NPAT) of $59.2 million for the year ending 25 January 2026, compared to $60.6 million reported for the previous year.

Group Chair Dame Rosanne Meo said, “Delivering record sales and a solid financial result reflects the strength and resilience of the Briscoe Group business. The Group has continued to execute well, maintaining strong inventory discipline and cost control while navigating a year that remained challenging for many households and retailers. Looking forward the Board acknowledges that recent global events are contributing to a more uncertain external outlook, which management continues to actively monitor.”

Directors have resolved to pay a final dividend of 10.0 cents per share (cps). The dividend is fully imputed and, when added to the interim dividend of 10.0cps, brings the total dividend for the year to 20.0 cps. The final dividend will be paid on 31 March 2026. The share register will close to determine entitlements to the dividend at 5pm on 20 March 2026. The Company’s dividend policy is to pay out at least 60% of NPAT when calculated on a full-year basis.

Dame Rosanne Meo said, “The Board is pleased to be able to maintain a fully imputed final dividend while also ensuring the Group has the financial capacity to complete its major investment programme. These investments are critical in positioning the business for the next phase of growth.”

Rod Duke, Group Managing Director, said: “To deliver record Group sales of $798.8 million in a year marked by persistent pressure on consumer sentiment and discretionary spending is an outstanding result. While gross margin remained under pressure due to a highly competitive retail environment, we continued to focus on disciplined execution – balancing sales performance and gross profit margin, controlling costs and maintaining excellent inventory outcomes.”

The earnings were generated on sales revenue of $798.8 million, an increase of 0.93% on the $791.5 million generated for the previous year. Both trading segments contributed to the growth, with Homeware sales increasing by 1.42% to $496.8 million and Sporting Goods sales by 0.13% to $302.1 million. Rod Duke said, “To deliver positive full-year growth across both segments and achieve another record sales outcome is a terrific result, reflecting the strength of our brands, their value proposition and the quality of execution by our teams across stores, online and support functions.”

As expected, gross margin percentage declined for the period from 40.37% to 39.23%. Rod Duke said, "Like all retailers we faced margin pressure through the first half of the year as competitive conditions remained challenging in a highly value-driven market. Encouragingly, through targeted promotional adjustments and a sharper focus on specific trading opportunities, we materially reduced the rate of margin decline across the second half with a decline of 0.76% - significantly improved compared to the first half's decline of 1.54%. Our goal for the 2026/27 financial year is to see positive growth in gross profit margin percentage."

The Group's online business continued to strengthen during the year and represented 20.04% of Group sales as at 25 January 2026. Rod Duke said, "We're excited about reaching 20% of sales mix for the first time. Our online teams delivered a number of key initiatives during the year including migration to the new Adobe platform and the launch of the Direct-to-Customer platform, Marketplacer as well as, further optimisation of our search engine producing faster updates to online pricing and product pages. We remain excited about the potential to continue to grow the Group's online business as we further optimise these platforms and expand ranges and fulfilment options."

"Cost control continues to be an integral part of managing the business and the year has closed with total store and overhead costs only 1.2% higher than the previous year. This is a significant achievement given ongoing wage inflation and other operating cost pressures absorbed throughout the business."

"Interest income for the year is $3.2 million less than last year due to lower interest rates and reduced cash holdings, reflecting progress on the construction of our new Drury distribution centre, which remains on schedule and within budget."

Inventories totalled $90.8 million at year-end, $8.9 million below the $99.7 million reported for last year. Rod Duke said, "Inventory discipline remains a key focus for us and this year the team has delivered excellent improvements in both the quantum and quality of closing stock. These outcomes reduce clearance pressure and position the Group strongly for the year ahead."

The Group's balance sheet remains strong, with cash and bank balances of $130.3 million as at 25 January 2026 and no term debt. Approximately $32 million of creditor payments included in the trade payables balance were subsequently paid on or before 31 January 2026. With the significant investment underway in establishing the new North Island distribution centre at Drury, combined with the seasonality of the Group's operational cashflow, the Group established funding facilities during the year and expects to commence drawdown by early April 2026 to support planned timing of project expenditure.

During the year $50.4 million of capital investment was made by the Group, supporting the new distribution centre programme, ongoing store development activity and systems investment. This compares with $58.2 million invested in the prior year and reflects the Group's continued commitment to a period of elevated capital investment, with a further $57 million capital expenditure anticipated in the current financial year as the distribution centre project progresses toward completion.

The Group progressed a number of store development projects during the year including the opening of its first flagship Rebel Sport store, Rebel X, in Mt Wellington in mid-November. Rebel X has received exceptional feedback and sets a new benchmark for sports retail in New Zealand. In addition, Briscoes Homeware Westgate and Rebel Sport Henderson were refurbished into next generation retail environments and the Group also largely completed a redevelopment of the Rebel Sport CBD store in Wellington into a contemporary high street concept with an expanded footprint on Cuba Street. Looking ahead, the Group hopes to undertake at least five further store development projects during 2026.

Rod Duke said, "We remain very confident in the long-term benefits that will be delivered from the Group's major strategic initiatives. The year just commenced represents the final year in which the costs of these investments will impact profit, ahead of the significant benefits expected to contribute more fully from the following financial year. That confidence is underpinned by the strength, experience and focus of our senior leadership team, who have consistently demonstrated their ability to deliver against strategic priorities and execute at pace. The new distribution centre is a transformational investment which will materially improve supply chain capability, inventory flow and efficiency. In parallel, the continued roll-out of advanced merchandise planning and analytics tools, including Impact Analytics, is expected to further improve stock management, sell-through and gross margin outcomes over time.

“We do not underestimate how challenging the retail environment is likely to remain in the near term. Recent geopolitical disruption in the Middle East has the potential to place renewed pressure on fuel prices, with flow-through impacts on inflation, operating costs and consumer sentiment across the New Zealand economy. Notwithstanding these near-term headwinds, we are excited about the potential for our initiatives to drive meaningful benefits over time. These initiatives are expected to support profit growth over the next three to four years, targeting a return to record profit levels as these benefits flow.”

Dame Rosanne Meo said, “The Board is very encouraged by the progress the Group continues to make. Our team’s commitment, capability and energy have again been evident throughout the year — delivering strong outcomes in a demanding trading environment while also progressing a number of important initiatives that will enhance the Group’s capability and performance. On behalf of the Board, I sincerely thank our people across stores, distribution and support office for their outstanding effort and teamwork. We are confident these investments position Briscoe Group extremely well for the future.”

The material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial report are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the periods presented, unless otherwise stated.

Entities reporting

The consolidated financial statements reported are for the consolidated Group which is the economic entity comprising Briscoe Group Limited and its subsidiaries. The Group is designated as a for-profit entity for the purposes of complying with GAAP.

Reporting period

These consolidated financial statements are in respect of the 52-week period 27 January 2025 to 25 January 2026 and provide a balance sheet as at 25 January 2026. The comparative period is in respect of the 52-week period 29 January 2024 to 26 January 2025. The Group operates on a weekly trading and reporting cycle resulting in 52 weeks for most years with a 53-week period occurring once every 5-6 years.

Principles of consolidation

Subsidiaries are all entities over which the Company has control. The Company controls an entity when the Company is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Company. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the 52-week period ended 25 January 2026

1. Basis of Preparation

Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains or losses on transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Accounting policies of subsidiaries are changed when necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Company.

Subsidiaries	Activity	2026 Interest	2025 Interest
Briscoes (New Zealand) Limited	Homeware retail	100%	100%
The Sports Authority Limited (trading as Rebel Sport)	Sporting goods retail	100%	100%
Rebel Sport Limited	Name protection	100%	100%
Living and Giving Limited	Name protection	100%	100%

All companies above are incorporated in New Zealand and have a balance date consistent with that of the Company as outlined in the accounting policies.

Historical cost convention

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of certain assets as identified in specific accounting policies detailed throughout these financial statements.

Critical accounting judgements and estimates

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies and the application of accounting standards, a number of estimates and judgements have been made. The estimates and underlying assumptions are based on historical experience and adjusted for current market conditions and other factors, including expectations of future events that are considered to be reasonable under the circumstances. If outcomes within the next financial period are significantly different from assumptions, this could result in adjustments to carrying amounts of the asset or liability affected.

Further explanation as to estimates and assumptions made by the Group can be found in the notes to the financial statements:

Areas of judgement and estimation	Note	Key estimates
Inventories	3.1.3	Inventory provision
Leases	3.4	Incremental borrowing rate

Climate related risks

The Group monitors its exposure to Climate-related risks and reviews its Climate-related risk assessment annually. As part of this annual assessment, we have not identified any material impacts requiring specific disclosure in the financial statements. The identified climate-related risks and opportunities including both physical and transitional impacts have been considered as part of the above critical accounting judgements and estimates.

Foreign currency translation

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at period-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the income statement, except when deferred in which case they are recognised in other comprehensive income as qualifying cash flow hedges.

2. Performance

This section reports on the results and performance of the Group, providing additional information about individual items, including performance by operating segment, revenue, expenses, taxation and earnings per share.

2.1 Segment Information

An operating segment is a component of an entity that engages in business activities which earns revenue and incurs expenses and for which the chief operating decision maker (CODM) reviews the operating results on a regular basis and makes decisions on resource allocation. The Group has determined its CODM to be the group of executives comprising the Managing Director, Chief Operating Officer, Chief Financial Officer and the Chief People Officer.

The Group is organised into two reportable operating segments, namely homeware and sporting goods, reflecting the different retail sectors within which the Group operates. The Company is considered not to be a reportable operating segment. Eliminations and unallocated amounts as shown below are primarily attributable to the Company. There were no inter-segment sales in the period (2025: Nil).

Information regarding the operations of each reportable operating segment is included below. Segment profit represents the profit earned by each segment and is extracted from the income statements associated with the two trading subsidiary companies, Briscoes (New Zealand) Limited and The Sports Authority Limited (trading as Rebel Sport). Earnings before interest and tax (EBIT) is a non-GAAP measure and used by CODM to assess the performance of the operating segments. This measure should not be viewed in isolation, nor considered as a substitute for measures reported in accordance with NZ IFRS. This non-GAAP financial measure may not be comparable to similarly titled amounts reported by other companies.

Revenue recognition

Revenue comprises the fair value of consideration received or receivable for the sale of goods and services, net of Goods and Services Tax (GST), and discounts and after eliminating sales within the Group. Revenue is recognised as follows:

Sales of goods - retail

For all sales, control is considered to pass to the customer at the point when the customer can use or otherwise benefit from the goods and services. For in-store sales, control passes to the customer at point of sale. For online sales, the order along with delivery to the customer are considered to comprise a single performance obligation, therefore control is considered to pass to the customer on delivery of the goods. Retail sales are predominantly by credit card, debit card or in cash.

Rental income

Rental income (net of any incentives given to lessees) is recognised on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

Interest income

Interest income is recognised on a time-proportionate basis using the effective interest method.

Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive the dividend is established.

Profit before income tax includes the following specific income and expenses:

2.3 Taxation

Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in New Zealand, being the country where the Group operates and generates taxable income. The Group periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and liabilities are offset when the entity has a legal enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The income statement, statement of comprehensive income and statement of cash flows have been prepared so that all components are stated exclusive of GST. All items in the balance sheet are stated net of GST, with the exception of trade receivables and trade payables, which include GST invoiced.

2.3.1 Taxation – Income statement

Imputation credits available for use in subsequent accounting periods	153,534	145,980

The above amounts represent the balance of the imputation account as at the end of the reporting period, adjusted for:

- Imputation credits that will arise from the payment of the provision for income tax,
- Imputation debits that will arise from the payment of dividends recognised as liabilities at the reporting date, and
- Imputation credits that will arise from the receipt of dividends recognised as receivables at the reporting date.

The consolidated amounts include imputation credits that would be available to the Company if subsidiaries paid dividends.

2.4 Earnings Per Share

Earnings per share (EPS) is the amount of post-tax profit attributable to each share.

Basic EPS is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to shareholders by the weighted average number of ordinary shares on issue during the period.

Diluted EPS adjusts for any commitments the Group has to issue shares in the future that would decrease the Basic EPS. These are in the form of performance rights. Diluted EPS is therefore computed by dividing the net profit attributable to shareholders by the weighted average number of ordinary shares on issue during the period, adjusted to include the potentially dilutive effect if performance rights to issue ordinary shares were exercised and converted into shares.

	Period ended 25 January 2026	Period ended 26 January 2025
Net profit attributable to shareholders $000	59,217	60,634

3. Operating Assets and Liabilities

This section reports the assets used to generate the Group's trading performance and the liabilities incurred as a result. Liabilities relating to the Group's financing activities are addressed in note 5. Assets and liabilities in relation to deferred taxation and taxation payable are shown in note 2.3. The carrying amounts of financial assets and liabilities are equivalent to their fair value unless otherwise stated.

3.1 Working Capital

Working capital represents the assets and liabilities the Group generates through its trading activity. The Group therefore defines working capital as cash, trade and other receivables, inventories and trade and other payables.

3.1.1 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions and other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and that are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

	Period ended 25 January 2026 $000	Period ended 26 January 2025 $000
Cash at bank or on hand	130,325	142,401

As at 25 January 2026 the Group held foreign currency equivalent to NZ$2.407 million (2025: NZ$1.473 million) which is included in the table above. The foreign currency in which the Group deals primarily is the US Dollar.

3.1.2 Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables arise from sales made to customers on credit or through the collection of purchasing rebates from suppliers not otherwise deducted from suppliers' payable accounts. All rebates are deducted from the cost of inventory. Trade receivables are recognised initially at the value of the invoice sent to the customer (fair value) and subsequently at the amounts considered recoverable (amortised cost). Trade receivable balances are reviewed on an on-going basis.

	Period ended 25 January 2026 $000	Period ended 26 January 2025 $000
Trade receivables	1,622	1,645
Prepayments	3,069	3,242
Other receivables	2,049	1,943
Total trade and other receivables	6,740	6,830

No interest is charged on trade receivables.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the 52-week period ended 25 January 2026

3. Operating Assets and Liabilities3.1.3 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined using a weighted average method and includes expenditure incurred in acquiring the inventories and bringing them to their existing location and condition. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

The Group assesses the likely residual value of inventory. Stock provisions are recognised for inventory which is expected to sell for less than cost and also for the value of inventory likely to have been lost to the business through shrinkage between the date of the last applicable stocktake and balance date. In recognising the provision for inventory, judgement has been applied by considering a range of factors including historical results, current trends and specific product information from buyers.

	Period ended 25 January 2026 $000	Period ended 26 January 2025 $000
Finished goods	94,728	103,992
Inventory provisions and adjustments	(3,900)	(4,296)
Net inventories	90,828	99,696

During the period the Group recognised $473.0 million (2025: $459.6 million) of inventory as an expense within cost of goods sold.

3.1.4 Trade and other payables

Trade and other payable amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of a financial period, which are unpaid.

Trade payables

Trade payables are recognised at the value of the invoice received from a supplier (fair value). The carrying value of trade payables is considered to approximate fair value as the amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within 60 days of recognition.

Employee entitlementsWages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits, annual leave and accumulating sick leave expected to be settled within 12 months of the reporting date are recognised in other payables in respect of employees' services up to the reporting date and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. Liabilities for non-accumulating sick leave are recognised when the leave is taken and measured at the rates paid or payable. The liability for employee entitlements is carried at the present value of the estimated future cash flows.

Bonus plans

A liability is recognised for bonuses payable to employees where a contractual obligation arises for an agreed level of payment dependent on both company and individual performance criteria.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the 52-week period ended 25 January 2026

3. Operating Assets and Liabilities

Long service leave

The liability for long service leave is recognised as a non-current liability and measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date using the projected unit credit method. Consideration is given to expected future wage and salary levels, history of employee departure rates and periods of service. Expected future payments are discounted using market yields at the reporting date on government bonds with terms to maturity that match, as closely as possible, the estimated future cash outflows.

Provisions

A provision is recognised if, as a result of a past event, the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation.

Provisions relate to returns in relation to sales of goods directly imported by the Group and are expected to be fully utilised within the next twelve months. Provisions relating to inventory, receivables and employee benefits have been treated as part of those specific balances. There are no other provisions relating to these financial statements.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the 52-week period ended 25 January 2026

3. Operating Assets and Liabilities

3.2 Property, Plant and Equipment

All property, plant and equipment is stated at historical cost less depreciation and any impairment adjustments. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of property, plant and equipment. Costs are included in an asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with an item will flow to the Group and the cost of an item can be measured reliably.

Assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance date.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if its carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposals of assets are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amounts. These gains and losses are included in the income statement.

Land is not depreciated. Depreciation on other assets is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their estimated residual values, over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

- Freehold buildings 33 years
- Plant and equipment 3 - 15 years

Property, plant and equipment is reviewed whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which an asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell, or value in use.

The Group assesses whether there are indications, for example loss-making stores, for certain trigger events which may indicate that an impairment in property, plant and equipment values exist at balance date.

Intangible assets are non-physical assets used by the Group to operate the business. Software costs have a finite useful life. Software costs which can be capitalised are amortised on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful economic life of 2 to 5 years. Software-as-a-service costs are expensed when they are incurred.

Software is the only intangible asset recorded in the financial statements. All software has been acquired externally.

3.4 Leases

Right-of-use assets and lease liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the remaining lease payments. Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liabilities.

Right-of-use assets are initially recognised on commencement of lease at cost, comprising the initial amount of the lease liabilities less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are subsequently depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date to the end of the lease term. In considering the lease term, the Group applies judgement in determining whether it is reasonably certain that an extension or termination option will be exercised.

Both right-of-use assets and lease liabilities are discounted applying interest rate implicit in the lease, or if this cannot be determined, the incremental borrowing rate at the commencement of the lease. To determine the incremental borrowing rate the Group have applied a blended secured and unsecured borrowing rate. For the secured rate the Group have utilised third party financing options and adjusted for an appropriate credit spread which reflects the terms of the lease and the type of asset leased.

Extension options are included in a number of property leases across the Group. These are used to maximise operational flexibility in terms of managing the assets used in the Group's operation. Extension options held are exercisable only by the Group and not by the respective lessor. During the period the Group recognised all extension options (2025: all recognised).

The following tables show the movements and analysis in relation to the right-of-use assets and lease liabilities, created on the adoption of NZ IFRS 16:

5. Financing and Capital Structure

This section reports on the Group's funding sources and capital structure, including its balance sheet liquidity and access to capital markets.

5.1 Interest Bearing Liabilities

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in the income statement over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the balance sheet date.

There were no interest bearing liabilities as at 25 January 2026 (2025: Nil). The Group established a committed trade finance facility on 21 January 2026 of $30 million with ANZ Bank New Zealand Limited. No amounts have been drawn down to date.

5.2 Financial Risk Management

The Group's activities expose it to various financial risks including credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk (such as currency risk and equity price risk). The Group's overall risk management programme seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance. The Group uses certain derivative financial instruments to hedge certain risk exposures.

5.2.1 Derivative financial instruments

Derivatives are recognised initially at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured to their fair value. The method of recognising the resulting gain or loss depends on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument, and if so, the nature of the item being hedged. The Group designates certain derivatives as hedges of highly probable forecast transactions (cash flow hedges).

At the inception of a transaction the economic relationship between hedging instruments and hedged items, and the risk management objective and strategy for undertaking various hedge transactions, are documented. An assessment is also documented, both at hedge inception and on an on-going basis, of whether the derivatives that are used in hedging transactions have been and will continue to be effective in offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows of hedged items.

5. Financing and Capital Structure

Cash flow hedge

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualify as cash flow hedges, is recognised in other comprehensive income. The gain or loss relating to the ineffective portion is recognised immediately in the income statement within cost of goods sold.

Amounts accumulated in other comprehensive income are recycled in the income statement in the periods when the hedged item will affect profit or loss (for instance when the forecast purchase that is hedged takes place). However, when a forecast transaction that is hedged results in the recognition of a non-financial asset (for example, inventory) or a non-financial liability, the gains and losses previously deferred in other comprehensive income are transferred from the cash flow hedge reserve and included in the measurement of the initial cost or carrying amount of the asset or liability.

When a hedging instrument expires or is sold or terminated, or when a hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, any cumulative gain or loss existing in other comprehensive income at that time remains in other comprehensive income and is recognised when the forecast transaction is ultimately recognised in the income statement. When a forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss that was reported in other comprehensive income is immediately transferred to the income statement within cost of goods sold.

Derivatives that do not qualify for hedge accounting

Certain derivative instruments do not qualify for hedge accounting. Changes in the fair value of these derivative instruments are recognised immediately in the income statement within administration expenses.

5.2.2 Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk of a counterparty failing to discharge an obligation. In the normal course of its business, Briscoe Group incurs credit risk from trade receivables and transactions with financial institutions. The Group places its cash, short-term investments and derivative financial instruments with only high-credit-rated, Board-approved financial institutions. Sales to retail customers are settled predominantly in cash or by using major credit cards. Less than 1% of reported sales give rise to trade receivables. The Group holds no collateral over its trade receivables.

5.2.3 Interest rate risk

The Group has no long-term interest-bearing liabilities but does have interest rate risk exposure from periodic short-term drawdowns of established funding facilities and placements of short-term deposits, as operating cash flows necessitate. The Group's short to medium term liquidity position is monitored daily and reported to the Board monthly.

5.2.4 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an unforeseen event or miscalculation in the required liquidity level will result in the Group foregoing investment opportunities or not being able to meet its obligations in a timely manner, and therefore gives rise to lower investment income or to higher borrowing costs than otherwise. Prudent liquidity risk management includes maintaining sufficient cash, and ensuring the availability of adequate amounts of funding from credit facilities.

The Group's liquidity exposure is managed by ensuring sufficient levels of liquid assets and committed facilities are maintained based on regular monitoring of a rolling 3-month daily cash requirement forecast. The Group's liquidity position fluctuates throughout the period, being strongest immediately after the end of the period. The months leading up to Christmas trading put the greatest strain on Group cash flows due to the build-up of inventory as well as the interim dividend payment. The Group operates well within its available funding facilities.

5. Financing and Capital Structure

The table below analyses the Group's financial liabilities and gross-settled forward foreign exchange contracts into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period from the balance sheet date to the contractual maturity date. The cash flow hedge 'outflow' amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows liable for payment by the Group in relation to all forward foreign exchange contracts in place at balance date. The cash flow hedge 'inflow' amounts represent the corresponding injection of foreign currency back to the Group as a result of the gross settlement on those contracts, converted using the forward rate at balance date. The carrying value shown is the net amount of derivative financial liabilities and assets as shown in the balance sheet. Changes in the carrying value affect profit when the underlying inventory to which the derivatives relate, is sold.

Trade and other payables are shown at carrying value in the table. No discounting has been applied as the impact of discounting is not significant.

An analysis detailing remaining contractual maturities for lease liabilities is shown in Note 3.4.3.

5. Financing and Capital Structure

5.2.5 Market risk

Equity price risk

The Group is exposed to equity price risk arising from the investment held in KMD Brands Limited, classified in the balance sheet as investment in equity securities. (Refer note 4.1).

Foreign exchange risk

The Group is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from currency exposures primarily to the US dollar, in respect of purchases of inventory directly from overseas suppliers.

The Group's foreign exchange risk is managed in accordance with Board-approved Group Treasury Risk Management Policies. The current policy requires hedging of both committed and forecasted foreign currency payment levels across the current and subsequent three calendar quarters. The policy is to cover 100% of committed purchases and lower levels of forecasted purchases depending on which quarter the forecasted exposure relates to. Hedging is reviewed regularly and reported to the Board monthly.

The Group uses forward foreign exchange contracts and maintains short-term holdings of foreign currencies in foreign denominated currency bank accounts, with major financial institutions only, to hedge its foreign exchange risk in anticipation of future purchases.

The following table shows the fair value of forward foreign exchange contracts held by the Group as derivative financial instruments at balance date:

	Period ended 25 January 2026 $000	Period ended 26 January 2025 $000
Current assets
Forward foreign exchange contracts	739	3,058
Total current derivative financial instrument assets	739	3,058
Current liabilities
Forward foreign exchange contracts	529	34
Total current derivative financial instrument liabilities	529	34

The contracts are subject to an enforceable master netting arrangement, which allows for net settlement of the relevant assets and liabilities. For financial reporting purposes these are not offset.

Forward foreign exchange contracts – cash flow hedges

Where forward foreign exchange contracts have been designated and tested as an effective hedge the portion of the gain or loss on the hedging instrument that is determined to be an effective hedge is recognised directly in other comprehensive income. These gains or losses are released to the income statement at various dates over the subsequent financial period as the inventory for which the hedge exists, is sold.

The fair value of these contracts is determined by using valuation techniques as they are not traded in an active market. The valuation techniques maximise the use of observable market data where it is available and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. The fair value is determined by mark-to-market valuations using forward exchange. These derivatives have been determined to be within level 2 of the fair value hierarchy as all significant inputs required to ascertain their fair value are observable.

Forward foreign exchange contracts are used for hedging committed or highly probable forecast purchases of inventory for the ensuing financial period. The contracts are timed to mature when major shipments of inventory are scheduled to be dispatched and the liability settled. The cash flows are expected to occur at various dates within one year from balance date.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the 52-week period ended 25 January 2026

5. Financing and Capital Structure

At balance date these contracts are represented by assets of $738,715 (2025: $3,058,284) and liabilities of $529,047 (2025: $34,190) and together are included in equity as part of the cash flow hedge reserve, net of deferred tax, as a net gain of $150,961 (2025: net gain $2,177,347). The cash flow hedge reserve also consists of gains and losses, net of deferred tax, from foreign currencies used as hedges, as a net gain of $31,887 (2025: net gain of $72,568). The total of these net gains and losses amount to a net gain of $182,848 (2025: net gain of $2,249,915).

When forward foreign exchange contracts are not designated and tested as an effective hedge, the gain or loss on the forward foreign exchange contract is recognised in the income statement.

At balance date there are no such contracts in place (2025: Nil).

5.2.6 Sensitivity analysis

Based on historical movements and volatilities and review of current economic commentary the following movements are considered reasonably possible over the next 12 month period:

- A shift of -10.0% / +10.0% (2025: -7.5% / +7.5%) in the NZD against the USD, from the period-end rate of 0.5910 (2025: 0.5703),
- A shift of -7.5% / +7.5% (2025: -7.5% / +7.5%) in the NZD against the EUR, from the period-end rate of 0.50294 (2025: 0.54559),
- A shift of -0.25% / +0.75% (2025: -1.25% / +0.25%) in market interest rates from the period-end weighted average deposit rate of 2.25% (2025: 4.56%),
- A shift of -10% / +30% (2025: -10% / +20%) in the NZX share price of KMD Brands Limited from the period-end closing share price of $0.275 (2025: $0.425).

If these movements were to occur, the positive / (negative) impact on consolidated profit after tax and consolidated equity for each category of financial instrument held at balance date is presented below:

5.3 Equity

5.3.1 Capital risk management

The Group's capital comprises contributed equity, reserves and retained earnings.

The Group's objective when managing capital is to achieve a balance between maximising shareholder wealth and ensuring the Group is able to operate competitively with the flexibility to take advantage of growth opportunities as they arise. In order to meet these objectives the Group may adjust the amount of dividend payments made to shareholders and/or seek to raise capital through debt and/or equity. There are no specific banking or other arrangements which require the Group to maintain specified equity levels.

5.3.2 Share capital

Share capital comprises ordinary shares only. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

All shares on issue are fully paid. All ordinary shares rank equally with one vote attached to each fully paid ordinary share and have equal dividend rights and no par value.

5.3.4 Reserves and retained earnings

Cashflow hedge reserve

The hedging reserve is used to record gains and losses on a hedging instrument in a cash flow hedge that are recognised directly in other comprehensive income, as described in the accounting policy in section 5.2. The amounts are recognised as profit or loss when the associated hedged transaction affects profit or loss. (Refer also to the consolidated statement of changes in equity).

Equity-based remuneration reserve

The equity-based remuneration reserve is used to recognise the fair value of performance rights granted but not exercised, lapsed or forfeited. Amounts are transferred to share capital when vested performance rights are exercised. (Refer also to the consolidated statement of changes in equity and note 6.2).

Other reserves

Other reserves represents the adjustment made at balance date to reflect the fair value of the investment in KMD Brands Limited. (Refer also to the consolidated statement of changes in equity and note 4.1).

6.2 Employee Equity-Based Remuneration

6.2.1 Equity settled performance rights

The Senior Executive Incentive Plan grants Group employees performance rights subject to performance hurdles being met. The fair value of rights granted is recognised as an employee expense in the income statement with a corresponding increase in the employee share-based payment reserve. The fair value is measured at grant date and amortised over the vesting periods. When performance rights vest, the amount in the share-based payments reserve relating to those rights are transferred to share capital. There is no exercise price for these performance rights and there is no right to dividends during the vesting periods.

On 26 March 2019 the Board approved the Briscoe Group Senior Executive Incentive Plan to grant performance rights to key senior management personnel as a long-term incentive programme. The eighth tranche of performance rights were issued under this programme during the period.

Performance rights movements during the period are summarised below:

Tranche	Grant Date	Balance at start of period (number)	Granted during the period (number)	Vested during the period (number)	Lapsed / forfeited during the period (number)	Balance at the end of period (number)
5	5 Aug 2022	111,358	-	-	(111,358)	-
6	3 Aug 2023	184,882	-	-	(59,250)	125,632
7	22 Oct 2024	298,135	-	-	(86,060)	212,075
8	30 Jul 2025	-	164,657	-	(27,490)	137,167
		594,375	164,657	-	(284,158)	474,874

In each tranche the performance rights are subject to a combination of an absolute Total Shareholder Return (TSR) growth hurdle and/or an EPS growth hurdle. EPS growth hurdle is considered a non-market condition. The relative hurdle weighting for unvested tranches is shown in the table below:

Tranche	Grant Date	TSR Weighting	EPS Weighting
6	3 Aug 2023	50%	50%
7	22 Oct 2024	50%	50%
8	30 Jul 2025	50%	50%

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the 52-week period ended 25 January 2026

6. Other Notes

The proportion of performance rights subject to the absolute TSR growth hurdle which may vest is dependent on Briscoe Group Limited's TSR compound annual growth rate (CAGR) across a 3-year measurement period. For each tranche that vests the rights are awarded on a straight-line basis dependent on the TSR CAGR achieved. The percentage of TSR related performance rights vest according to the following performance criteria for each unvested tranche:

% Vesting	Tranche 6	Tranche 7	Tranche 8
0%	< 10.8% CAGR	< 9.0% CAGR	< 9.0% CAGR
1% - 99% (Straight-line prorata)		=>9.0%, < 11.0% CAGR	=>9.0%, < 11.0% CAGR
50%	= 10.8% CAGR
51% - 99% (Straight-line prorata)	> 10.8%, < 11.8% CAGR
100%	=> 11.8% CAGR	=> 11.0% CAGR	=> 11.0% CAGR

The TSR performance is calculated across the following periods:

Tranche	Performance Period
6	Announcement date of FY 2022/23 Result to announcement date of FY 2025/26 Result
7	Announcement date of FY 2023/24 Result to announcement date of FY 2026/27 Result
8	Announcement date of FY 2024/25 Result to announcement date of FY 2027/28 Result

The fair value of the TSR performance rights have been valued under a variant of the dividend adjusted Binomial Options Pricing Model (BOPM). The fair value of TSR performance rights, along with the assumptions used to simulate the future share prices are shown below:

	Tranche 6	Tranche 7	Tranche 8
Fair value of TSR performance rights	$144,305	$354,483	$318,858
Share price at grant date	$4.68	$5.06	$6.01
Risk free interest rate	5.22%	4.18%	3.44%
Expected life (years)	2.62	2.40	2.63
Expected share volatility ¹	22%	22%	25%

1. Volatility considers the volatility of the Briscoe Group (BGP) NZD share price based on the average weekly volatility over the last year (weekly data) as well as the average 90-day volatility for the past 3 years (measured on a daily basis).

The estimated fair value for each tranche of performance rights issued is amortised over the vesting period from the grant date.

The proportion of performance rights subject to the EPS growth hurdle which may vest is dependent on Briscoe Group Limited's EPS compound annual growth rate (CAGR) across a 3-year measurement period. For each tranche that vests the rights are awarded on a straight-line basis dependent on the EPS CAGR achieved. The percentage of EPS related performance rights vest according to the following performance criteria:

% Vesting	Tranche 6	Tranche 7	Tranche 8
0%	< -1.9% CAGR	< 1.0% CAGR	< 1.0% CAGR
1% - 99% (Straight-line prorata)		=>1.0%, < 4.0% CAGR	=>1.0%, < 4.0% CAGR
50%	= -1.9% CAGR
51% - 99% (Straight-line prorata)	> -1.9%, < 0.4% CAGR
100%	=> 0.4% CAGR	=> 4.0% CAGR	=> 4.0% CAGR

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the 52-week period ended 25 January 2026

6. Other Notes

The EPS performance is calculated across the following periods:

Tranche	Performance period
6	FY 2025/26 EPS relative to FY 2022/23 EPS
7	FY 2026/27 EPS relative to FY 2023/24 EPS
8	FY 2027/28 EPS relative to FY 2024/25 EPS

The fair value of the EPS performance rights have been assessed as the Briscoe Group Limited's share price as at grant date less the present value of the dividends forecast to be paid prior to each vesting date. The fair value of each EPS unvested performance right has been calculated to be $4.00, $4.48 and $5.46 for tranche 6, tranche 7 and tranche 8, respectively.

The estimated fair value for each tranche of performance rights issued is amortised over the vesting period from grant date.

Vesting of performance rights also requires the employee to remain in employment with the Company during the performance period. The Company has expensed in the income statement $569,806 (2025: $496,627) in relation to performance rights.

6.2.2 Equity-based remuneration reserve	Period ended 25 January 2026	Period ended 26 January 2025
	$000	$000
Balance at beginning of period	925	701
Current period amortisation	570	497
Performance rights vested transferred to share capital	-	(91)
Performance rights lapsed/forfeited	(524)	(230)
Deferred tax on performance rights	33	48
Balance at end of period	1,004	925

6.3 Events After Balance Date

On 10 March 2026 the Directors resolved to provide for a final dividend to be paid in respect of the period ended 25 January 2026. The dividend will be paid at a rate of 10.0 cents per share for all shares on issue as at 20 March 2026, with full imputation credits attached (Note 5.3.3).

6.4 New Accounting Standards

Certain new accounting standards, amendments to accounting standards and interpretations have been published that are not mandatory for the 25 January 2026 reporting period and have not been early adopted by the Group. Other than NZ IFRS 18 these standards, amendments or interpretations are not expected to have a material impact on the entity in the current or future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transactions.

NZ IFRS 18: Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements will be effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027. This new standard, which is mandatory for the Group in the 2028 financial year, is expected to change the presentation of the Group's consolidated income statement. The Group will disclose more information in the future when a full assessment of the impact of the standard has been completed.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Description of the key audit matter

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Inventory existence and valuation

As at 25 January 2026, the Group held inventories of $90.8 million. Given the value of inventories relative to the total assets of the Group, and the judgements applied by management in provisioning against inventory shrinkage, slow moving, and obsolete inventory, this has been considered as a key audit matter.

As described in note 3.1.3 to the consolidated financial statements, inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

The Group has inventory systems in place to accurately record and report inventory movements and the value of inventory on hand. Cyclical counts of inventories are performed at various times throughout the period which includes an assessment of slow moving and obsolete stock. The cyclical counts provide management with evidence over quantity and quality of inventory on hand.

Management applies judgement in determining inventory valuation, in particular the level of provisions for inventory which is expected to sell for less than cost due to obsolescence, adjustments for unearned rebate income, and inventory shrinkage since the last stock count.

Our audit procedures included:

- gaining an understanding of inventory processes and assessing the design of certain inventory controls to inform the nature and extent of our audit procedures, particularly controls over the cyclical counting process;
- observing management's cyclical stocktake process at selected locations and undertaking our own test counts. For those locations not visited, on a sample basis, inspecting the results of stock counts and confirming stock count variances were appropriately adjusted;
- on a sample basis, testing the cost of inventory to supplier invoices or contracts providing evidence to support the accuracy of inventory costing;
- testing that period-end inventory is carried at lower of cost and net realisable value by comparing a sample of inventory items to the expected selling price;
- held discussions with management to understand and corroborate the assumptions applied in estimating inventory provisions;
- on a sample basis, testing unearned rebate income to supplier contracts;
- evaluating the methodology applied by management to determine the provision for slow-moving inventory by comparing historical write-offs against the level of provision, and assessing provision rates for various stock categories; and
- assessing the shrinkage provision by performing analytical procedures over the shrinkage rate used to calculate the provision since the last store stock counts. This includes comparing the rate used to the actual shrinkage rates previously observed and reviewing the level of actual inventory shrinkage recorded during the current period.

Our audit approach

Overview

Overall group materiality: $4.1 million, which represents approximately 5% of profit before tax.

We chose profit before tax as the benchmark because, in our view, it is the benchmark against which the performance of the Group is most commonly measured by users, and is a generally accepted benchmark.

We selected transactions and balances to audit based on the overall group materiality to Briscoe Group Limited at a consolidated level rather than determining the scope of procedures to perform by auditing only specific subsidiaries or entities.

As reported above, we have one key audit matter, being:

- Inventory existence and valuation

As part of designing our audit, we determined materiality and assessed the risks of material misstatement in the financial statements. In particular, we considered where management made subjective judgements; for example, in respect of significant accounting estimates that involved making assumptions and considering future events that are inherently uncertain. As in all of our audits, we also addressed the risk of management override of internal controls, including among other matters, consideration of whether there was evidence of bias that represented a risk of material misstatement due to fraud.

Materiality

The scope of our audit was influenced by our application of materiality. An audit is designed to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. Misstatements may arise due to fraud or error. They are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial statements.

Based on our professional judgement, we determined certain quantitative thresholds for materiality, including the overall group materiality for the financial statements as a whole as set out above. These, together with qualitative considerations, helped us to determine the scope of our audit, the nature, timing and extent of our audit procedures, and to evaluate the effect of misstatements, both individually and in the aggregate, on the financial statements as a whole.

How we tailored our group audit scope

We tailored the scope of our audit in order to perform sufficient work to enable us to provide an opinion on the financial statements as a whole, taking into account the structure of the Group, the accounting processes and controls, and the industry in which the Group operates.

We chose profit before tax as the benchmark because, in our view, it is the benchmark against which the performance of the Group is most commonly measured by users, and is a generally accepted benchmark.

Other information

The Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Annual Report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of audit opinion or assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the other information not yet received, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to the Directors and use our professional judgement to determine the appropriate action to take.

Responsibilities of the Directors for the financial statements

The Directors are responsible, on behalf of the Company, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with NZ IFRS and IFRS Accounting Standards, and for such internal control as the Directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern, and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements, as a whole, are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (NZ) and ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located at the External Reporting Board's website at:

This description forms part of our auditor's report.
