Transaction Overview

Jindalee Lithium Limited (Jindalee, the Company; ASX: JLL, OTCQX: JNDAF) is pleased to announce that its wholly owned United States (US) operating subsidiary, HiTech Minerals, Inc. (HiTech), has entered into a binding Business Combination Agreement (BCA) with Constellation Acquisition Corp I (Constellation) (OTCPK: CSTAF), a publicly traded special purpose acquisition company (SPAC), sponsored by Antarctica Capital, LLC (Antarctica), pursuant to which newly-formed US Elemental Inc. (US Elemental) is expected to become a NASDAQ listed company holding Jindalee's US assets (Transaction).

Upon completion, HiTech will become a wholly owned subsidiary of US Elemental, which will own the McDermitt Lithium Project in Oregon, one of the largest lithium resources in the US¹ (McDermitt Project, Project). Jindalee is expected to retain a majority interest of 80% or more in US Elemental at completion, subject to customary adjustments including financing outcomes and Constellation shareholder redemptions.

The Transaction implies a pro forma enterprise value for US Elemental of approximately US$571 million, including an implied equity valuation of US$500 million for Jindalee's US assets (see Annexure C). The Transaction also contemplates a capital raise of approximately US$20-30 million, which includes a binding US$4.0 million commitment from an affiliate of Antarctica, of which approximately US$1.5 million to be funded immediately upon signing of the BCA and a further US$2.5 million is committed for funding at completion, pursuant to a funding agreement executed in connection with the BCA (see summary of terms in Annexure A).

Completion of the Transaction is subject to customary regulatory and closing conditions, including approval by Constellation shareholders, approval of the Transaction by Jindalee's shareholders for the purpose of ASX Listing Rule 11.4, and satisfaction of the minimum cash condition (US$14M net of certain expenses).

Upon completion of the Transaction, US Elemental is expected to be listed on NASDAQ and provide a US-listed platform to support advancement of the McDermitt Project and the broader US Elemental strategy. The Transaction will be implemented through a series of mergers involving Constellation, US Elemental, and merger subsidiaries.

Commenting on the execution of the BCA, Jindalee's Managing Director and CEO Ian Rodger said:

"Execution of the Business Combination Agreement represents a key milestone in advancing our strategy to access US capital markets to support development of the McDermitt Project. The proposed Transaction and US listing of US Elemental is expected to improve our ability to fund the next phase of work, including infill drilling, advanced metallurgical optimisation and feasibility level studies.

Since signing the Letter of Intent with Constellation² late last year, lithium market conditions have improved, supported by growing demand from battery energy storage systems, while US Government support for critical minerals development has continued to build momentum. Investor interest in US Elemental has been strong, alongside the previously announced non-binding term sheet for an up to US$100M Equity Line of Credit to be provided by L1 Capital Global Opportunities Master Fund³, reinforcing our confidence in both the timing and strategic rationale for the Transaction.

Importantly, the Transaction is structured so that Jindalee retains majority ownership of the Project, while establishing a funding pathway aligned with its scale and long-term development.

Our focus remains on advancing the McDermitt Project in a disciplined and technically robust manner, with capital directed toward clearly defined work programs that underpin permitting, engineering confidence and long-term development decisions."

Commenting on the execution of the BCA, Chandra Patel, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Constellation and Managing Partner of Antarctica Capital, said:

"We believe US Elemental offers investors exposure to a significant US lithium resource at an important time for the industry. Demand for battery materials continues to grow and there is increasing emphasis on developing domestic sources of supply. The McDermitt Project, combined with the US Elemental team's experience and the scale of the resource, creates a strong platform for long-term growth. In addition, we believe our track record as a constructive and value-added sponsor makes us compelling partners to enable US Elemental to successfully execute its public listing and become an industry leader."

Key Terms of the BCA

A copy of the BCA, which sets out the terms and conditions of the Transaction, is attached to this announcement.

In summary, the Transaction will be implemented through a two-step merger structure whereby Constellation will merge with a wholly owned subsidiary of US Elemental, and HiTech will subsequently merge with a separate subsidiary of US Elemental, with HiTech surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of US Elemental following completion. The proforma corporate structure is included in Annexure B.

Under the terms of the BCA, HiTech ordinary shareholders, being Jindalee, will receive 50 million common shares in US Elemental as consideration for the acquisition of HiTech. These ordinary shares are initially valued at US$10 per share, equating to an implied equity value of US$500 million. Jindalee is expected to retain a majority equity interest in US Elemental following completion, with precise ownership outcomes subject to customary adjustments, including Constellation shareholder redemptions and actual equity issued pursuant to financing arrangements.

The Transaction contemplates a capital raise of US$20-30 million, with proceeds expected to fund certain transaction costs, US Elemental working capital and Project activities, including a large infill drill program and feasibility study work streams. In connection with signing of the BCA, a binding Funding Agreement has been executed with an affiliate of Constellation's sponsor, Antarctica, providing approximately US$1.5 million immediately and a further US$2.5 million committed for funding at completion. The key terms of the Funding Agreement are summarised in Annexure A.

Completion of the Transaction is subject to satisfaction of a minimum cash condition of US$14 million net of certain transaction expenses, which is intended to ensure US Elemental has sufficient funding available at completion. The minimum cash condition is expected to be met through additional capital raising (described above). Certain loans advanced by Jindalee to HiTech prior to completion will be converted to US Elemental warrants and certain other loans by Jindalee may, at Jindalee's election, be repaid in cash or converted into equity in US Elemental on agreed terms at completion.

Upon completion of the Transaction, the board of directors of US Elemental is expected to comprise nominees of both Jindalee and Constellation, reflecting customary governance arrangements for a de-SPAC transaction. Jindalee will have majority representation on the post-completion board, ensuring ongoing involvement in the strategic direction and oversight of US Elemental.

Completion of the Transaction is subject to various regulatory and closing conditions, including approval by Constellation shareholders, approval by Jindalee shareholders (including for the purposes of ASX Listing Rule 11.4), listing approval by NASDAQ, receipt of applicable regulatory approvals, completion of audited and Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) compliant financial statements, effectiveness of the relevant US registration statement, satisfaction of the minimum cash condition (which may be waived by Jindalee), and the absence of material adverse change events (for both Jindalee and the SPAC).

The BCA includes customary exclusivity, representations and warranties, and covenants for a transaction of this nature. It also includes provisions permitting Jindalee to consider a superior proposal, subject to customary fiduciary out and matching right provisions. In certain circumstances where the Transaction does not proceed following a superior proposal, a capped reimbursement of Constellation's transaction costs may be payable. Either party may terminate the BCA if the transaction is not completed within 9 months of its execution.

The BCA also contains customary 12-month lock-up arrangements in respect of certain US Elemental securities held by Jindalee and Antarctica following completion.

Strategic Rationale and Unanimous Recommendation of the Board

The board of Jindalee (Board) believes the Transaction represents a strategically important step in advancing the Company's previously announced strategy to position its US assets within a US domiciled, US listed corporate structure. Establishing US Elemental as the holding company for the McDermit Project is intended to create better alignment with US capital markets, policy priorities and investor bases that are increasingly focused on domestic critical minerals supply.

The proposed NASDAQ listing of US Elemental is expected to enhance access to US institutional and strategic capital, which the Board considers critical to supporting the next phase of project advancement. The McDermitt Project has reached a stage where significant capital is required to fund infill drilling, advance metallurgical optimisation and feasibility level studies, and the Transaction is intended to improve funding of these activities in a manner consistent with the scale and strategic importance of the Project.

The Board also considers the Transaction to be well aligned with the evolving US regulatory and policy environment, with Lithium and Magnesium designated as critical minerals and in an environment where there is increasing government support for domestic supply chains. Structuring the Project within a NASDAQ listing is expected to strengthen US Elemental's position with respect to government agencies, potential funding programs and strategic counterparties.

Importantly, the Transaction is structured to allow Jindalee shareholders to retain meaningful exposure to the long-term value of the McDermitt Project, with Jindalee expected to retain a majority ownership interest in US Elemental following completion, providing continued participation in project upside, whilst accessing the benefits of a US public listing.

Overall, the Board believes the Transaction provides a pathway to accelerate development of the McDermitt Project, enhance funding optionality and maintain alignment between Jindalee and its shareholders as the Project progresses toward feasibility and potential development.

Each member of the Board considers that the Transaction is in the best interests of Jindalee shareholders and intends to vote all Shares they own or control in favour of the Transaction.

Additionally, Jindalee has received a binding commitment from each of Mr Lindsay Dudfield, Mr Dudfield and Mrs Yvonne Dudfield (as trustees of the LG Dudfield Pension Fund) and Jopan Management Pty Ltd, a company owned by Mr Dudfield's wife, which as at the date of this announcement, together hold or control approximately 20,094,514 Shares or 19.61% of Jindalee's issued capital on an undiluted basis, that they each intend to vote, or cause to be voted, all Shares that they hold or control in favour of the Transaction in the absence of a Superior Proposal or an Intervening Event (as those terms are defined in the BCA).

Shareholder Approvals

Jindalee intends to convene a general meeting to seek shareholder approval for the Transaction for the purpose of Listing Rule 11.4.

A notice of meeting for the Transaction and its related matters will be circulated to shareholders in due course.

Jindalee shareholders do not need to take any action at this time.

These Presentation Materials include certain financial measures not presented in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). These non-GAAP financial measures are not measures of financial performance in accordance with GAAP and may exclude items are significant in understanding and assessing the Company's financial results. Therefore, these measures should not be considered in isolation or as an alternative to net income, cash flows from operations or other measures of profitability, liquidity or performance under GAAP. You should be aware that the Company's presentation of these measures may not be comparable to similarly-titled measures used by other companies. Jindalee and the Company believe these non-GAAP measures of financial results provide useful information to management and investors regarding certain financial and business trends relating to the Company's financial condition and results of operations. These Presentation Materials also include certain projections of non-GAAP financial measures. Due to the high variability and difficulty in making accurate forecasts and projections of some of the information excluded from these projected measures, together with some of the excluded information not being ascertainable or accessible, Jindalee and the Company are unable to quantify certain amounts that would be required to be included in the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures without unreasonable effort. Consequently, no disclosure of estimated comparable GAAP measures is included and no reconciliation of the forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures is included.

Australian | Non-U.S. Disclaimers

These Presentation Materials have been prepared by the Contracting Parties to assist interested parties in making their own evaluation with respect to the “Potential Business Combination”. These Presentation Materials provide general background information about the Contracting Parties’ activities. That information is current at the date of these Presentation Materials and remains subject to change without notice. Certain information in these Presentation Materials has been derived from third parties and though the Contracting Parties have no reason to believe that it is not accurate, reliable, or complete, it has not been independently audited or verified by the Contracting Parties. Except to the extent required by law, the Contracting Parties make no representation or warranty as to the accuracy, reliability, or completeness of information in this document and do not take responsibility for updating any information or correcting any errors or omissions which may become apparent after these Presentation Materials are released.

These Presentation Materials are for information purposes only and is a summary and does not purport to be complete nor does it contain all the information which would be required in, nor is it, a prospectus, product disclosure statement, or other disclosure document under Australian law or any other law (and will not be lodged with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission or any foreign regulator) and is not, and does not constitute, an invitation or offer of securities for subscription, purchase, or sale in any jurisdiction.

The Pre-Feasibility Study, including the production target and the forecast financial information derived from the production target, referred to in these Presentation Materials (PFS) was first released to the ASX by Jindalee (ASX: JLL) on 19 November 2024 (PFS Announcement). These Presentation Materials include summary excerpts from the PFS and do not purport to be all-inclusive or complete and should be read together with the PFS Announcement. Jindalee confirms that all material assumptions and technical parameters underpinning the production target and the forecast financial information derived from the production target, in the PFS Announcement continue to apply and have not materially changed.

Shareholders and prospective investors should be aware that the PFS and these Presentation Materials do not include any forecast financial information in respect of the period after the initial 40 years of the Processing Schedule (post single commission and ramp up year), as the Contracting Parties cannot, at this stage, provide forecast financial information for that subsequent period.

These Presentation Materials contain certain forward-looking statements, including forecast financial information. Forward-looking statements include but are not limited to statements concerning the Contracting Parties’ current expectations, estimates, and projections about the industry in which Contracting Parties’ operate and beliefs and assumptions regarding the Contracting Parties’ future performance. When used in this document, the words such as “anticipate,” “could,” “plan,” “estimate,” “expects,” “seeks,” “intends,” “may,” “potential,” “should,” and similar expressions are forward-looking statements. Although the Contracting Parties’ believe that they have a reasonable basis for those forward looking statements and forecast financial information, including the use of a flat U.S.$24,000/t lithium carbonate price in the PFS, the production target set out in these Presentation Materials and the financial information based on it, such statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors, some of which are beyond the control of Contracting Parties’ and no assurance can be given that actual results will be consistent with these forward-looking statements. The basis for that conclusion is contained throughout the PFS Announcement and all material assumptions, including the JORC modifying factors, upon which the forward-looking statements and forecast financial information are based, are disclosed in the PFS Announcement and these Presentation Materials should be read together with the PFS Announcement. To achieve the range of outcomes indicated in the PFS, the PFS estimates that funding in the order of $3.02B in construction capital will be required. Shareholders and investors should be aware that there is no certainty that Jindalee / US Elemental will be able to raise the required funding when needed and it is possible that such funding may only be available on terms that may be highly dilutive or otherwise adversely affect Jindalee and US Elemental’s shareholders’ exposure to the McDermitt Lithium Project (the “Project”) economics. Specifically, as outlined in the PFS Announcement, Jindalee / US Elemental intends to pursue potential third-party partnerships (with parties who have the potential to be joint venture partners in the Project) to advance the Project and may pursue other value realization strategies such as a sale or partial sale of the Project or underlying future commodity streams. If it does so, such arrangements may materially reduce Jindalee / US Elemental’s proportionate ownership of the Project and/ or adversely affect Jindalee and US Elemental shareholders’ exposure to the Project economics.

Statements in these Presentation Materials regarding the Company’s business, which are not historical facts, are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. These include, among others, risks and uncertainties related to Mineral Resource and Ore Reserve estimates, production targets, forecast financial information, lithium carbonate prices, capital and operating costs, risks related to results of current or planned exploration activities, changes in market conditions, obtaining appropriate approvals to undertake exploration activities in the portfolio of projects, changes in exploration programs and budgets based upon the results of exploration, future prices of minerals resources; grade or recovery rates; accidents, labour disputes, and other risks of the mining industry; delays in obtaining government approvals or financing or in the completion of development or construction activities; movements in the share price of investments and the timing and proceeds realized on future disposals of investments, force majeure events, as well as those factors detailed in the PFS Announcement or, from time to time, in Jindalee’s interim and annual financial statements and reports, all of which are available for review on ASX at asx.com.au and OTC Markets at otcmrks.com.

Although the Contracting Parties have attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual actions, events or results to differ materially from those described in forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. To the extent permitted by law, the Contracting Parties and their officers, employees, related bodies corporate and agents disclaim all liability, direct, indirect or consequential (and whether or not arising out of the negligence, default, or lack of care of the Contracting Parties and/or any of their agents) for any loss or damage suffered by a recipient or other persons out of, or in connection with, any use or reliance on these Presentation Materials or information. Why Now: U.S. Drive to Secure Domestic Lithium Supply

A MAJOR GLOBAL SUPPLIER

China controls ~70% Of global lithium processing¹ >90% Of LFP battery production capacity¹

~87% of total lithium is consumed by batteries²

Export controls imposed by China would significantly increase supply risk to U.S.³

U.S. STRATEGIC PRIORITY

U.S. imports 75%+ Of lithium-ion batteries (considered by many to be a national security vulnerability)⁵

Batteries are critical for energy independence, national security, economic growth, AI and tech advancement

Lithium Demand Outlook Has Fundamentally Changed

Accelerating Battery Energy Storage Systems (BESS) Demand Fueling Upside Growth Estimate Revisions

Lithium demand for BESS projected to grow 55% in 2026¹

Grid-scale energy storage has emerged as a powerful structural driver of lithium demand, accelerating alongside continued growth in electric vehicles and other battery applications. Lithium demand is now underpinned by multiple durable, policy-resilient growth engines

Energy storage's share of total lithium demand increasing: 13% (2023)² → 23% (2025) → 31% (2026)¹

A significant shift driven by grid-scale storage, renewable integration, and AI data center power requirement

The U.S. installed a record 57.6 GWh of battery energy storage in 2025 (30% increase over 2024)³

SEIA projecting a further jump to 70 GWh in 2026 as AI data center and grid modernization demand accelerates. Meanwhile, China commissioned a record ~189 GWh of new battery energy storage in 2025 alone⁴. Together, these two markets are driving an unprecedented surge in battery-grade lithium demand

Lithium Demand by Usage¹

Demand from the energy storage sector (ESS) is expected to grow steadily from 2024 to 2030.

Increase in Data Center Electricity Consumption

Data centers increasingly depend on lithium-ion battery storage instead of traditional lead-acid battery systems to counter grid instability and power outages³ due to:

- Higher energy density
- Longer lifecycle and lower maintenance
- Faster charging
- Smaller footprint relative to lead-acid systems

Lithium ion battery storage systems mitigate risks associated with grid dependency and promote resilience⁴

Notes:

- Lithium Americas' recent update outlines a phased expansion plan across five stages, targeting a total capacity of 160 ktpa of lithium carbonate.
- Phase 1, currently under development, has a planned capacity of 40ktpa of lithium carbonate, requiring development capital of U.S.$2,930m. The total development capital across all phases is U.S.$12,327m.
- Lithium Americas reports financial, cost, and production metrics based on the full expansion plan over different time horizons, incorporating all five phases, but does not provide standalone metrics for Phase 1.
- Jindalee's PFS, by contrast, considers a single development stage with a capacity of 47.5ktpa of lithium carbonate and does not assume any staged expansions.
- Financial, cost and production for McDermitt are over the project's Economic Evaluation Period alone, not the full 63 year project life (PFS Economic Evaluation Period consists of construction, commissioning and ramp-up, followed by first 40 full years of production).
- Metrics included in table are quoted on life of project basis unless otherwise denoted.
- Inclusive of mineral reserves.

Risk Factors

All references to the “company,” “we,” “us” or “our” refer to Jindalee Lithium Limited (“Jindalee”) and HiTech Minerals, Inc. (the “Company”) and their consolidated entities prior to the Potential Business Combination, and for periods following the closing of the Potential Business Combination refer to NewCo as the combined company and its subsidiaries. The risks presented below are non-exhaustive descriptions of certain of the general risks related to the business of the Company, Constellation and NewCo and the Potential Business Combination, and such list is not exhaustive. The list below has been prepared solely for purposes of inclusion in these Presentation Materials and not for any other purpose. You should carefully consider these risks and uncertainties and should carry out your own diligence and consult with your own financial and legal advisors concerning the risks presented by an investment in the Company and the Potential Business Combination. Risks relating to the business of Constellation, Jindalee, the Company, the Potential Business Combination and the business of NewCo will be disclosed in future documents filed or furnished by Constellation or NewCo with the SEC, including the documents filed or furnished in connection with the Potential Business Combination. The risks presented in such filings will be consistent with SEC filings typically relating to a public company, including with respect to the business and securities of Jindalee, the Company, Constellation and NewCo and the Potential Business Combination, and may differ significantly from, and be more extensive than, those presented below.

Risks Related to Our Business and Our Industry

- Our business operates in the mining exploration and development industry. Our project is at the development stage, and there are no guarantees that development of the project into a mine will occur or that such development will result in the commercial extraction of mineral deposits. In addition, even if an economic mineral deposit is mined, we may not realize profits from our development activities in the short, medium or long term.
- The economic viability of our project and its development remains subject to various factors, including, in the near term, the delivery of a definitive feasibility study which supports the project economics. To date, we have received a positive preliminary feasibility study, which has a lower level of confidence than a definitive feasibility study, but which has resulted in the definitive feasibility study being commissioned in respect of the project. The information presented in these Presentation Materials is based solely on the preliminary feasibility study.
- There can be no assurance that we will deliver a definitive feasibility study that supports the economic viability of the project moving forward or that the assumptions used in the definitive feasibility study to underpin the viability of the project (including, but not limited to, the prices of lithium carbonate) will remain true and correct in the future.
- Our future performance is difficult to evaluate because we have a limited operating history in the mining, energy and resources sector, including in the battery metals industry.
- Our long-term success will depend ultimately on implementing our business strategy and operational plan, as well as our ability to generate revenue, achieve and maintain profitability and develop positive cash flows from our mining activities.
- Our business strategy is to develop the McDermitt Project to produce lithium domestically. Consequently, our growth depends upon the continued growth in lithium demand and in lithium-ion batteries.
- The development and adoption of new battery technologies that rely on inputs other than lithium compounds could significantly impact our prospects and future revenues.
- Our long-term success depends, in part, on our ability to negotiate and enter into sales agreements with, and deliver our product to, third party customers on commercially viable terms. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in securing such agreements.

- Exchange rate fluctuations may materially affect our results of operations and financial condition.
- We may seek to raise further funds through equity or debt financing, joint ventures, production sharing arrangements or other means. Consequently, we depend on our ability to successfully access the capital and financial markets. Any inability to access the capital or financial markets may limit our ability to fund our ongoing operations, execute our business plan or pursue investments that we may rely on for future growth.
- Changes in technology or other developments could adversely affect demand for lithium compounds or result in preferences for substitute products.
- Our possible future revenues will be mainly derived from the sale of lithium and magnesium products. Consequently, our success largely depends on the market price of lithium remaining higher than our costs of any future production (assuming successful exploration and development of the project).
- When compared to many industrial and commercial operations, mining exploration and development projects are high risk and subject to uncertainties. Each mineral resource is unique and the nature of the mineralization, and the occurrence and grade of the lithium, as well as its behavior during mining, can never be wholly predicted. Our mineral resource estimates may be materially different from mineral quantities we may ultimately recover, our life-of-mine estimates may prove inaccurate and market price fluctuations and changes in operating and capital costs may render mineral resources uneconomic to mine.
- The industry in which we operate is subject to domestic and global competition. We have no influence or control over the activities or actions of our competitors, which activities or actions may negatively affect the operating and financial performance of our projects and business.
- If we fail to retain our key personnel or if we fail to attract additional qualified personnel, we may not be able to achieve our anticipated level of growth and our business could suffer.
- Any failure by management to manage growth properly could have a material adverse effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.
- Land reclamation and mine closure may be burdensome and costly.
- Our success depends on developing and maintaining relationships with local communities and stakeholders.
- We are exposed to general economic conditions and the fluctuations of interest and inflation rates may have an adverse effect on our business.
- Our business may be adversely affected by force majeure events outside our control, including labor unrest, civil disorder, war, subversive activities or sabotage, extreme weather conditions, fires, floods, explosions or other catastrophes, epidemics or quarantine restrictions.

Risk Factors

Risks Related to Legal, Compliance and Regulations

- If we receive federal monies, we could become subject to additional federal regulations. This could delay timing and increase costs.
- We will be required to obtain governmental permits and approvals to conduct development and mining operations, a process which is often costly and time-consuming. There is no certainty that all necessary permits and approvals for our planned operations will be granted.
- Our failure to comply with applicable anti-corruption, anti-bribery, anti-money laundering and similar laws and regulations could negatively impact our reputation and results of operations.
- Our operations are subject to environmental, health and safety regulations, which could impose additional costs and compliance requirements, and we may face claims and liability for breaches, or alleged breaches, of such regulations and other applicable laws.
- The impacts of climate change may adversely affect our operations and/or result in increased costs to comply with changes in regulations.
- We face opposition from organizations that oppose mining which may disrupt or delay our mining projects.
- The requirements of being a public company in the U.S. may strain our resources and divert management's attention, and the increases in legal, accounting and compliance expenses that will result from being a public company in the U.S. may be greater than we anticipate.
- Our business could be adversely affected by trade tariffs or other trade barriers.
- We are exposed to possible litigation risks, including mining permit disputes (including in respect of access and/or validity of tenure), environmental claims, occupational health and safety claims and employee claims. Further, we may be involved in disputes with other parties in the future that may result in litigation. Current or future litigation or administrative proceedings could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks Related to Operations

- The development of mining operations at the McDermitt Project is dependent on a number of factors, many of which are beyond our control. If we commence production at the project, our operations may be disrupted by a variety of risks and hazards that could have a material adverse effect on our future operating costs, financial condition and ability to develop and operate a mine.
- The occurrence of significant events against which the Company may not be fully insured could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.
- The threat of global economic, capital markets and credit disruptions pose risks to our business.

Risks Related to Intellectual Property and Technology

- Our failure to protect our intellectual property rights may undermine our competitive position, and litigation to protect our intellectual property rights may be costly.
- We may need to defend ourselves against claims that we infringe, have misappropriated, or otherwise violate the intellectual property rights of others, which may be time-consuming and would cause us to incur substantial costs.
- Any unauthorized access to, disclosure, or theft of personal information we gather, store, or use could harm our reputation and subject us to claims or litigation.
- A failure of our information technology and data security infrastructure could adversely affect our business and operations.

Risks Related to Future Performance and Resource Estimates

- Actual capital costs, operating costs, production and economic returns may differ significantly from those we have anticipated and future development activities may not result in profitable mining operations.
- Mining projects such as ours have no operating history on which to base estimates of future operating costs and capital requirements. Before operations commence, any projections we may produce are based upon estimates and assumptions made at the time they were prepared. If these estimates or assumptions prove to be incorrect or inaccurate, our actual operating results may differ materially from our forecasted results.
- Our resource estimates may change significantly when new information or techniques become available. In addition, by their very nature, resource estimates are imprecise and depend to some extent on interpretations, which may prove to be inaccurate. As further information becomes available through additional fieldwork and analysis, our estimates, if any, are likely to change and these changes may result in a reduction in our resources. These changes may also result in alterations to our development and mining plans, which may, in turn, adversely affect our operations.

Risk Related to Land Access

- The Company may be required to negotiate access arrangements and pay compensation to land owners, local authorities, traditional land users and others who may have an interest in the area covered by tenure. The Company's ability to resolve access and compensation issues may have a negative impact on the future success and financial performance of the Company's operations.

Risk Related to Tenures

- In relation to tenures which the Company has an interest in or will in the future acquire, there may be areas of indigenous owned land. Where such rights exist, the ability of the Company to gain access to such tenures (through obtaining consent of any relevant landowner), or to progress such tenures from the exploration phase to the development and mining phases of operations may be adversely affected.

Risk Related to Sediment-Hosted Lithium Deposit

- The McDermitt Lithium Project is a sediment-hosted lithium deposit and the Company is not aware of any commercially operating lithium sediment presently anywhere in the world. Jindalee has completed a comprehensive metallurgical testwork program as part of the McDermitt Lithium Project Pre-Feasibility Study in November 2024, encompassing all major processing stages from beneficiation through to the production of battery-grade lithium carbonate. While the results of this work provide an increased level of confidence in the technical viability of the proposed flowsheet, further optimisation and pilot-scale testing will be required to finalise process design parameters and confirm the scalability of the flowsheet to commercial production. There remains no assurance that lithium production can ultimately be achieved on an economically viable basis or at all.

Risk Factors

Risks Related to Constellation and the Potential Business Combination

- Constellation, Jindalee, the Company and NewCo may not enter into a binding or definitive agreement relating to the Potential Business Combination, and even if they do, the conditions to complete the Potential Business Combination may not be satisfied or may be waived.
- In order for the Potential Business Combination to close, in addition to other regulatory and governmental approvals that must be obtained by each of Constellation, Jindalee, the Company and NewCo, among others, the shareholders of Jindalee will be required to approve the transaction on the terms set out in the definitive agreement in accordance with Australian corporate law and the listing rules of the Australian Securities Exchange. There can be no guarantee that such approval will be obtained.
- Constellation Sponsor LP (the “Sponsor”) and certain Constellation shareholders affiliated with the Sponsor have agreed to vote in favor of the Potential Business Combination, regardless of how Constellation’s public shareholders vote.
- The Sponsor, certain members of the Constellation Board and management have interests in the Potential Business Combination that are different from or are in addition to public shareholders, which may include direct or indirect ownership of Constellation’s founder shares and/or private placement warrants, each of which will lose their value if an initial business combination is not consummated.
- Constellation’s Board has potential conflicts of interest in recommending that shareholders vote in favor of approval of the Potential Business Combination proposal and approval of the other proposals in connection therewith.
- Our shareholders and Constellation’s shareholders will experience dilution as a consequence of the Potential Business Combination.
- Future resales of NewCo’s outstanding shares may cause the market price of its securities to drop significantly, even if NewCo’s business is doing well.
- We cannot assure you that NewCo’s or Constellation’s stock price will not decline or not be subject to significant volatility.
- The ability of Constellation’s remaining public shareholders to exercise redemption rights with respect to Constellation’s outstanding public shares could increase the possibility that the Potential Business Combination would limit NewCo’s public float following the Potential Business Combination.
- We and Constellation will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions once documentation for the Potential Business Combination is executed.
- Constellation cannot assure you that its due diligence review of our business has identified all material issues or risks associated with us, our business, or the industry in which we operate. Additional information may later arise in connection with the preparation of the registration statement and proxy materials or after completion of the Potential Business Combination. If Constellation’s due diligence investigation of our business was inadequate, then stockholders of Constellation following the Potential Business Combination could lose some or all of their investment.
- There can be no assurance that NewCo following the closing of the Potential Business Combination will be able to comply with the continued listing standards of Nasdaq. Further, there is no guarantee that an active and liquid public market for NewCo’s shares will develop.
- If, following the Potential Business Combination, securities or industry analysts do not publish or cease publishing research or reports about NewCo, its business, or its market, or if they change their recommendations regarding NewCo’s shares adversely, then the price and trading volume of NewCo’s shares could decline.
- NewCo may be unable to obtain additional financing to fund its operations or growth.
- Constellation is an “emerging growth company” within the meaning of the Securities Act, and we believe that NewCo will qualify as an emerging growth company following the Potential Business Combination. Constellation and NewCo intend to take advantage of certain exemptions from disclosure requirements available to emerging growth companies, which could make their securities less attractive to investors and may make it more difficult to compare performance with other public companies.
- We and Constellation will incur significant transaction costs in connection with the Potential Business Combination.
- Following the Potential Business Combination, a small number of shareholders will own a substantial majority of our shares, giving them material influence over the outcome of matters requiring a shareholder vote, including the election of directors and the approval of material matters and their interests may not align with the interest of other shareholders.
- In connection with the Potential Business Combination, Constellation’s sponsor and its officers, directors, advisors or their respective affiliates may elect to purchase Class A ordinary shares from public shareholders, which may reduce the public float of NewCo’s shares.
- Other risks and uncertainties set forth in the section entitled “Risk Factors” and “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” in the registration statement on Form S-4 to be filed in connection with the Potential Business Combination or in other documents filed by Constellation and NewCo with the SEC.

Section 4.14. Proxy/Registration Statement; Company Parent Circular.

(a) The information supplied or to be supplied by SPAC, its Affiliates or their respective Representatives in writing specifically for inclusion in the Proxy/Registration Statement will not, at (a) the time the Proxy/Registration Statement is declared effective, (b) the time the Proxy/Registration Statement (or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto) is first mailed to the SPAC Shareholders, and (c) the time of the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding the foregoing, SPAC makes no representation, warranty or covenant with respect to any information supplied by or on behalf of Company, its Subsidiaries, the Acquisition Entities or their respective Affiliates or Representatives. All documents that SPAC is responsible for filing with the SEC in connection with the Transactions will comply as to form and substance in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act.

(b) The information supplied or to be supplied by SPAC, its Affiliates or their respective Representatives in writing specifically for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Company Parent Circular will not, at (a) the time the Company Parent Circular (or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto) is first dispatched, sent or made available to the shareholders of Company Parent and (b) the time of any meeting of the shareholders of Company Parent convened for the purpose of approving or consenting to the Transactions (or, if approval is sought by written consent, at the time such consent is solicited), contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding the foregoing, SPAC makes no representation, warranty or covenant with respect to any information supplied by or on behalf of the Company, Company Parent, any of their respective Subsidiaries specifically for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Company Parent Circular.

Section 4.15. SEC Filings. SPAC has filed or furnished all statements, forms, reports and documents required to be filed or furnished by it with the SEC, pursuant to the Exchange Act or the Securities Act (collectively, as they have been amended, supplemented or modified since the time of their filing or furnishing through the date of this Agreement, the "SPAC SEC Filings"). Each of the SPAC SEC Filings, as of the respective date of its filing, or as of the date of any amendment or filing that superseded the initial filing, complied in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act applicable to such SPAC SEC Filings. As of the respective date of its filing (or if amended or superseded by a filing prior to the date of this Agreement or the Acquisition Closing Date, then on the date of such filing), the SPAC SEC Filings did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. As of the date of this Agreement, there are no outstanding or unresolved comments in comment letters received from the SEC with respect to any SPAC SEC Filing. To the Knowledge of SPAC, none of the SPAC SEC Filings filed on or prior to the date of this Agreement is subject to ongoing SEC review or investigation as of the date of this Agreement.

There are no separate Contracts or side letters that would cause the description of the Trust Agreement in the SPAC SEC Filings to be inaccurate in any material respect or that would entitle any Person (other than SPAC Shareholders holding SPAC Ordinary Shares (prior to the Acquisition Effective Time) who will have elected to redeem their SPAC Ordinary Shares (prior to the Acquisition Effective Time) pursuant to the SPAC Charter and the underwriters of SPAC’s IPO with respect to deferred underwriting commissions) to any portion of the proceeds in the Trust Account. Prior to the Acquisition Closing, none of the funds held in the Trust Account may be released other than to pay Taxes and payment to SPAC Shareholders who have validly exercised their redemption rights pursuant to the SPAC Charter. There are no Actions pending or, to the Knowledge of SPAC, threatened with respect to the Trust Account. SPAC has performed all material obligations required to be performed by it to date under, and is not in default, breach or delinquent in performance or any other respect (claimed or actual) in connection with, the Trust Agreement, and no event has occurred which, with due notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute such a default or breach thereunder. As of the Acquisition Closing, the obligations of SPAC to dissolve or liquidate pursuant to the SPAC Charter will terminate, and as of the Acquisition Closing, SPAC will have no obligation whatsoever pursuant to the SPAC Charter to dissolve and liquidate the assets of SPAC by reason of the consummation of the Transactions. To the Knowledge of SPAC, as of the date of this Agreement, following the Acquisition Closing, no SPAC Shareholder is entitled to receive any amount from the Trust Account except to the extent such SPAC Shareholder has exercised its SPAC Shareholder Redemption Right. As of the date of this Agreement, assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties contained in Article III and the compliance by each of the Company and the Acquisition Entities with its obligations hereunder, SPAC has no reason to believe that any of the conditions to the use of funds in the Trust Account will not be satisfied or funds available in the Trust Account will not be available to the Surviving Company (as the surviving company in the Initial Merger) on the Acquisition Closing Date.

Section 4.17. Investment Company Act; JOBS Act. Section 4.18. Business Activities.

(a) Since its incorporation, SPAC has not conducted any business activities other than activities related to SPAC’s IPO or directed toward the accomplishment of a Business Combination. Except as set forth in the SPAC Charter or as otherwise contemplated by the Transaction Documents and the Transactions, there is no Contract to which SPAC is a party which has or would reasonably be expected to have the effect of prohibiting or impairing in any material respect any business practice of SPAC or any acquisition of property by SPAC or the conduct of business by SPAC as currently conducted or as contemplated to be conducted as of the Acquisition Closing.

(b) Except for the Transactions, SPAC does not own or have a right to acquire, directly or indirectly, any interest or investment (whether equity or debt) in any corporation, partnership, joint venture, business, trust or other entity. Except for this Agreement and the Transaction Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, SPAC has no material interests, rights, obligations or Liabilities with respect to, and is not party to, bound by or has its assets or property subject to, in each case whether directly or indirectly, any Contract or transaction which is, or would reasonably be interpreted as constituting, a Business Combination.

(c) Except for (i) this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is party and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby (including with respect to SPAC Transaction Expenses and Other Transaction Expenses) and (ii) Contracts with the underwriters of SPAC's initial public offering that are filed as an exhibit to the SPAC SEC Filings, (iii) administrative and operational expenses incurred in the Ordinary Course consistent with SPAC's operations as a blank check company and (iv) Contracts pursuant to which all Liabilities are reflected or reserved against in the SPAC Financial Statements or other financial statements that have been included in the SPAC SEC Filings, SPAC is not party to any Contract with any other Person that would require payments by SPAC after the date hereof in excess of $100,000 in the aggregate for all such Contracts. Section 4.18(c) of the SPAC Disclosure Letter sets forth the true, correct and complete amount of SPAC Loans as of September 3, 2025 and the date of this Agreement.

Section 4.19. OTC Markets Quotation. Prior to January 16, 2024, the SPAC Class A Ordinary Shares, SPAC Warrants and SPAC Units were each registered pursuant to Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act and listed on the NYSE under the symbols "CSTA," "CSTA.W," and "CSTA.U," respectively. As of the date of the Agreement, the SPAC Class A Ordinary Shares, SPAC Warrants and SPAC Units are quoted on the OTC Markets under "CSTAF," "CSTWF," and "CSTUF," respectively. There is currently no Action pending or, to the Knowledge of SPAC, threatened against SPAC by OTC Markets or the SEC with respect to the SPAC Class A Ordinary Shares, SPAC Warrants or SPAC Units.

Section 4.20. Reserved.

Section 4.21. SPAC Related Parties. Except for as set forth in any SPAC SEC Filing, SPAC has not engaged in any transactions with Related Parties that would be required to be disclosed in the Proxy/Registration Statement.

Section 4.22. No Outside Reliance. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, each of SPAC and its equityholders, partners, members and Representatives, including Sponsor and any of its Affiliates, has made its own investigation of the Company and its Subsidiaries. The SPAC acknowledges and agrees that neither the Company nor any of its Affiliates, agents or Representatives is making any representation or warranty whatsoever, express or implied, beyond those expressly given by the Company in Article III, including any implied warranty or representation as to condition, merchantability, suitability or fitness for a particular purpose or trade as to any of the assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is understood that any cost estimates, financial or other projections or other predictions, forecasts or other forward looking information including those related to mining that may be contained or referred to in the Company Disclosure Letter or elsewhere, as well as any information, documents or other materials (including any such materials Made Available (whether or not accessed by SPAC or its Representatives) or reviewed by SPAC) or management presentations that have been or will hereafter be provided to SPAC or any of its Affiliates, agents or Representatives or Investors are not and will not be deemed to be representations or warranties of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Company Shareholders, and no representation or warranty is made as to the accuracy or completeness of any of the foregoing except as may be expressly set forth in Article III. Except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Agreement, SPAC understands and agrees that any assets, properties and business of the Company and any of its Subsidiaries are furnished “as is”, “where is” and subject to and except as otherwise provided in the representations and warranties contained in Article III, with all faults and without any other representation or warranty of any nature whatsoever. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or therein, nothing in this Agreement or any Transaction Document will operate to limit any claim for fraud.

Section 5.13. No Outside Reliance. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, each of the Acquisition Entities, and any of their respective equityholders, partners, members or Representatives has made its own investigation of the Company, its Subsidiaries and that neither the Company nor any of its Affiliates, agents or Representatives is making any representation or warranty whatsoever, express or implied, beyond those expressly given by the Company in Article III, including any implied warranty or representation as to condition, merchantability, suitability or fitness for a particular purpose or trade as to any of the assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is understood that any cost estimates, financial or other projections or other predictions, forecasts or other forward looking information that may be contained or referred to in the Company Disclosure Letter or elsewhere, as well as any information, documents or other materials (including any such materials contained in any "data room" (whether or not accessed by such Acquisition Entity or its Representatives) or reviewed by such Acquisition Entity) or management presentations that have been or will hereafter be provided to such Acquisition Entity or any of its Affiliates, agents or Representatives or Investors are not and will not be deemed to be representations or warranties of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or the Company Shareholders, and no representation or warranty is made as to the accuracy or completeness of any of the foregoing except as may be in any agreement with a third party, (b) result in a violation of applicable Law, including any fiduciary duty, (c) waive the protection of any attorney-client work product or other applicable privilege or (d) result in the disclosure of any sensitive or personal information that would expose the Company to the risk of Liabilities. The Company agrees that it will be responsible for any breach of this Section 6.2 by any of its Controlled Affiliates or any of its or their respective Representatives.

Section 6.3. Acquisition Proposals and Alternative Transactions.

(a) During the Interim Period, the Company will not, and it will cause its Affiliates and its and their respective Representatives not to, directly or indirectly: (i) solicit, initiate, encourage (including by means of furnishing or disclosing information), facilitate, discuss or negotiate, directly or indirectly, any inquiry, proposal or offer (written or oral) with respect to a, or with a view to obtaining a, Company Acquisition Proposal, (ii) afford access to the business, properties, assets, books, records or furnish or disclose any non-public information to any Person in connection with or that could reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Acquisition Proposal, (iii) enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding (including any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, merger agreement, acquisition agreement or other Contract) regarding a Company Acquisition Proposal other than an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement (an “Alternative Acquisition Agreement”), (iv) enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect the ability of the Company and/or its Affiliates to consummate the Transactions in a timely manner, (v) prepare or take any steps in connection with a public offering of any securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, other than in connection with the Transactions, or (vi) otherwise cooperate in any way with, or assist or participate in, or facilitate or encourage any effort or attempt by any Person (other than SPAC and/or its Affiliates) to do or seek to do any of the foregoing or seek to circumvent the Transactions or with a view to obtaining or furthering a Company Acquisition Proposal. Further, no later than twenty-four (24) hours after the date hereof, the Company will and it will cause its Affiliates and its and their respective Representatives to immediately terminate any existing discussions, negotiations and contacts (including terminating all access granted to any such Person and its Representatives to any physical or electronic data room or information (including access to the business, properties, assets, books, records or other non-public information or to personnel of the Company Parent, or the Company or its Subsidiaries)) regarding any Company Acquisition Proposal and request the return or destruction of any non-public information of the Company or its Affiliates provided to any Person regarding any Company Acquisition Proposal.

(b) Except as expressly permitted by this Section 6.3, from and after the date of this Agreement until the receipt of the Required Parent Shareholder Approval, or, if earlier, the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article X, neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof or the Company Parent Board will (i) adopt, approve or recommend, or publicly propose to adopt, approve or recommend, any Company Acquisition Proposal or any offer or proposal that would reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Acquisition Proposal, (ii) withdraw, change or qualify or publicly propose to withhold withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to SPAC, the Company Board Recommendation, (iii) approve, adopt or authorize the Company to enter into any merger agreement, letter of intent or other similar agreement relating to any Company Acquisition Proposal or that would reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Acquisition Proposal, (iv) fail to include the Company Board Recommendation in any the proxy or information statement or similar document delivered to Company Parent shareholders, (v) fail to publicly recommend against any tender offer or exchange offer for the Equity Securities of the Company or any other public Company Acquisition Proposal within five (5) Business Days after the commencement of such offer, or (vi) formally resolve or agree to do or publicly propose to do any of the foregoing (any action set forth in the foregoing clauses (i) to (vi) of this sentence, a “Change of Company Recommendation”) or (viii) cause or permit the Company to enter into any Alternative Acquisition Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Sections 6.3(a) and (b) and, if at any time prior to the receipt of the Required Parent Shareholder Approval (i) the Company has received, after the date of this Agreement, a bona fide unsolicited written Company Acquisition Proposal from a third party not Affiliated with the Company (“Third Party”), (ii) such Company Acquisition Proposal did not otherwise result from a breach of Section 6.3(a) (other than a breach that is immaterial and results from a Company action that was not reasonably anticipated by the Company to result in such breach) and (iii) the Company Parent Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel, based on information then available, that (x) such Company Acquisition Proposal constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal and (y) failing to provide non-public information to or otherwise engaging and negotiating with the Third Party would likely be a breach of the Company Parent Board’s fiduciary or statutory duties under applicable Law, then subject to providing prior written notice of its decision to take such action to SPAC as promptly as practicable after such determination was reached (and in any event, no later than 24 hours thereafter) and after Sections 6.3(d) having been fully complied with, the Company may (1) furnish information with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries to the Third Party making such Company Acquisition Proposal pursuant to one or more confidentiality agreements having provisions that are not materially less restrictive than the confidentiality provisions set forth under the heading “Confidentiality” in the Term Sheet, which under no circumstances restricts the Company or Company Parent from its obligations under this Agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, this Section 6.3(c) and Section 6.3(d)) (it being understood that such confidentiality agreement need not contain any “standstill” or similar provisions or otherwise prohibit the making or amendment of any Company Acquisition Proposal) and (2) participate in discussions or negotiations with the Third Party making such Company Acquisition Proposal regarding such Company Acquisition Proposal; provided, that any information concerning the Company Parent or its Subsidiaries to be provided or made available to any Third Party will, to the extent not previously provided or made available to SPAC, be provided or made available to SPAC concurrently with or promptly following such time (and in any event, no later than twenty-four hours thereafter) as it is provided or made available to such Third Party. For purposes of this Section 6.3, the Company will be deemed to have received a Company Acquisition Proposal if the Company Parent or any of their Affiliates receives a Company Acquisition Proposal.

(d) From and after the date of this Agreement, the Company will promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) notify SPAC in the event that the Company or any of its Affiliates receives any Company Acquisition Proposal. The Company will notify SPAC promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) of a summary of the material terms of the Company Acquisition Proposal, including the proposed consideration and identity of the Person who submitted such Company Acquisition Proposal. The Company will promptly (and in any event within 24 hours after such determination) advise SPAC if the Company or the Company Parent determines to begin providing information or to engage in discussions or negotiations concerning a Company Acquisition Proposal. The Company will notify SPAC promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) of any material modification to the terms of any such proposals.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Sections 6.3, if the Company has received after the date of this Agreement a bona fide written Company Acquisition Proposal that the Company Parent Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel, constitutes a Superior Proposal, and such Company Acquisition Proposal did not result from a breach Section 6.3 (other than a breach that is immaterial and results from a Company action that was not reasonably anticipated by the Company to result in such breach), the Company Parent Board may at any time prior to the receipt of the Required Parent Shareholder Approval, (i) effect a Change of Company Recommendation with respect to such Superior Proposal and/or (ii) terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1(g) to enter into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement, in either case if the Company Parent Board determines in good faith after consultation with its outside counsel and financial advisors that the failure to take such action would be likely to be a breach of its fiduciary duties or statutory duties to the stockholders of the Company Parent and subject to compliance with the requirements of this Section 6.3(e). The Company Parent may not effect a Change of Company Recommendation pursuant to this Section 6.3(e) or terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1(g) to enter into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement, unless the Company has provided to SPAC at least five (5) Business Days' prior written notice (the "Notice Period") of the Company Parent's intention to take such action, which notice will include that (x) after complying in all respects with Section 6.3(a) (other than a breach that is immaterial and results from a Company action that was not reasonably anticipated by the Company to result in such breach), the Company Board and Company Parent Board (or any of their Affiliates) has received a bona fide unsolicited Company Acquisition Proposal that has not been withdrawn, (y) the Company Parent Board concluded in good faith that such Company Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal, and (z) an unredacted copy of such Superior Proposal and all related documentation (including the definitive transaction agreement (and related schedules and exhibits) to be entered into by the Company or Company Parent in respect of such Superior Proposal that are the basis of the Change of Company Recommendation or termination pursuant to Section 10.1(g), the identity of the Person or "group" of Persons making such Superior Proposal and, if applicable and to the extent received by the Company, financing documentation), and:

(i) during the Notice Period, if requested by SPAC, the Company will have, and will have caused its legal and financial advisors to have, engaged in good faith negotiations with the SPAC regarding any amendment to this Agreement proposed in writing by SPAC and intended to cause the relevant Company Acquisition Proposal to no longer constitute a Superior Proposal; and

(ii) the Company Parent Board will have considered in good faith any adjustments and/or proposed amendments to this Agreement (including a change to the price terms hereof) and the other agreements contemplated hereby that may be irrevocably offered in writing by SPAC (the “Proposed Changed Terms”) no later than 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on the last day of the Notice Period (or such other time as mutually agreed by SPAC and the Company in writing) and have determined in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel, that the Superior Proposal would continue to constitute a Superior Proposal and that the failure to take such action would likely constitute a breach of its fiduciary or statutory duties to the shareholders of the Company Parent if such Proposed Changed Terms were to be given effect, taking into account all of the terms and conditions of the Proposed Changed Terms and the Company Acquisition Proposal.

In the event of any material revisions to such Superior Proposal offered in writing by the party making such Superior Proposal (including any change in purchase price), the Company must deliver a new written notice to SPAC and must again comply with the requirements of this Section 6.3(e) with respect to such new written notice.

(f) For purposes of this Agreement:

(i) “Company Acquisition Proposal” means any offer, inquiry, indication of interest or proposal from a Third Party concerning any transaction or series of related transactions under which the Third Party alone or in a group (as defined under Section 13 of the Exchange Act) directly or indirectly (a) acquires or purchases, directly or indirectly, more than twenty percent (20%) of the equity securities or assets, revenue or net income of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as whole (measured by the fair market value thereof as of the date of such purchase or acquisition) (whether by merger, consolidation, recapitalization, purchase or issuance of equity securities, purchase of assets, tender offer or otherwise), (b) is a Competing SPAC that enters into an alternative transaction with the Company or the Company Parent with respect to the Company, (c)(i) acquires control or otherwise acquires or purchases in excess of twenty percent (20%) of the voting power or voting equity securities of the Company (whether by merger, consolidation, racialization, purchase or issues of equity securities, purchase of assets, tender offer or otherwise) that, if consummated in accordance with its terms, would result in such Person or “group” of Persons beneficially owning more than or acquiring voting power in excess of twenty percent (20%) of the total outstanding equity securities of the Company (by vote or economic interests), or (ii) acquires control or otherwise acquires or purchases fifty percent (50%) or more of the voting power (as defined in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)) or voting equity securities of the Company Parent (whether by merger, consolidation, racialization, purchase or issues of equity securities, purchase of assets, tender offer or otherwise) that, if consummated in accordance with its terms, would result in such Person or “group” of Persons beneficially owning more than or acquiring voting power in excess of fifty percent (50%) of the voting power (as defined in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)) or voting equity securities of the Parent Company (by vote or economic interests) (a transaction in this subsection (c)(ii), a “Company Parent Acquisition Transaction”), or (d) a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, in each case, as a result of which the Company Parent ceases to own at least eighty percent (80%) of the total voting equity and voting securities of the Company or the surviving entity (or any direct or indirect parent company thereof), other than, in the case of each of clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d), any such transaction(s) or investment(s) with SPAC and/or any of its Affiliates or the PIPE Financing. For clarity, an equity or similar investment by the Company Parent in the Company will not be considered a “Company Acquisition Proposal”.

(ii) “Company Board Recommendation” means a statement to the effect that Company Parent Board has unanimously recommended that the Company Parent’s shareholders vote in favor of the Transactions at the Company Parent Shareholders Meeting called for the purpose of voting to approve the Acquisition Merger, and that each Company Parent Board director intends to vote all shares of the Company Parent held or controlled by them, or that they direct, in favor of the Acquisition merger, which may be expressed to be in the absence of a Superior Proposal.

(iii) “Superior Proposal” means a bona fide written Company Acquisition Proposal that did not result from a breach by the Company of Section 6.3 (other than a breach that is immaterial and unintentional) and was made by a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Company, substituting in the definition thereof, “in excess of fifty percent (50%)” for each of “in excess of twenty percent (20%)” and “at least eighty percent (80%)”, and that the Company Parent Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, taking into account such factors as the Company Parent Board considers in good faith to be appropriate, (x) reasonably capable of being valued and consummated in accordance with its terms, taking into account all aspects of the Company Acquisition Proposal (including, among other things, the identity of the Third Party making such Company Acquisition Proposal, termination fees, expense reimbursement provisions, financing, market conditions, form of consideration, all financial, regulatory, legal and other aspects of such proposal and the conditionality, timing and certainty of consummation of such proposal), and (y) if completed substantially in accordance with its terms would likely be more favorable to the stockholders of the Company Parent (in their capacity as such) taking into account all aspects (including those items set forth above) of the Company Acquisition Proposal and any modification to such Superior Proposal and the Proposed Changed Terms proposed by SPAC in response to such Company Acquisition Proposal or otherwise and any consequence of such modification.

Any action taken by a Representative of the Company or Company Parent, acting on behalf of, at the direction of, or in concert with the Company or the Company Parent that would be a breach by the Company or the Company Parent of this Section 6.3 will be deemed to constitute a breach by the Company or Company Parent of this Section 6.3.

Section 6.4. D&O Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) From and after the Acquisition Closing, the Surviving Corporation, the Surviving Company and PubCo will jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries, SPAC and any Acquisition Entity (in each case, solely to the extent acting in his or her capacity as such and to the extent such activities are related to the business of the Company, its Subsidiaries, SPAC or such Acquisition Entity, respectively) (the “D&O Indemnified Parties”) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any Action, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Acquisition Closing, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Acquisition Closing, to the fullest extent that the Company, its Subsidiaries, SPAC or such Acquisition Entity, respectively, would have been permitted under applicable Law and its respective Organizational Documents in effect on the date of this Agreement to indemnify such D&O Indemnified Parties (including the advancing of expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law). Without limiting the foregoing, the Surviving Corporation, the Surviving Company and PubCo will, and will cause their Subsidiaries to, (i) maintain for a period of not less than six years from the Acquisition Closing provisions in its Organizational Documents concerning the indemnification and exoneration (including provisions relating to expense advancement) of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries' or SPAC's and each Acquisition Entity's, respectively, former and current officers, directors, employees, and agents that are no less favorable to those Persons than the provisions of the Organizational Documents of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries, SPAC or such Acquisition Entity, respectively, in each case, as of the date of this Agreement and (ii) not amend, repeal or otherwise modify such provisions in any respect that would adversely affect the rights of those Persons thereunder, in each case, except as required by Law.

(b) For a period of six years from the Acquisition Closing, each of PubCo, the Surviving Corporation and the Surviving Company will (and the Surviving Corporation will cause its Subsidiaries to) maintain in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance (each a "D&O Insurance") covering those Persons who are currently covered by the Company's, any of its Subsidiaries', SPAC's or any Acquisition Entity's, respectively, directors' and officers' liability insurance policies (including, in any event, the D&O Indemnified Parties) on terms not less favorable than the terms of such current insurance coverage, except that in no event will PubCo, the Surviving Corporation, its Subsidiaries or the Surviving Company be required to pay an annual premium for such insurance in excess of 300% of the aggregate annual premium payable by the Company, its Subsidiaries, SPAC or such Acquisition Entity, respectively, for such insurance policy for the year ended December 31, 2024, as the case may be; provided, however, that (i) each of PubCo, the Surviving Corporation and the Surviving Company may cause coverage to be extended under the current directors' and officers' liability insurance by obtaining a six-year "tail" policy (each a "D&O Tail") with respect to claims existing or occurring at or prior to the Acquisition Closing and if and to the extent such policies have been obtained prior to the Acquisition Closing with respect to any such Persons, the Surviving Corporation, the Surviving Company and PubCo, respectively, will maintain such policies in effect and continue to honor the obligations thereunder, and (ii) if any claim is asserted or made within such six-year period, any insurance required to be maintained under this Section 6.4 will be continued in respect of such claim until the final disposition thereof. The costs of any D&O Insurance for the period after the Acquisition Closing Date, and the cost of any D&O Tail to the extent in effect following the Acquisition Closing Date, will be borne by PubCo and will not be a SPAC Transaction Expense.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, this Section 6.4 will survive the Acquisition Closing indefinitely and will be binding, jointly and severally, on the Surviving Corporation, the Surviving Company and PubCo and all of their respective successors and assigns. In the event that the Surviving Corporation, the Surviving Company, PubCo or any of their respective successors or assigns consolidates with or merges into any other Person and will not be the continuing or surviving company or entity of such consolidation or merger or transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, the Surviving Corporation, the Surviving Company or PubCo, respectively, will ensure (and each of PubCo, the Surviving Company and the Surviving Corporation will cause its Subsidiaries to ensure) that proper provision will be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation, the Surviving Company or PubCo as the case may be, will succeed to the obligations set forth in this Section 6.4.

(d) The provisions of Section 6.4(a) through (c): (i) are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each Person who is now, or who has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement or who becomes prior to the Acquisition Closing, a D&O Indemnified Party, his or her heirs and his or her personal representatives, (ii) will be binding on the Surviving Corporation, the Surviving Company and PubCo and their respective successors and assigns, (iii) are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such Person may have, whether pursuant to Law, Contract, Organizational Documents, or otherwise and (iv) will survive the consummation of the Acquisition Closing and will not be terminated or modified in such a manner as to adversely affect any D&O Indemnified Party without the consent of such D&O Indemnified Party.

Section 6.5. Notice of Developments. During the Interim Period, the Company will promptly (and in any event prior to the Acquisition Closing) notify SPAC in writing, and SPAC will promptly (and in any event prior to the Acquisition Closing) notify the Company in writing, upon any of the Group Companies or SPAC, as applicable, becoming aware (awareness being determined with reference to the Knowledge of the Company or the Knowledge of SPAC, as the case may be): (a) of the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event the occurrence or non-occurrence of which has caused or is reasonably likely to cause any condition to the obligations of any party to effect the Transactions not to be satisfied or (b) of any notice or other communication from any Governmental Authority which is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the ability of the parties hereto to consummate the Transactions or to materially delay the timing thereof. The delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 6.5 will not cure any breach of any representation or warranty requiring disclosure of such matter or any breach of any covenant, condition or agreement contained in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or otherwise limit or affect the rights of, or the remedies available to, SPAC or the Company, as applicable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any failure to give such notice pursuant to this Section 6.5 will not give rise to any liability of the Company or SPAC or be taken into account in determining whether the conditions in Article IX have been satisfied or give rise to any right of termination set forth in Article X.

Section 6.6. Financial Statements.

(a) The Company will deliver to SPAC, (i) as promptly as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement, and in any event no later than June 30, 2026, the audited consolidated balance sheets of the Company as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, the related audited consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss and cash flows of the Company for the years then ended (the financial statements described in this clause (i), the “Audited Financial Statements”), and (ii) as promptly as reasonably practicable following the date of the applicable period, any other audited or unaudited consolidated balance sheets and the related

The Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Company Post-Signing Financial Statements (x) to be prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods indicated (except, in the case of any audited financial statements, as may be specifically indicated in the notes thereto and subject, in the case of any unaudited financial statements, to normal year-end audit adjustments and the absence of notes thereto), (y) to comply in all material respects with the applicable accounting requirements and with the rules and regulations of the SEC, the Exchange Act and the Securities Act in effect as of the respective dates of delivery (including Regulation S-X or Regulation S-K, as applicable) and (z) contain an unqualified report of the Company's auditor other than with reference to a "going concern" emphasis of matter paragraph.

(b) The Company, SPAC and PubCo will each use its commercially reasonable efforts (i) to assist the other, upon advance written notice, during normal business hours and in a manner such as to not unreasonably interfere with the normal operation of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries, SPAC or PubCo, in preparing in a timely manner any other financial information or statements (including customary pro forma financial statements) that are required to be included in the Proxy/Registration Statement and any other filings to be made by SPAC or PubCo with the SEC in connection with the Transactions and (ii) to obtain the consents of its auditors with respect thereto as may be required by applicable Law or requested by the SEC in connection therewith.

Each of the Company, SPAC and the Acquisition Entities will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the expiration or termination of the waiting, notice or review periods under any applicable Regulatory Approval with respect to the Transactions as promptly as possible after the execution of this Agreement.

(b) With respect to each of the Regulatory Approvals and any other requests, inquiries, Actions or other proceedings by or from Governmental Authorities, each of the Company, SPAC and the Acquisition Entities will (i) diligently and expeditiously defend and use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any necessary clearance, approval, consent or Regulatory Approval under any applicable Laws prescribed or enforceable by any Governmental Authority for the Transactions and to resolve any objections as may be asserted by any Governmental Authority with respect to the Transactions; and (ii) cooperate fully with each other in the defense of such matters. Each of the Company, SPAC and the Acquisition Entities agrees to make all filings, to provide all information required of such party and to reasonably cooperate with each other, in each case, in connection with the Regulatory Approvals; provided, further, that such party will not be required to provide information to the extent that (w) any applicable Law requires it or its Affiliates to restrict or prohibit access to such information, (x) in the reasonable judgment of such party, the information is subject to confidentiality obligations to a third party, (y) in the reasonable judgment of such party, the information is commercially sensitive and disclosure of such information would have a material impact on the business, results of operations or financial condition of such party, or (z) disclosure of any such information would reasonably be likely to result in the loss or waiver of the attorney-client, work product or other applicable privilege.

(c) Subject to Section 11.6, the Company, on the one hand, and SPAC, on the other, will each be responsible for and pay one-half of the filing fees payable to the Governmental Authorities in connection with the Transactions, including such filing fees payable by an Acquisition Entity. (i) As promptly as reasonably practicable after the execution of this Agreement, SPAC, the Acquisition Entities and the Company will prepare, and PubCo will file with the SEC, a Registration Statement (as amended or supplemented from time to time, and including the Proxy Statement, the "Proxy/Registration Statement") relating to (x) the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting to approve and adopt the Transaction Proposals and (y) the registration under the Securities Act of the Registrable Securities. SPAC, the Acquisition Entities and the Company each will use their commercially reasonable efforts to (1) cause the Proxy/Registration Statement when filed with the SEC to comply in all material respects with all Laws applicable thereto and rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC, (2) respond as promptly as reasonably practicable to and resolve all comments received from the SEC concerning the Proxy/Registration Statement, (3) cause the Proxy/Registration Statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable and (4) keep the Proxy/Registration Statement effective as long as is necessary to consummate the Transactions. Prior to the effective date of the Proxy/Registration Statement, the Company, SPAC and PubCo will take all or any action required under any applicable federal or state securities Laws in connection with the issuance of PubCo Common Shares and PubCo Warrants pursuant to this Agreement. Each of the Company, SPAC and PubCo also agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or “Blue Sky” permits and approvals required to carry out the Transactions, and the Company and SPAC will furnish all information respectively, concerning SPAC and the Company, its Subsidiaries and any of their respective members or shareholders as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(ii) As promptly as practicable after finalization and effectiveness of the Proxy/Registration Statement, SPAC will, and will use commercially reasonable efforts to, within ten (10) Business Days of such finalization and effectiveness, mail the Proxy/Registration Statement to the SPAC Shareholders. Each of SPAC, PubCo and the Company will furnish to the other parties all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, officers, directors, managers, shareholders, and other equityholders and information regarding such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable or as may be reasonably requested by any of them or any Governmental Authority in connection with the Proxy/Registration Statement, or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of SPAC, PubCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates to any Governmental Authority (including any relevant U.S. Securities Exchange) in connection with the Transactions. Subject to Section 11.6, the Company, on the one hand, and SPAC, on the other, will each be responsible for and pay one-half of the cost for the preparation, filing and mailing of the Proxy/Registration Statement and other related fees.

(iii) Any filing of, or amendment or supplement to, the Proxy/Registration Statement will be mutually prepared and agreed upon by SPAC, PubCo and the Company. PubCo will advise the Company and SPAC, promptly after receiving notice thereof, of the time when the Proxy/Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order, of the suspension of the qualification of PubCo Common Shares and PubCo Warrants to be issued or issuable in connection with this Agreement for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or of any request by the SEC for amendment of the Proxy/Registration Statement or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the SEC for additional information and responses thereto, and will provide the Company and SPAC a reasonable opportunity to provide comments and amendments to any such filing. SPAC, PubCo and the Company will cooperate and mutually agree upon (such agreement not to be unreasonably conditioned, withheld or delayed), any response to comments of the SEC or its staff with respect to the Proxy/Registration Statement and any amendment to the Proxy/Registration Statement filed in response thereto.

(iv) If, at any time prior to the Initial Merger Effective Time, any event or circumstance relating to SPAC, an Acquisition Entity or their respective officers or directors, should be discovered by SPAC or an Acquisition Entity which should be set forth in an amendment or a supplement to the Proxy/Registration Statement, SPAC or PubCo, as the case may be, will promptly inform the Company. If, at any time prior to the Initial Merger Effective Time, any event or circumstance relating to the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or their respective officers or directors, should be discovered by the Company which should be set forth in an amendment or a supplement to the Proxy/Registration Statement, the Company will promptly inform SPAC and PubCo. Thereafter, SPAC, PubCo and the Company will promptly cooperate in the preparation and filing of an appropriate amendment or supplement to the Proxy/Registration Statement describing or correcting such information and SPAC and PubCo will promptly file such amendment or supplement with the SEC and, to the extent required by Law, disseminate such amendment or supplement to the SPAC Shareholders.

(b) SPAC Shareholders' Approval.

(i) Prior to or as promptly as practicable after the Proxy/Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act, SPAC will establish a record date for, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold an extraordinary general meeting of the SPAC Shareholders (including any adjournment or postponement thereof, the "SPAC Shareholders' Meeting") in accordance with the SPAC Charter to be held as promptly as reasonably practicable and, unless otherwise agreed by SPAC and the Company in writing, in any event not more than thirty-five (35) days following the date that the Proxy/Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act for the purpose of voting on the Transaction Proposals and obtaining the SPAC Shareholders' Approval (including the approval of any adjournment or postponement of such meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the adoption of the Transaction Proposals), providing SPAC Shareholders with the opportunity to elect to exercise their SPAC Shareholder Redemption Right and such other matters as may be mutually agreed by SPAC and the Company. SPAC will use its commercially reasonable efforts (A) to solicit from its shareholders proxies in favor of the adoption of the Transaction Proposals, including the SPAC Shareholders' Approval, and will take all other action necessary or advisable to obtain such proxies and SPAC Shareholders' Approval and (B) to obtain the vote or consent of its shareholders required by and in compliance with all applicable Law, OTC Market rules and the SPAC Charter. SPAC (x) will consult with the Company regarding the record date and the date of the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting prior to determining such dates and (y) will not adjourn or postpone the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting without the prior written consent of Company (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed); provided, however, that SPAC will adjourn or postpone the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting (1) to the extent necessary to ensure that any supplement or amendment to the Proxy/Registration Statement that SPAC or PubCo reasonably determines (following consultation with the Company, except with respect to any Company Acquisition Proposal) is necessary to comply with applicable Laws, is provided to the SPAC Shareholders in advance of a vote on the adoption of the Transaction Proposals, (2) if, as of the time that the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting is originally scheduled, there are insufficient SPAC Shares represented at such meeting

(either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting, (3) if, as of the time that the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting is originally scheduled, adjournment or postponement of the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting is necessary to enable SPAC to solicit additional proxies required to obtain SPAC Shareholders' Approval, (4) to comply with applicable Law or (5) to seek to limit or reverse any redemptions of SPAC Class A Ordinary Shares; provided further, however, that without the prior written consent of the Company (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned), SPAC will not adjourn or postpone on more than two (2) occasions and so long as the date of the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting is not adjourned or postponed more than an aggregate of thirty (30) consecutive days.

(ii) The Proxy/Registration Statement will include a statement to the effect that SPAC Board has unanimously recommended that the SPAC Shareholders vote in favor of the Transaction Proposals at the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting and neither the SPAC Board nor any committee thereof will withhold, withdraw, qualify, amend or modify, or publicly propose or resolve to withhold, withdraw, qualify, amend or modify, the SPAC Board Recommendation.

Section 8.3. Support of Transaction. Without limiting any covenant contained in Article VI, or Article VII (a) the Company will, and will cause its Subsidiaries to, and (b) each of SPAC and the Acquisition Entities will, (i) use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all material consents and approvals of third parties that the Company and any of its Subsidiaries or any of SPAC or any of the Acquisition Entities, as applicable, are required to obtain in order to consummate the Transactions (including the consents and approvals set forth in Section 8.3 of the Company Disclosure Letter), and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to take such other action as may be reasonably necessary or as another party hereto may reasonably request to satisfy the conditions of Article IX (including, in the case of the Company, SPAC and PubCo, the use of commercially reasonable efforts to enforce their respective rights under the PIPE Financing Agreements) or otherwise to comply with this Agreement and to consummate the Transactions as soon as practicable; provided, however, that, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement, including this Article VIII, will require the Company, any of its Subsidiaries, SPAC or any Acquisition Entity or any of their respective Affiliates to (A) commence or threaten to commence, pursue or defend against any Action, whether judicial or administrative, (B) seek to have any stay or Governmental Order vacated or reversed, (C) propose, negotiate, commit to or effect by consent decree, hold separate order or otherwise, the sale, divestiture, licensing or disposition of any assets or businesses of PubCo, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or SPAC, (D) take or commit to take actions that limit the freedom of action of any of PubCo, the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or SPAC with respect to, or the ability to retain, control or operate, or to exert full rights of ownership in respect of, any of the businesses, product lines or assets of PubCo, the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or SPAC or (E) grant any financial, legal or other accommodation to any other Person, including agreeing to change any of the terms of the Transactions.

Section 8.4. Tax Matters.

(a) Each of SPAC, the Acquisition Entities and the Company will (i) use its respective commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Mergers to qualify, and agree not to, and not to permit or cause any of their Affiliates or Subsidiaries to, take any action which to its knowledge would reasonably be expected to prevent, impair or impede the Transactions from qualifying, for the Intended Tax Treatment. Each of SPAC, the Acquisition Entities and the Company will report the Transactions consistently with the Intended Tax Treatment and the immediately preceding sentence unless otherwise required pursuant to a “determination” within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code or a change in applicable Law. The parties will cooperate with each other and their respective tax counsel to document and support the Tax treatment of each of the Mergers as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code (or, in the case of the acquisition Merger, as a contribution under Section 351(a) of the Code).

(b) If, in connection with the preparation and filing of the Proxy Statement/Registration Statement, the SEC requests or requires that Tax opinions be prepared and submitted in such connection, SPAC and the Company will deliver to Kirkland & Ellis LLP and Perkins Coie LLP customary Tax representation letters satisfactory to its counsel, dated and executed as of the date the Proxy Statement/Registration Statement will have been declared effective by the SEC and such other date(s) as determined reasonably necessary by such counsel in connection with the preparation and filing of the Proxy Statement/Registration Statement, and, if required, Kirkland & Ellis LLP will furnish an opinion, subject to customary assumptions and limitations, with respect to the Intended Income Tax Treatment as it applies to the Initial Merger and, if required, Perkins Coie LLP will furnish an opinion, subject to customary assumptions and limitations, with respect to the Intended Income Tax Treatment as it applies to the Acquisition Merger.

(c) Each of the Parties will (and will cause their respective Affiliates to) cooperate fully, as and to the extent reasonably requested by another Party, in connection with the filing of relevant Tax Returns, the issuance of any Tax opinions regarding the Initial Merger or the Acquisition Merger and any Tax audit or proceeding. Such cooperation will include the retention and (upon the other Party’s request) the provision (with the right to make copies) of records and information reasonably relevant to any Tax proceeding or audit, making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder and using commercially reasonable efforts to make available to the pre-Merger shareholders of SPAC information reasonably necessary to compute any income of any such holder (or its direct or indirect owners) arising (i) if applicable, as a result of SPAC’s status as a “passive foreign investment company” within the meaning of Section 1297(a) of the Code or a “controlled foreign corporation” within the meaning of Section 957(a) of the Code for any taxable period ending on or prior to the Closing, including timely providing (A) a PFIC Annual Information Statement to enable such holders to make a “Qualifying Electing Fund” election under Section 1295 of the Code for such taxable period, and (B) information to enable applicable holders to report their allocable share of “subpart F” income under Section 951 of the Code for such taxable period and (ii) under Section 367(b) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder as a result of the Initial Merger.

Section 8.5. Shareholder Litigation. Prior to the Initial Closing Company will promptly advise SPAC, and SPAC will promptly advise the Company and PubCo, as the case may be, of any Action commenced (or to the Knowledge of PubCo or the Knowledge of SPAC, as applicable, threatened) on or after the date of this Agreement against such party, any of its Subsidiaries or any of its directors or officers by any Company Shareholder or SPAC Shareholder relating to this Agreement, the Mergers or any of the other Transactions (any such Action, “Stockholder Litigation”), and such party will keep the other party reasonably informed regarding any such Stockholder Litigation. Other than with respect to any Stockholder Litigation where the parties identified in this sentence are adverse to each other or in the context of any Stockholder Litigation related to or arising out of a SPAC Acquisition Proposal, (a) prior to the Initial Closing, PubCo will give the Company and SPAC a reasonable opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any such Stockholder Litigation (and consider in good faith the suggestions of SPAC in connection therewith) brought against PubCo, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of their respective directors or officers and no such settlement will be agreed to without the Company’s and SPAC’s prior consent (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) and (b) SPAC will give the Company a reasonable opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any such Stockholder Litigation (and consider in good faith the suggestions of the Company in connection therewith) brought against SPAC, any of its Subsidiaries or any of its directors or officers, and no such settlement will be agreed to without the Company’s prior consent (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

Section 8.6. Private Placement.

(a) During the period between the date of this Agreement and the Initial Closing, SPAC and the Company will use reasonable best efforts to obtain additional financing from investors (“PIPE Investors”) to make an investment in PubCo (or SPAC or the Company to be converted into PubCo at Closing) to purchase equity in the aggregate amount (inclusive of the $4.0 million of Sponsor financing, which, for the avoidance of doubt, includes the $1.5 million funded under convertible preferred equity issued by the Company to Sponsor) of $25.0 million (the “PIPE Investment Amount”) by entering into customary subscription agreements in the form and substance and on terms reasonably satisfactory to the Company and SPAC (the “PIPE Financing Agreements”), pursuant to which the PIPE Investors commit to make investments in PubCo (or SPAC or the Company (which will require reasonable consent of SPAC or the Company, as applicable) to be converted into PubCo at Closing) by way of subscribing for equity securities, debt securities or other equity-linked or convertible securities of the Company (the “PIPE Investments” or the “Private Placement”). In the event that one or more PIPE Financing Agreements is entered into by SPAC, PubCo or the Company (the “Financing Entity”) in connection with the Private Placement, (i) the Financing Entity may not modify or waive, or provide consent to modify or waive (including consent to termination, to the extent required), any provisions of any such PIPE Financing Agreement or any remedy thereunder, in each case, without the prior written consent of SPAC, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, and the Company, as applicable, other than immaterial or ministerial modifications or waivers, (ii) the Financing Entity will use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and take reasonable best efforts to do, or cause to be done, all the things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by such PIPE Financing Agreement on the terms and subject to the conditions described therein, including satisfying on a timely basis all conditions and covenants applicable to the Financing Entity and otherwise complying with its obligations thereunder, (iii) if all conditions in any such PIPE Financing Agreement (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but which conditions are then capable of being satisfied) have been satisfied, the Financing Entity will consummate the transactions contemplated by each such PIPE Financing Agreement at the time contemplated in the PIPE Financing Agreement, (iv) the Financing Entity will deliver notices to counterparties to each such PIPE Financing Agreement as required by and in the manner set forth therein in order to cause timely funding in advance of the Acquisition Closing, (v) the Financing Entity will enforce its rights under each such PIPE Financing Agreement to cause the applicable PIPE Investors to fund the amounts set forth therein and (vi) the Financing Entity will provide prompt written notice to the Company if any counterparty to any PIPE Financing Agreement notifies the Financing Entity of any breach of any representation or other agreement contained in any such Financing Agreement by such counterparty.

(b) Prior to the Initial Closing, the Company will, and will cause the Company Parent to, use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide to SPAC, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide, and will use its commercially reasonable best efforts to cause its Representatives to provide, all cooperation reasonably requested by SPAC that is customary in connection with completing the Private Placement (provided, that such requested cooperation does not unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries), which commercially reasonable efforts will include, among other things, the Company's (i) furnishing, reasonably promptly following receipt of a request therefore, information regarding the Company (including information to be used in the preparation of one or more information packages regarding the business, operations, financial projections and prospects of the Company) customary for such financing activities, to the extent reasonably available and subject to disclosure limitation for a public company, (ii) causing the Company Parent's and the Company's senior management and other representatives with appropriate seniority and expertise to participate in a reasonable number of meetings, presentations, due diligence sessions and drafting sessions, (iii) taking all corporate actions, subject to the occurrence of the Initial Closing, reasonably requested by SPAC or any financing sources to permit the consummation of such financing activities, and (iv) cooperating with requests for due diligence to the extent customary and reasonable.

Section 8.7. U.S. Securities Exchange Listing Efforts.

(a) The Company and SPAC will use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause PubCo to satisfy the applicable U.S. Securities Exchange listing requirements by the Acquisition Closing, such as the shareholder distribution requirements relating to Round Lots and Round Lot Holders (each as defined in the applicable U.S. Securities Exchange Listing Rules), including through engaging a third party advisor. To the extent SPAC and the Company mutually determine to engage a Listing Advisor for this purpose, promptly following the date of this Agreement, the Company and SPAC will jointly engage a third party advisor (the "Listing Advisor") with experience in identifying transaction counterparties for transactions that would result in PubCo satisfying applicable U.S. Securities Exchange listing rules, including the shareholder distribution requirements relating to Round Lots and Round Lot Holders (each as defined in the U.S. Securities Exchange Listing Rules).

(b) The Listing Advisor will use commercially reasonable efforts to identify and present to SPAC and PubCo one or more potential transaction counterparties that are willing to participate in a merger or similar transaction (a "Listing Transaction") that, when taken together with PubCo's existing and anticipated shareholder base, would result in PubCo satisfying applicable U.S. Securities Exchange listing rules, including the shareholder distribution requirements relating to Round Lots and Round Lot Holders (each as defined in the applicable U.S. Securities Exchange Listing Rules). SPAC, PubCo, and the Company will consult with each other in good faith regarding the selection of any such counterparty, and no such counterparty will be selected without the prior written consent of SPAC and the Company.

(c) Following the identification and selection of a Listing Transaction counterparty, SPAC and the Company will use commercially reasonable best efforts to negotiate, finalize, and execute a definitive agreement with such counterparty (the “Listing Transaction Agreement”), on terms reasonably satisfactory to SPAC and the Company, providing for the consummation of the Listing Transaction on terms substantially consistent with the purpose of this Section 8.7 and otherwise in compliance with applicable Law. The structure and terms of the Listing Transaction will be mutually agreed upon in good faith by SPAC and the Company.

(d) Each of SPAC, PubCo, the Company and the Acquisition Entities will use commercially reasonable best efforts to cooperate with each other, the Listing Advisor, and any counterparty in connection with the Listing Transaction, including by providing such information and taking such actions as may be reasonably necessary to (i) obtain any required approvals, consents, or orders of any applicable Government Authority, (ii) prepare and file any notices, motions, or other documents required to be filed therewith, (iii) prepare any disclosure regarding the Listing Transaction for inclusion in the Proxy/Registration Statement, and (iv) take all other actions reasonably necessary to consummate the Listing Transaction in accordance with the Listing Transaction Agreement and applicable Law.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if (i) the Listing Transaction contemplated by this Section 8.7 is not reasonably likely to be consummated on a timely basis or on terms reasonably satisfactory to SPAC and the Company, or (ii) SPAC and the Company mutually agree in writing that an alternative method or structure would be more effective or advisable in enabling PubCo to satisfy the applicable U.S. Securities Exchange listing rules described herein, then SPAC, PubCo, and the Company will use commercially reasonable best efforts to pursue such alternative methods or structures in lieu of, or in addition to, the Listing Transaction, on terms mutually agreed upon by SPAC and the Company (an “Alternative Listing Transaction”).

Section 8.8. U.S. Securities Exchange Listing. From the date of this Agreement through the closing of the Initial Merger, PubCo will promptly apply for, and along with SPAC and the Company, will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause, the PubCo Common Shares and public PubCo Converted Warrants to be issued in connection with the Transactions to be approved for listing on NASDAQ or other U.S. Securities Exchange and accepted for clearance by the Depository Trust Company, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Initial Closing Date. Subject to Section 11.6, the Company, on the one hand, and SPAC, on the other, will each be responsible for and pay one-half of the filing fees payable to NASDAQ in connection with the Transactions, including such filing fees payable by an Acquisition Entity.

Section 8.9. Services Agreement. Prior to the Initial Closing Date, Company Parent, the Company and SPAC will use reasonable best efforts to negotiate in good faith a customary and commercially reasonable services agreement, including pricing, with respect to the provision of services and assets from the Company Parent to the Company that are reasonably necessary to operate the Company business and operations and at substantially the same level of quality, timeliness, and priority as such services and assets, unless otherwise reasonably agreed to by SPAC, were provided to the Company during the twelve (12)-month period prior to the Initial Closing Date (the “Services”), which Services will include the third party vendor and other services being provided via agreement or arrangement with the Company Parent.

ARTICLE IX CONDITIONS TO OBLIGATIONS

Section 9.1. Conditions to Obligations of SPAC, the Acquisition Entities and the Company. The obligations of SPAC and the Acquisition Entities to consummate, or cause to be consummated, the Transactions to occur at the Initial Closing, and the obligations of the Company and the Acquisition Entities to consummate, or cause to be consummated, the Transactions to occur at the Acquisition Closing, are each subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions, any one or more of which may be waived (if legally permitted) in writing by the party or parties whose obligations are conditioned thereupon:

(a) The SPAC Shareholders’ Approval and the Company Approval will have been obtained;

(b) The Proxy/Registration Statement will have become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Proxy/Registration Statement will have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose will have been initiated or threatened by the SEC and not withdrawn;

(c) (i) PubCo’s initial listing application with a U.S. Securities Exchange in connection with the Transactions will have been conditionally approved and, immediately following the Acquisition Closing, PubCo will satisfy any applicable initial and continuing listing requirements of such U.S. Securities Exchange and PubCo will not have received any notice of non-compliance therewith, and (ii) the PubCo Common Shares and public PubCo Converted Warrants to be issued in connection with the Transactions will have been approved for listing on a U.S. Securities Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance;

(d) Reserved.

(e) No Governmental Authority will have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Law (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) or Governmental Order that is then in effect and which has the effect of making the Initial Closing or the Acquisition Closing illegal or which otherwise prevents or prohibits consummation of the Initial Closing or the Acquisition Closing (any of the foregoing, a “restraint”), other than any such restraint that is immaterial.

Section 9.2. Conditions to Obligations of SPAC and the Acquisition Entities at Initial Closing. The obligations of SPAC and the Acquisition Entities to consummate, or cause to be consummated, the Transactions to occur at the Initial Closing are subject to the satisfaction of the following additional conditions as of the Initial Closing Date, any one or more of which may be waived in writing by SPAC:

(a) The representations and warranties contained in Section 3.4 (Authorization), Section 3.11(b) (Absence of Changes) will be true and correct in all respects as of the Initial Closing Date as if made at the Initial Closing Date. The representations and warranties contained in Section 3.1 (Organization and Qualification), Section 3.2 (Subsidiaries), Section 3.3(b) (Capitalization), Section 3.18 (Brokers), will be true and correct in all material respects as of the Initial Closing Date as if made at the Initial Closing Date (except with respect to such representations and warranties which speak as to an earlier date, which representations and warranties will be true and correct in all material respects at and as of such date). The representations and warranties contained in Section 3.3(a) (Capitalization) (disregarding any such qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality, “material” or “Company Material Adverse Effect” or any similar qualification or exception) will be true and correct in all respects as of the Initial Closing Date as if made at the Initial Closing Date (except with respect to such representations and warranties which speak as to an earlier date, which representations and warranties (disregarding any such qualifications and exceptions) will be true and correct in all respects at and as of such date) other than de-minimis inaccuracies. Each of the other representations and warranties of the Company and the Acquisition Entities contained in this Agreement will be true and correct as of the Initial Closing Date as if made at the Initial Closing Date (except with respect to such representations and warranties which speak as to an earlier date, which representations and warranties will be true and correct at and as of such date) except for inaccuracies in or the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct that (disregarding any qualifications or exceptions contained therein relating to materiality, “material” or “Company Material Adverse Effect” or any similar qualification or exception) individually or in the aggregate, has not had, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a Company Material Adverse Effect; and

(b) Each of the covenants of the Company to be performed as of or prior to the Initial Closing Date will have been performed in all material respects, including delivery of all of the documentation required under Section 2.4.

(c) Since the date of this Agreement, no Company Material Adverse Effect has occurred that is continuing.

(d) The Company shall have waived in writing its condition set forth in Section 9.4 or the condition shall have been satisfied.

Section 9.3. Conditions to Obligations of the Company at Initial Closing. The obligations of the Company to consummate, or cause to be consummated, the Transactions to occur at the Initial Closing are subject to the satisfaction of the following additional conditions as of the Initial Closing Date, any one or more of which may be waived in writing by the Company:

(a) The representations and warranties contained in Section 4.4 (Authorization) and Section 4.10(b) (Absence of Changes) will be true and correct in all respects as of the Initial Closing Date as if made at the Initial Closing Date. The representations and warranties contained in Section 4.1 (Organization and Qualification), Section 4.2 (Corporate Structure; Subsidiaries), Section 4.13 (Brokers), Section 4.18 (Business Activities) will be true and correct in all material respects as of the Initial Closing Date as if made at the Initial Closing Date (except with respect to such representations and warranties which speak as to an earlier date, which representations and warranties will be true and correct in all material respects at and as of such date). The representations and warranties contained in Section 4.3 (Capitalization) (disregarding any such qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality, “material” or “Company Material Adverse Effect” or any similar qualification or exception) will be true and correct in all respects as of the Initial Closing Date as if made at the Initial Closing Date (except with respect to such representations and warranties which speak as to an earlier date, which representations and warranties (disregarding any such qualifications or exceptions) will be true and correct in all respects at and as of such date), in each case other than de-minimis inaccuracies. Each of the other representations and warranties of SPAC contained in this Agreement will be true and correct as of the Initial Closing Date (except with respect to such representations and warranties which speak as to an earlier date, which representations and warranties will be true and correct at and as of such date) except for inaccuracies in or the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct that (disregarding any qualifications or exceptions contained therein relating to materiality, “material” or “SPAC Material Adverse Effect” or any similar qualification or exception), individually or in the aggregate, has not had, and would not reasonably be expected to have a SPAC Material Adverse Effect; and

(b) Each of the covenants of SPAC and the Acquisition Entities to be performed as of or prior to the Initial Closing Date will have been performed in all material respects, including delivery of all of the documentation required under Section 2.4.

Section 9.4. Conditions to Obligations of the Company at Acquisition Closing. The obligations of the Company to consummate, or cause to be consummated, the Transactions to occur at the Acquisition Closing will be subject to the satisfaction of the additional conditions, any one or more of which may be waived in writing by the Company, that (a) the Initial Merger Effective Time and the Initial Closing will have occurred and (b) the Minimum Cash Condition will have been met.

Section 9.5. Frustration of Conditions. None of SPAC, the Acquisition Entities or the Company may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in this Article IX to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such party’s failure to comply in all material respects with its obligations under Section 8.3.

ARTICLE X TERMINATION/EFFECTIVENESS

Section 10.1. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Transactions abandoned at any time prior to the Initial Merger Effective Time:

- (a) by mutual written consent of the Company and SPAC;
- (b) by written notice from the Company or SPAC to the other if any Governmental Authority will have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Governmental Order which has become final and nonappealable and has the effect of making consummation of the Transactions illegal or otherwise preventing or prohibiting consummation of the Transactions;

(c) by written notice from the Company to SPAC if the SPAC Board or any committee thereof has withheld, withdrawn, qualified, amended or modified, or publicly proposed or resolved to withhold, withdraw, qualify, amend or modify, the SPAC Board Recommendation;

(d) by written notice from SPAC or the Company to the other if the Required Parent Shareholder Approval was not obtained at the Company Parent Shareholders Meeting duly convened therefor or at any adjournment or postponement thereof taken in accordance with this Agreement or the Shareholder Support Agreement;

(e) by written notice from SPAC or the Company to the other if the SPAC Shareholders' Approval will not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at the SPAC Shareholders' Meeting duly convened therefor or at any adjournment or postponement thereof taken in accordance with this Agreement;

(f) by written notice from SPAC to the Company, at any time prior to the receipt of the Required Parent Shareholder Approval, if the Company Parent Board effects a Change of Company Recommendation;

(g) by written notice from the Company to SPAC, at any time prior to the receipt of the Required Parent Shareholder Approval, if the Company Parent Board authorized the Company or the Company Parent to enter into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement after termination of this Agreement, to the extent permitted by and in accordance with the terms of Section 6.3(e); provided, that the Company will prior to or concurrently with, and as a condition of, such termination pay the Company Termination Fee to SPAC pursuant to Section 10.3;

(h) by written notice from SPAC to the Company if there is any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the Company, such that the conditions specified in Section 9.2 would not be satisfied at the relevant Closing Date (a "Terminating Company Breach"), except that, if such Terminating Company Breach is curable by the Company, then for a period of up to 30 days after receipt by the Company of written notice from SPAC of such breach, such termination will not be effective, and such termination will become effective only if the Terminating Company Breach is not cured within such 30-day period, provided that SPAC will not have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1(h) if it is then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement;

(i) by written notice from the Company to SPAC if there is any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of SPAC or any Acquisition Entity set forth in this Agreement set forth in this Agreement, such that the conditions specified in Section 9.3 would not be satisfied at the relevant Closing Date (a "Terminating SPAC Breach"), except that if any such Terminating SPAC Breach is curable by SPAC or such Acquisition Entity, then for a period of up to 30 days after receipt by SPAC of written notice from the Company of such breach, such termination will not be effective, and such termination will become effective only if the Terminating SPAC Breach is not cured within such 30-day period, provided that Company will not have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1(i) if it is then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement;

(j) by written notice from SPAC or the Company to the other, if the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not have been consummated on or prior to January 9, 2027 (the “Outside Date”); provided that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.1(j) will not be available to any party whose breach of any provision of this Agreement primarily caused or resulted in the failure of the transactions to be consummated by such time.

Section 10.2. Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 10.1, this Agreement will forthwith become void and have no effect, without any liability on the part of any party hereto or its respective Affiliates, officers, directors or shareholders, other than liability of the Company, SPAC or any Acquisition Entity, as the case may be, for actual fraud or for any willful and material breach of this Agreement occurring prior to such termination, except that the provisions of this Section 10.2, Section 10.3, Section 8.1(c), the last sentence of Section 8.2(a)(ii) and Article XI will survive any termination of this Agreement.

Section 10.3. Company Termination Amount.

(a) If this Agreement is terminated (i) by SPAC or the Company pursuant to Section 10.1(d) (x) if the Company Parent effected a Change of Company Recommendation prior to the Company Parent Shareholders Meeting at which a vote for the Required Parent Shareholder Approval was actually taken or (y) as a result of the failure to receive the Required Parent Shareholder Approval following such time as a Company Parent Acquisition Transaction occurred at the Company Parent (where for purposes of this Section 10.3(a)(i)(y), the references to 50% in the definition of Company Parent Acquisition Transaction shall be replaced with 35%), (ii) by SPAC pursuant to Section 10.(f) or (iii) by the Company pursuant to Section 10.1(g), then the Company will pay to SPAC its reasonable and documented expenses incurred in connection with the Transactions through the date this Agreement is terminated, which will not exceed $6,000,000 (the “Company Termination Amount”).

(b) All payments under this Section 10.3 will be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated in writing by SPAC within two Business Days following the submission of reasonable documentation supporting the expense reimbursement.

(c) Each of the parties acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 10.3 are an integral part of the Transactions, and that without these agreements, SPAC and the Company would not enter into this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI MISCELLANEOUS

Section 11.1. Trust Account Waiver. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the Company and each Acquisition Entity acknowledges that it has read the publicly filed final prospectus of SPAC, filed with the SEC on January 26, 2021 (File No. 333-39945), including the Trust Agreement, and understands that SPAC has established the trust account described therein (the “Trust Account”) for the benefit of SPAC’s public shareholders and that disbursements from the Trust Account are available only in the limited circumstances set forth therein. The Company and each Acquisition Entity further acknowledges and agrees that SPAC's sole assets consist of the cash proceeds of SPAC's initial public offering (the "IPO") and private placements of its securities occurring simultaneously with the IPO, and that substantially all of these proceeds have been deposited in the Trust Account for the benefit of its public shareholders. Accordingly, the Company (on behalf of itself and its Affiliates) and each Acquisition Entity hereby waives any past, present or future claim of any kind arising out of this Agreement against, and any right to access, the Trust Account, any trustee of the Trust Account or SPAC, to collect from the Trust Account any monies that may be owed to them by SPAC or any of its Affiliates for any reason whatsoever, and will not seek recourse against the Trust Account at any time for any reason whatsoever, including for any knowing and intentional breach by any of the parties to this Agreement of any of its representations or warranties as set forth in this Agreement, or such party's material breach of any of its covenants or other agreements set forth in this Agreement, which material breach constitutes, or is a consequence of, a purposeful act or failure to act by such party with the knowledge that the taking of such act or failure to take such act would cause a material breach of this Agreement. This Section 11.1 will survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

Section 11.2. Waiver. Any party to this Agreement may, at any time prior to the Acquisition Closing, by action taken by its board of directors or officers or Persons thereunto duly authorized, (a) extend the time for the performance of the obligations or acts of the other parties hereto, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties (of another party hereto) that are contained in this Agreement or (c) waive compliance by the other parties hereto with any of the agreements or conditions contained in this Agreement, but such extension or waiver will be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by the party granting such extension or waiver.

Section 11.3. Notices. All general notices, demands or other communications required or permitted to be given or made hereunder will be in writing and delivered personally or sent by courier or sent by registered post or sent by electronic mail to the intended recipient thereof at its address or at its email address set out below (or to such other address or email address as a party may from time to time notify the other parties). Any such notice, demand or communication will be deemed to have been duly served (a) if given personally or sent by courier, upon delivery during normal business hours at the location of delivery or, if later, then on the next Business Day after the day of delivery; (b) if sent by electronic mail during normal business hours at the location of delivery, immediately, or, if later, then on the next Business Day after the day of delivery; (c) the third Business Day following the day sent by reputable international overnight courier (with written confirmation of receipt), and (d) if sent by registered post, five days after posting. Section 11.4. Assignment. No party hereto will assign this Agreement or any part hereof without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto and any such transfer without prior written consent will be void. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

Section 11.5. Rights of Third Parties. Nothing expressed or implied in this Agreement is intended or will be construed to (a) confer upon or give any Person (including any equityholder, any current or former director, manager, officer, employee or independent contractor of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or any participant in any Benefit Plan or other employee benefit plan, agreement or other arrangement (or any dependent or beneficiary thereof)), other than the parties hereto, any right or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement, (b) establish, amend or modify any benefit or compensation plan, program, policy, agreement or arrangement or (c) limit the right of SPAC, the Company, any Acquisition Entity or their respective Affiliates to amend, terminate or otherwise modify any Benefit Plan or other benefit or compensation plan, policy, agreement or other arrangement following the Acquisition Closing; provided, however, that (i) the D&O Indemnified Parties (and their successors, heirs and representatives) are intended third-party beneficiaries of, and may enforce, Section 6.4, and (ii) the Non-Recourse Parties (and their respective successors, heirs and representatives), are intended third-party beneficiaries of, and may enforce, Section 11.17.

Section 11.6. Expenses. Except as set forth in Sections 8.1(c), Section 8.2(a)(i), and Section 10.3, each party hereto will be responsible for and pay its own expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Transactions, including all fees of its legal counsel, financial advisers and accountants; provided, however, that if the Acquisition Closing will occur, the Surviving Company will pay or cause to be paid (i) Transfer Taxes and (ii) all loan amounts elected to be settled in cash by Company Parent and all expenses described in and in accordance with Section 2.4(c).

Section 11.7. Governing Law. This Agreement, and any claim or cause of action hereunder based upon, arising out of or related to this Agreement (whether based on law, in equity, in contract, in tort or any other theory) or the negotiation, execution, performance or enforcement of this Agreement, will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of laws that would otherwise require the application of the law of any other state (provided that the fiduciary duties of the SPAC Board and the Initial Merger and any right to or exercise of any appraisal and dissenters' rights under the laws of the Cayman Islands with respect to the Initial Merger, will in each case be governed by the laws of the Cayman Islands and that that the fiduciary duties of the Company Board and the Acquisition Merger will in each case be governed by the laws of the State of Nevada).

Section 11.8. Consent to Jurisdiction. THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY SUBMIT TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE COURT OF CHANCERY OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE (OR, TO THE EXTENT SUCH COURT DOES NOT HAVE SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION, THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, OR THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE) SOLELY IN RESPECT OF THE INTERPRETATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, AND HEREBY WAIVE, AND AGREE NOT TO ASSERT, AS A DEFENSE IN ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING FOR INTERPRETATION OR ENFORCEMENT HEREOF OR THAT SUCH ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING MAY NOT BE BROUGHT OR IS NOT MAINTAINABLE IN SAID COURTS OR THAT VENUE THEREOF MAY NOT BE APPROPRIATE OR THAT THIS AGREEMENT MAY NOT BE ENFORCED IN OR BY SUCH COURTS, AND THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY

AGREE THAT ALL CLAIMS WITH RESPECT TO SUCH ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING WILL BE HEARD AND DETERMINED BY SUCH A DELAWARE STATE OR FEDERAL COURT. THE PARTIES HEREBY CONSENT TO AND GRANT ANY SUCH COURT JURISDICTION OVER THE PERSON OF SUCH PARTIES AND OVER THE SUBJECT MATTER OF SUCH DISPUTE AND AGREE THAT MAILING OF PROCESS OR OTHER PAPERS IN CONNECTION WITH SUCH ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING IN THE MANNER PROVIDED IN SECTION 11.3 OR IN SUCH OTHER MANNER AS MAY BE PERMITTED BY LAW WILL BE VALID AND SUFFICIENT SERVICE THEREOF. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER; (II) SUCH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE FOREGOING WAIVER; (III) SUCH PARTY MAKES THE FOREGOING WAIVER VOLUNTARILY AND (IV) SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVER AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 11.8.

Section 11.9. Headings; Counterparts. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and will not be considered a part of or affect the construction or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, and by different parties in separate counterparts, with the same effect as if all parties hereto had signed the same document, but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument. Copies of executed counterparts of this Agreement transmitted by electronic transmission (including by email or in .pdf format) or facsimile as well as electronically or digitally executed counterparts (such as DocuSign) will have the same legal effect as original signatures and will be considered original executed counterparts of this Agreement.

Section 11.10. Disclosure Letters. The Disclosure Letters (including, in each case, any section thereof) referenced in this Agreement are a part of this Agreement as if fully set forth herein. All references in this Agreement to the Disclosure Letters (including, in each case, any section thereof) will be deemed references to such parts of this Agreement, unless the context will otherwise require. Any disclosure made by a party in the applicable Disclosure Letter, or any section thereof, with reference to any section of this Agreement or section of the applicable Disclosure Letter will be deemed to be a disclosure with respect to such other applicable sections of this Agreement or sections of the applicable Disclosure Letter to which it is reasonably apparent on the face of such disclosure that such disclosure is responsive to such other section of this Agreement or section of the applicable Disclosure Letter. Certain information set forth in the Disclosure Letters is included solely for informational purposes and may not be required to be disclosed pursuant to this Agreement. The disclosure of any information will not be deemed to constitute an acknowledgment that such information is required to be disclosed in connection with the representations and warranties made in this Agreement, nor will such information be deemed to establish a standard of materiality or that the facts underlying such information constitute a Company Material Adverse Effect or a SPAC Material Adverse Effect, as applicable.

Section 11.11. Entire Agreement. This Agreement (together with the Disclosure Letters) and the other Transaction Documents constitute the entire agreement among the parties to this Agreement relating to the Transactions and supersede any other agreements, whether written or oral, that may have been made or entered into by or among any of the parties hereto or any of their respective Subsidiaries relating to the Transactions (including the Summary of Certain Proposed Terms and Conditions between SPAC and the Company, dated as of November 3, 2025). No representations, warranties, covenants, understandings, agreements, oral or otherwise, relating to the Transactions exist between such parties except as expressly set forth in the Transaction Documents.

Section 11.12. Amendments. This Agreement may be amended or modified in whole or in part prior to the Initial Merger Effective Time, only by a duly authorized agreement in writing in the same manner as this Agreement, which makes reference to this Agreement and which will be executed by the Company and the SPAC; provided, however, that after the Company Approval or the SPAC Shareholders' Approval has been obtained, there will be no amendment or waiver that by applicable Law requires further approval by the shareholders of the Company or the SPAC Shareholder, respectively, without such approval having been obtained.

Section 11.13. Publicity.

(a) All press releases or other public communications relating to the Transactions, and the method of the release for publication thereof, will prior to the Acquisition Closing, be subject to the prior mutual approval of SPAC and the Company; provided, that no such party will be required to obtain consent pursuant to this Section 11.13(a) to the extent any proposed release or statement is substantially equivalent to the information that has previously been made public without breach of the obligation under this Section 11.13(a).

(b) The restriction in Section 11.13(a) will not apply to the extent the public announcement is required by applicable securities Law, any Governmental Authority or stock exchange rule; provided, however, that in such an event, the party making the announcement will, to the extent practicable, use its commercially reasonable efforts to consult with the other party in advance as to its form, content and timing.

Section 11.14. Confidentiality. The existence and terms of this Agreement are confidential and may not be disclosed by either party hereto, their respective Affiliates or any Representatives of any of the foregoing, and will at all times be considered confidential and treated with the same degree of care that such party uses to protect its own confidential and proprietary information of similar nature and importance (but in no event less than reasonable care) to protect the confidentiality of such information. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the preceding sentence, each party will be permitted to disclose Confidential Information, including the Transaction Documents, the fact that the Transaction Documents have been signed and the status and terms of the Transactions to its existing or potential Affiliates, joint ventures, joint venture partners, shareholders, lenders, underwriters, financing sources and any Governmental Authority (including the applicable U.S. Securities Exchange), and to the extent required, in regulatory filings, and their respective Representatives; provided that such parties entered into customary confidentiality agreements or are otherwise bound by fiduciary or other duties to keep such information confidential.

Section 11.15. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect. The parties hereto further agree that if any provision contained in this Agreement is, to any extent, held invalid or unenforceable in any respect under the Laws governing this Agreement, they will take any actions necessary to render the remaining provisions of this Agreement valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by Law and, to the extent necessary, will amend or otherwise modify this Agreement to replace any provision contained in this Agreement that is held invalid or unenforceable with a valid and enforceable provision giving effect to the intent of the parties hereto.

Section 11.16. Enforcement. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties hereto will be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to specific enforcement of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, in addition to any other remedy to which any party is entitled at law or in equity. In the event that any Action will be brought in equity to enforce the provisions of this Agreement, no party will allege, and each party hereby waives the defense, that there is an adequate remedy at law, and each party agrees to waiver any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection therewith.

Section 11.17. Non-Recourse. This Agreement may only be enforced against, and any claim or cause of action based upon, arising out of, or related to this Agreement or the Transactions may only be brought against, the Persons that are expressly named as parties hereto and then only with respect to the specific obligations set forth herein with respect to such party. Except to the extent a party hereto (and then only to the extent of the specific obligations undertaken by such party to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document), (i) no past, present or future director, officer, employee, incorporator, member, partner, shareholder, stockholder, Affiliate, agent, attorney, advisor or other Representative of any party hereto and (ii) no past, present or future director, officer, employee, incorporator, member, partner, shareholder, stockholder, Affiliate, agent, attorney, advisor or other Representative of any of the foregoing will have any liability (whether in contract, tort, equity or otherwise) for any one or more of the representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or other obligations or liabilities of any one or more of the Company, any Acquisition Entity or SPAC under this Agreement or for any claim based on, arising out of, or related to this Agreement or the Transactions (each of the Persons identified in the foregoing sub-clauses (a) or (b), a “Non-Recourse Party”, and collectively, the “Non-Recourse Parties”).

Section 11.18. Non-Survival of Representations, Warranties and Covenants. Except as otherwise contemplated by Section 10.2, the representations, warranties, covenants, obligations or other agreements in this Agreement or in any certificate (including confirmations therein), statement or instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement, including any rights arising out of any breach of such representations, warranties, covenants, obligations, agreements and other provisions, will not survive the Acquisition Closing and will terminate and expire upon the occurrence of the Acquisition Closing (and there will be no liability after the Acquisition Closing in respect thereof), except for (a) those covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement that by their terms expressly apply in whole or in part after the Acquisition Closing, and then only with respect to any breaches occurring after the Acquisition Closing and (b) this Article XI.

Section 11.19. Conflicts and Privilege.

(a) The Company, SPAC and the Acquisition Entities, on behalf of their respective successors and assigns, hereby agree that, in the event a dispute with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby arises after the Acquisition Closing between or among (x) the Sponsor, the shareholders or holders of other equity interests of SPAC or the Sponsor or any of their respective directors, members, partners, officers, employees or Affiliates (other than SPAC, PubCo or the Surviving Corporation) (collectively, the “Constellation Group”), on the one hand, and (y) PubCo, the Surviving Company or any member of the Company Parent Group, on the other hand, any legal counsel, including Kirkland & Ellis LLP (“K&E”), that represented SPAC or the Sponsor prior to the Acquisition Closing may represent the Sponsor or any other member of the Constellation Group, in such dispute even though the interests of such Persons may be directly adverse to PubCo or the Surviving Company, and even though such counsel may have represented SPAC in a matter substantially related to such dispute, or may be handling ongoing matters for PubCo, the Surviving Company or the Sponsor. The Company, SPAC and the Acquisition Entities, on behalf of their respective successors and assigns (including, after the Acquisition Closing, the Surviving Corporation), further agree that, as to all legally privileged communications prior to the Acquisition Closing (made in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution, delivery and performance under, or any dispute or Action arising out of or relating to, this Agreement, any Transaction Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby) between or among SPAC, the Sponsor or any other member of the Constellation Group, on the one hand, and K&E, on the other hand, the attorney/client privilege and the expectation of client confidence will survive the Mergers and belong to the Constellation Group after the Acquisition Closing, and will not pass to or be claimed or controlled by PubCo or the Surviving Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any privileged communications or information shared by the Company prior to the Acquisition Closing with SPAC or the Sponsor under a common interest agreement will remain the privileged communications or information of PubCo, the Surviving Company and the Surviving Corporation.

(b) The Company, SPAC and the Acquisition Entities, on behalf of their respective successors and assigns, hereby agree that, in the event a dispute with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby arises after the Acquisition Closing between or among (x) the Company Parent, the shareholders or holders of other equity interests of the Company and Company Parent or any of their respective directors, members, partners, officers, employees or Affiliates (other than PubCo) (collectively, the “Company Parent Group”), on the one hand, and (y) PubCo, the Surviving Corporation or any member of the Constellation Group, on the other hand, any legal counsel, including Perkins Coie LLP (“Perkins”) that represented the Company Parent Group prior to the Acquisition Closing may represent any member of the Company Parent Group in such dispute even though the interests of such Persons may be directly adverse to PubCo and the Surviving Corporation, and even though such counsel may have represented the Company Parent Group in a matter substantially related to such dispute, or may be handling ongoing matters for PubCo and the Surviving Corporation. The Company, SPAC and the Acquisition Entities, on behalf of their respective successors and assigns (including, after the Acquisition Closing, the Surviving Corporation), further agree that, as to all legally privileged communications prior to the Acquisition Closing (made in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution, delivery and performance under, or any dispute or Action arising out of or relating to, this Agreement, any Transaction Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby) between or among the Company or any member of the Company Parent Group, on the one hand, and Perkins, on the other hand, the attorney/client privilege and the expectation of client confidence will survive the Mergers and belong to the Company Parent Group after the Acquisition Closing, and will not pass to or be claimed or controlled by PubCo or the Surviving Corporation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any privileged communications or information shared by SPAC or Sponsor prior to the Acquisition Closing with the Company or the Company Parent Group under a common interest agreement will remain the privileged communications or information of PubCo or the Surviving Corporation.
