

Successful pricing of new convertible notes offering and concurrent repurchase

Successful pricing of A$300m new convertible notes and concurrent repurchase of A$293m existing 2029 convertible notes

- New Hope Corporation Limited ABN 38 010 653 844 (ASX: NHC) (New Hope or the Company) is pleased to announce that it has successfully priced A$300 million 2.625% senior unsecured convertible notes due 2032¹ (New Notes) (Offering) and the concurrent repurchase (Concurrent Repurchase) of A$293.3 million principal amount of its existing senior unsecured convertible notes due 2029² (Existing Notes).
- Settlement of the Offering and Concurrent Repurchase is expected on or about 22 April 2026. The New Notes will mature on 22 April 2032¹ unless earlier redeemed, repurchased or converted in accordance with their terms and conditions.
- New Hope CFO, Rebecca Rinaldi, commented:

“We are pleased with the continued support from the convertible market. This transaction underscores our ability to access capital at competitive and flexible terms, and we are delighted to have proactively addressed the refinancing of our existing notes, achieving a higher conversion price and lower interest rate.”

New Notes Offering

The New Notes are convertible into fully paid ordinary shares in New Hope (Ordinary Shares) or, at the option of New Hope, will be cash-settled. The initial conversion price of the New Notes is A$7.41 per Ordinary Share, which represents a conversion premium of 37.5% over the Reference Share Price, being the closing price on 15 April 2026.

The net proceeds of the Offering are expected to be approximately A$294.2 million after paying transaction costs. New Hope intends to use these net proceeds to fund the Concurrent Repurchase.

A summary of the key terms and conditions of the New Notes is set out in the Appendix of this announcement.

Concurrent Repurchase

Concurrent with the Offering, New Hope successfully completed the reverse book-build process to determine the quantum of the Concurrent Repurchase.

Under the reverse book-build process, A$293.3 million principal amount of the Existing Notes will be repurchased by New Hope for an aggregate repurchase consideration of

1) New Notes investors have a put option on 22 April 2030
2) Existing Notes investors have a put option on 12 July 2027

A$333.5 million, funded by the net proceeds of the Offering and from existing cash. The average repurchase price per Existing Note was determined to be equal to A$113,700 per A$100,000 principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest up to, but excluding, the settlement date of the Concurrent Repurchase. The Existing Notes to be repurchased by New Hope will be cancelled in accordance with their terms and conditions.

Following the Concurrent Repurchase, approximately A$6.7 million in aggregate principal amount of the Existing Notes remain outstanding. New Hope intends to exercise its right to redeem the remaining Existing Notes at their principal amount (plus accrued and unpaid interest to the relevant date fixed for redemption) in accordance with their terms and conditions prior to the redemption date for the Existing Notes.

Additional Information

Settlement of the Offering and Concurrent Repurchase is expected on or about 22 April 2026 and is subject to satisfaction of customary conditions precedent.

Jefferies (Australia) Pty Ltd (Jefferies) acted as Sole Global Coordinator and Jefferies and Jarden Australia Pty Ltd (Jarden) acted as Joint Lead Managers on the Offering (Joint Lead Managers).
