

Market Update

13 April 2026

Aland Equity Group Limited (ASX:AEG) (AEG or Company) provides the following market update:

Aland Australian Equities Fund (AAEF)

As part of the continued development of AEG's diversified funds management platform, the Equity Story Growth Fund has been renamed the Aland Australian Equities Fund.

The Company has commenced its distribution strategy to accelerate growth in funds under management (FUM) in the AAEF, following the finalisation of its engagement with an external research ratings agency and a number of investor meetings.

The AAEF aims to outperform the S&P/ASX All Ordinaries Index after fees through a concentrated portfolio of Australian listed equities. The AAEF has delivered cumulative returns of 56.16% since inception (1 January 2023). Further information is available on the Company's website.

Equity Story Subscription Business

The Company has continued to grow the Equity Story subscription business from 800 to 1,200 members over the past three months. The low-cost digital subscription model is attracting new and renewing members and is building a scalable base of recurring revenue.

This growth is expected to support FUM and distribution growth across AEG's equities and property funds platforms.

Property Funds Management Business

AEG has made strong progress expanding into property funds management. The Company has been working with its advisors and landowners to finalise the structure for launch of the property funds platform.

AEG anticipates this will be finalised shortly and will update the market in due course.

Managing Director, David Nolan commented:

"The continued development of the Company's equities funds management and subscription businesses is highly encouraging. The Aland Australian Equities Fund has a proven track record and we are confident it will continue to grow FUM and become a core pillar of the Company's funds management business."

“The Board is particularly excited by the progress toward the launch of the property funds management platform, which we see as a compelling opportunity to drive long-term shareholder value. We look forward to updating the market as the structure is finalised.”

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board of Aland Equity Group Limited.
