Applications for Securities offered pursuant to this Prospectus can only be made by an original Entitlement and Acceptance Form or Shortfall Application Form.

This Prospectus is a transaction specific prospectus for an offer of continuously quoted securities (as defined in the Corporations Act) and has been prepared in accordance with section 713 of the Corporations Act. It does not contain the same level of disclosure as an initial public offering prospectus and is only required to contain information in relation to the effect of the issue of securities on a company and the rights attaching to the securities. It is not necessary to include general information in relation to all of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses or prospects of the issuing company.

Representations contained in this Prospectus are made taking into account that the Company is a disclosing entity for the purposes of the Corporations Act and certain matters are publicly available information or may reasonably be expected to be known to investors and professional advisers whom prospective investors may consult.

Forward-looking statements

This Prospectus contains forward-looking statements which are identified by words such as 'may', 'could', 'believes', 'estimates', 'targets', 'expects', or 'intends' and other similar words that involve risks and uncertainties.

These statements are based on an assessment of present economic and operating conditions, and on a number of assumptions regarding future events and actions that, as at the date of this Prospectus, are expected to take place.

Such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other important factors, many of which are beyond the control of the Company, the Directors and the Company's management.

The Company cannot and does not give any assurance that the results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in this Prospectus will actually occur and investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements.

These forward-looking statements are subject to various risk factors that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the results expressed or anticipated in these statements. These risk factors are set out in Section 5.

Overseas shareholders

This Offer does not, and is not intended to, constitute an offer in any place or jurisdiction in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer or to issue this Prospectus.

It is not practicable for the Company to comply with the securities laws of overseas jurisdictions having regard to the number of overseas Shareholders, the number and value of Shares these Shareholders would be offered and the cost of complying with regulatory requirements in each relevant jurisdiction. Accordingly, the Offer is not being extended and Securities will not be issued to Shareholders with a registered address which is outside Australia, New Zealand, Cayman Islands, Hong Kong, India, Germany, Malaysia, the United Arab Emirates, the United Kingdom or the United States.

For further information on overseas Shareholders please refer to Section 2.9.

Continuous disclosure obligations

The Company is a "disclosing entity" (as defined in section 111AC of the Corporations Act) for the purposes of section 713 of the Corporations Act and, as such, is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations. Specifically, like all listed companies, the Company is required to continuously disclose any information it has to the market which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or the value of the Securities.

This Prospectus is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX and does not include all of the information that would be included in a prospectus for an initial public offering of securities in an entity that is not already listed on a stock exchange. Investors should therefore have regard to the other publicly available information in relation to the Company before making a decision whether or not to invest.

Having taken such precautions and having made such enquiries as are reasonable, the Company believes that it has complied with the general and specific requirements of ASX as applicable from time to time throughout the three months before the issue of this Prospectus which required the Company to notify ASX of information about specified events or matters as they arise for the purpose of ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by ASX.

Please refer to Section 6.2 for further details.

Company Website

No documents or other information available on the Company's website is incorporated into this Prospectus by reference.

Financial forecasts

The Directors have considered the matters set out in ASIC Regulatory Guide 170 and believe that they do not have a reasonable basis to forecast future earnings on the basis that the operations of the Company are inherently uncertain. Accordingly, any forecast or projection information would contain such a broad range of potential outcomes and possibilities that it is not possible to prepare a reliable best estimate forecast or projection.

Clearing House Electronic Sub-Register System (CHES) and Issuer Sponsorship

The Company will apply to participate in CHES, for those investors who have, or wish to have, a sponsoring stockbroker. Investors who do not wish to participate through CHES will be issuer sponsored by the Company.

Electronic sub-registers mean that the Company will not be issuing certificates to investors. Instead, investors will be provided with statements (similar to a bank account statement) that set out the number of Securities issued to them under this Prospectus. The notice will also advise holders of their Holder Identification Number or Security Holder Reference Number and explain, for future reference, the sale and purchase procedures under CHES and issuer sponsorship.

Electronic sub-registers also mean ownership of securities can be transferred without having to rely upon paper documentation. Further monthly statements will be provided to holders if there have been any changes in their security holding in the Company during the preceding month.

Photographs used in this Prospectus which do not have descriptions are for illustration only and should not be interpreted to mean that any person shown endorses the Prospectus or its contents or that the assets shown in them are owned by the Company. Diagrams used in this Prospectus are illustrative only and may not be drawn to scale.

1.3 Key Risk Factors

Prospective investors should be aware that subscribing for Securities involves a number of risks and an investment in the Company should be considered as highly speculative. The future performance of the Company and the value of the Securities may be influenced by a range of factors, many of which are largely beyond the control of the Company and the Directors. The key risks associated with the Company's business, the industry in which it operates and general risks applicable to all investments in listed securities and financial markets generally are set out in Section 5.

The predominant risks relating to the Company and the Offer are summarised below:

RISK	DESCRIPTION	FURTHER INFORMATION
Hydrogen and Helium	The future value of the Company may depend on its ability to find, appraise, and	Section 5.2

exploration and evaluation risk	develop natural hydrogen and helium resources that are economically recoverable within the Company's existing and future projects. Natural hydrogen exploration is an emerging area of the natural resources industry and knowledge and understanding of the geological processes behind its occurrence is limited. There is a risk that exploration activities conducted on the projects will not result in the discovery of hydrogen and helium, and indications of hydrogen observed during such exploration activities may not result in the presence or absence of natural hydrogen or helium at that location. The circumstances in which a discovered hydrogen or helium resource becomes or remains commercially viable depends on a number of factors. These include the particular attributes of the resource, such as size, depth, concentration, composition, development cost and proximity to infrastructure as well as key external factors such as hydrogen supply and demand. Hydrogen and helium exploration, production and development involves activities and operations which may not generate a positive return on investment. This may arise from, but is not limited to; dry wells, and / or wells that are productive but do not produce sufficient revenues to return a profit after accounting for drilling, operating and other associated costs. The outcome of any exploration program may be dependent on matters which include the host rock composition, the gas composition, the permeability of the host rock, the flow rate and the rate of any decrease in pressure as the gas flows to the surface. These matters cannot be known until the Company undertakes further drilling and testing programs. There are risks that any production testing from wells may be uneconomic in regards to gas compositions and/or sustained flow rates. In addition, any production testing outcomes from wells may also be impacted by various operating conditions, including insufficient storage or transportation capacity, water handling, gathering line cost, or other geological and mechanical conditions. In addition, managing drilling hazards or environmental damage and pollution caused by exploration and development operations could greatly increase the associated cost and profitability of individual wells.
Control risk	Fortescue is currently the largest Shareholder of the Company and has a relevant interest in approximately 38.62% of the Shares in the Company. Fortescue's significant interest in the capital of the Company means that it is in a position to potentially influence the financial decisions of the Company, and its interests may not align	Section 5.2.

	with those of all other Shareholders. Fortescue holds a relevant interest in more than 25% of the Company which means that it has the potential to prevent a special resolution from being passed by the Company (such resolution requiring at least 75% of the votes cast by members entitled to vote on the resolution). Special resolutions are required in relation to approve certain Company matters including potentially seeking the delisting of the Company, amending the Constitution, approving the voluntary winding up of the Company and, if at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of Shares, approving the variation of the rights attached to any such class.
Potential increase in Fortescue's voting power	As a result of the Offer, Fortescue's relevant interest in the Company may increase. If Fortescue takes up its full Entitlement and no other Shareholders accept their entitlements, Fortescue's voting power in the Company could reach as high as 45% after closing of the Offer. The Company considers it unlikely that Fortescue will be the only Shareholder that participates under the Offer, and notes that the Company intends to place any Shares not taken up under the Offer under the Shortfall Offer. However, any increase in Fortescue's interest as a result of the Offer would heighten the control risks described above.	Section 5.2.

1.4 Directors' Interests in Securities

The relevant interest of each of the Directors in the Securities of the Company as at the date of this Prospectus, together with their respective Entitlement, is set out in the table below:

DIRECTOR	SHARES	OPTIONS	PERFORMANCE RIGHTS	SHARE ENTITLEMENT	$	PERCENTAGE (%) FULL SUBSCRIPTION, FULLY DILUTED
Russell Brimage ¹	19,900,000	25,900,000	8,000,000	5,970,000	83,580	2.76
Avon McIntyre ^{2,4}	7,000,000	12,000,000	16,000,000	2,100,000	29,400	1.71
Benjamin Mee ^{3,4,5}	4,193,081	25,600,000	Nil	1,257,924	17,611	1.43
Christine Nicolau	Nil	Nil	Nil	Nil	Nil	Nil

Notes:

- Held indirectly by Pouvoir Pty Ltd <Brimage Super Fund A/C>
- Held directly.
- Held indirectly by Mee Family Holdings Pty Ltd <Mee Family Trust A/C>.
- This table does not include the 20,000,000 Options and 7,000,000 Performance Rights that, subject to Shareholder approval, are proposed to be issued to each of Mr McIntyre and Mr Mee following the Company's upcoming Annual General Meeting.
- The Company intends to issue Shares to Mr Mee on conversion of 15,000,000 ZEPs following the Record Date. These Shares are not contemplated in the above table, and no Entitlement will attach to those Shares.

The Board recommends all Shareholders take up their Entitlements. The Board advises that Mr Brimage intends to take up a partial entitlement of up to $20,000, and Mr Mee intends to take up his full Entitlement. Mr McIntyre has indicated that he does not intend to take up their respective Entitlements. Ms Nicolau does not currently hold any Shares, so is not entitled to participate in the Offer.

1.5 Details of Substantial Holders

Based on publicly available information as at the date of this Prospectus, those persons which (together with their associates) have a relevant interest in 5% or more of the Shares on issue are set out below:

SHAREHOLDER	SHARES	%
Fortescue Ltd (FMG), Fortescue Future Industries Pty Ltd (FFI), Fortescue Future Industries Technologies Pty Ltd (FFI Technologies) and each of the entities referred to in Schedule 1 (FMG Group Entities) and Tattarang Pty Ltd ACN 055 961 361 ATF the Peepingee Trust (Tattarang)	644,117,647 ¹	38.62

Notes:

1. Refer to the Form 604 released to the Company's ASX platform (ASX:HYT) on 26 March 2025.

In the event all Entitlements are accepted there will be no change to the substantial holders on completion of the Offer.

1.6 Effect on Control

Section 606 of the Corporations Act prohibits a person from acquiring a relevant interest in the issued voting shares of a company if, because of the acquisition, that person's (or another person's) voting power in the company increases from 20% or below to more than 20%, or from a starting point that is above 20% and below 90% (General Prohibition).

Certain exceptions to the General Prohibition are set out in section 611 of the Corporations Act, including item 10 which provides an exception for rights issues where the offer is made to every holder in the relevant class on the same terms and in proportion to their existing holdings.

As at the date of this Prospectus, FMG, FFI, FFI Technologies and each of the FMG Group Entities and Tattarang (together, Fortescue) hold a relevant interest in 644,117,647 Shares, representing approximately 38.62% of the Company's issued share capital. Fortescue is the largest Shareholder of the Company.

Fortescue has not indicated whether it intends to take up its Entitlement, either in whole or in part. The Offer is not underwritten.

As the Offer is a pro-rata entitlement issue made to all Eligible Shareholders on the same terms, it falls within the exception set out in item 10 of section 611 of the Corporations Act. Accordingly, Fortescue may acquire Shares under the Offer (including under the Shortfall Offer) even if the acquisition increases its voting power (which is currently above 20%) without shareholder approval.

The table below sets out a number of scenarios to illustrate the potential effect of the Offer on Fortescue's voting power in the Company, based on 1,667,707,793 Shares on issue as at the date of this Prospectus, and assuming no Options or Performance Rights are exercised prior to the Record Date:

SCENARIO	FORTESCUE SHARES	TOTAL SHARES ON ISSUE	FORTESCUE VOTING POWER (%)
Current Position	644,117,647	1,667,707,793	38.62
All Shareholders take up their full Entitlement	837,352,942	2,168,020,131	38.62

SCENARIO	FORTESCUE SHARES	TOTAL SHARES ON ISSUE	FORTESCUE VOTING POWER (%)
Only Fortescue takes up its full Entitlement and no other Shareholders participate	837,352,942	1,860,943,088	45.00
Fortescue takes up its full Entitlement and 50% of other Shareholders participate	837,352,942	2,014,481,609	41.57
Fortescue does not participate and all other Shareholders take up their full Entitlement	644,117,647	1,974,784,837	32.62

Notes:

- The above scenarios are illustrative only and assume the Offer terms are finalised as described in this Prospectus. The actual effect on Fortescue's voting power will depend on the ratio and number of Shares issued under the Offer, and the level of participation by Fortescue and other Shareholders.

Fortescue currently holds a relevant interest in more than 25% of the Company which means that it has the potential to block a special resolution from being passed by the Company (such resolution requiring at least 75% of the votes cast by members entitled to vote on the resolution). Special resolutions are required in relation to certain Company matters including amending the Constitution, approving the voluntary winding up of the Company and, if at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of Shares, varying the rights attached to any such class.

As set out in Section 2.6, on the basis of the allocation policy, no person (other than Fortescue, which may increase its voting power by taking up its Entitlement under item 10 of section 611 of the Corporations Act) will acquire, through participation in the Shortfall Offer, a holding of Shares of, or increase their holding to, an amount that would breach the General Prohibition.

Shareholders should be aware that if they do not take up their Entitlements, their holdings will be diluted and the voting power of Fortescue and other Shareholders in the Company may increase. Shareholders are encouraged to consider the potential control implications when deciding whether to participate in the Offer.

1.7 Potential dilution on non-participating Shareholders

In addition to potential control impacts set out in Section 1.6, Shareholders should note that if they do not participate in the Offer, their holdings are likely to be diluted by approximately 23% (as compared to their holdings and number of Shares on issue as at the date of this Prospectus).

For illustrative purposes, the table below shows how the dilution may impact the holdings of Shareholders:

HOLDER	HOLDING AS AT RECORD DATE	% AT RECORD DATE	ENTITLEMENTS UNDER THE OFFER	HOLDINGS IF OFFER NOT TAKEN UP	% POST OFFER
Shareholder 1	10,000,000	0.600%	3,000,000	10,000,000	0.461%
Shareholder 2	5,000,000	0.300%	1,500,000	5,000,000	0.231%
Shareholder 3	1,500,000	0.090%	450,000	1,500,000	0.069%
Shareholder 4	400,000	0.024%	120,000	400,000	0.018%
Shareholder 5	50,000	0.003%	15,000	50,000	0.002%

Notes:

- This is based on a share capital of 1,667,707,793 Shares as at the date of the Prospectus and assumes no Options currently on issue or Performance Rights are exercised.

2. The dilutionary effect shown in the table is the Full percentage on the assumption that those Entitlements not accepted by Eligible Shareholders are placed under the Shortfall Offer. In the event all Entitlements are not accepted and some or all of the resulting Shortfall was not subsequently placed, the dilution effect for each Shareholder not accepting their Entitlement would be a lesser percentage.

You should be aware that your own financial institution may implement earlier cut-off times with regard to electronic payment, and you should therefore take this into consideration when making payment. It is your responsibility to ensure that funds submitted through BPAY® are received by 5:00 pm (WST) on the Closing Date. The Company shall not be responsible for any delay in the receipt of the BPAY® payment.

If you have more than one shareholding of Shares and consequently receive more than one Entitlement and Acceptance Form, when taking up your Entitlement in respect of one of those Shareholdings only use the CRN specific to that Shareholding as set out in the applicable Entitlement and Acceptance Form. Do not use the same CRN for more than one of your Shareholdings. This can result in your Application monies being applied to your Entitlement in respect of only one of your Shareholdings (with the result that any Application in respect of your remaining Shareholdings will not be valid).

(b) By Electronic Funds Transfer (overseas applicants)

For payment by Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) for overseas Eligible Shareholders, please follow the instructions on the Entitlement and Acceptance Form. You can only make a payment via EFT if you are the holder of an account that supports EFT transactions to an Australian bank account. Please note that should you choose to pay by EFT:

- (i) you do not need to submit the Entitlement and Acceptance Form but are taken to have made the declarations on that Entitlement and Acceptance Form;
- (ii) if you do not pay for your Entitlement in full, you are deemed to have taken up your Entitlement in respect of such whole number of Shares which is covered in full by your Application monies; and
- (iii) if you pay more than is required to subscribe for your Entitlement, you will be taken to have applied for Shortfall Securities (if any) under the Shortfall Offer, to the extent of the excess.

(c) By Cheque

Payment by cheque or cash will not be accepted.

2.4 Implications of an acceptance

Returning a completed Entitlement and Acceptance Form or paying any Application monies by BPAY® or EFT will be taken to constitute a representation by you that:

- (a) you have received a copy of this Prospectus and the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form, and read them both in their entirety; and
- (b) you acknowledge that once the Entitlement and Acceptance Form is returned, or a BPAY® or EFT payment instruction is given in relation to any Application monies, the application may not be varied or withdrawn except as required by law.

2.5 Minimum subscription

There is no minimum subscription.

2.6 Shortfall Offer

Any Entitlement not taken up pursuant to the Offer will form the Shortfall Offer (Shortfall Securities). The Shortfall Offer is a separate offer made pursuant to this Prospectus and will remain open for up to three months following the Closing Date. The issue price for each Share to be issued under the Shortfall Offer shall be $0.014 being the price at which Shares have been offered under the Offer.

If you do not wish to take up any part of your Entitlement you are not required to take any action. That part of your Entitlement not taken up will form part of the Shortfall Offer and potentially be allocated to other Eligible Shareholders or other third parties as part of the Shortfall Offer. The Shortfall Offer will only be available where there is a Shortfall between applications received from Eligible Shareholders and the number of Shares proposed to be issued under the Offer.

Eligible Shareholders who wish to subscribe for Securities above their Entitlement are invited to apply for Shortfall Securities under the Shortfall Offer by completing the appropriate section on their Entitlement and Acceptance Form or by making payment for such Shortfall Securities in accordance with Sections 2.3.

The Board presently intends to allocate Shortfall Securities as follows:

- (a) to Eligible Shareholders who apply for an excess of their full Entitlement, so long as the issue of Shortfall Securities to that Eligible Shareholder would not breach the General Prohibition; and
- (b) to other parties identified by the Directors, which may include parties who are not currently Shareholders.

For the avoidance of doubt, no Shares will be issued to a party under the Shortfall Offer if to do so would breach the General Prohibition.

The Company reserves the right to issue an Eligible Shareholder a lesser number of Shortfall Securities than applied for or no Shortfall Securities at all. However, the Directors do not intend to refuse an application for Shortfall Securities from Eligible Shareholders other than in circumstances of oversubscription or where acceptance may result in a breach of the Corporations Act. If the number of Shortfall Securities applied for by Eligible Shareholders exceeds the total Shortfall, the Shortfall Securities will be allocated among applying Eligible Shareholders proportionate to their existing holdings.

All decisions regarding the allocation of Shortfall Securities will be made by the Directors and will be final and binding on all applicants under the Shortfall Offer, as such there is no guarantee that any Shortfall Securities applied for will be issued to Eligible Shareholders.

The Company will have no liability to any Applicant who receives less than the number of Shortfall Securities they applied for under the Shortfall Offer. If the Company scales back any applications for Shortfall Securities under the Shortfall Offer any Application monies will be returned (without interest) as soon as practicable.

2.7 ASX listing

Application for Official Quotation of the Shares offered pursuant to this Prospectus will be made within 7 days after the date of this Prospectus. If ASX does not grant Official Quotation of the Shares offered pursuant to this Prospectus before the expiration of three months after the date of issue of the Prospectus, (or such period as varied by the ASIC), the Company will not issue any Shares and will repay all Application monies for the Shares within the time prescribed under the Corporations Act, without interest.

The fact that ASX may grant Official Quotation to the Shares is not to be taken in any way as an indication of the merits of the Company or the Shares now offered for subscription.

2.8 Issue of Securities

Securities issued pursuant to the Offer will be issued in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules and timetable set out at Section 1.

Securities issued pursuant to the Shortfall Offer will be issued on a progressive basis. Where the number of Securities issued is less than the number applied for, or where no issue is made surplus Application monies will be refunded without any interest to the Applicant as soon as practicable after the closing date of the Shortfall Offer.

Pending the issue of the Securities or payment of refunds pursuant to this Prospectus, all Application monies will be held by the Company in trust for the Applicants in a separate bank account as required by the Corporations Act. The Company, however, will be entitled to retain all interest that accrues on the bank account and each Applicant waives the right to claim interest.

Holding statements for Securities issued under the Offer will be mailed as soon as practicable after the issue of Securities and for Shortfall Securities issued under the Shortfall Offer as soon as practicable after their issue.

4. RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES ATTACHING TO SECURITIES

4.1 Rights and liabilities attaching to Shares

The following is a summary of the more significant rights and liabilities attaching to the Shares being offered pursuant to this Prospectus. This summary is not exhaustive and does not constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of Shareholders. To obtain such a statement, persons should seek independent legal advice.

Full details of the rights and liabilities attaching to Shares are set out in the Constitution, a copy of which is available for inspection at the Company's registered office during normal business hours.

(a) General meetings

Shareholders are entitled to be present in person, or by proxy, attorney or representative to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company. The Company's constitution permits the use of technology at general meetings of shareholders (including wholly virtual meetings) to the extent permitted under the Corporations Act, Listing Rules and applicable law.

Shareholders may requisition meetings in accordance with section 249D of the Corporations Act and the Constitution of the Company.

(b) Voting rights

Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, at general meetings of shareholders or classes of shareholders:

- (i) each Shareholder entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy, attorney or representative;
- (ii) on a show of hands, every person present who is a Shareholder or a proxy, attorney or representative of a Shareholder has one vote; and
- (iii) on a poll, every person present who is a Shareholder or a proxy, attorney or representative of a Shareholder shall, in respect of each fully paid Share held by him, or in respect of which he is appointed a proxy, attorney or representative, have one vote for each Share held, but in respect of partly paid shares shall have such number of votes as bears the same proportion to the total of such Shares registered in the Shareholder's name as the amount paid (not credited) bears to the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited).

(c) Dividend rights

Subject to the rights of any preference Shareholders and to the rights of the holders of any shares created or raised under any special arrangement as to dividend, the Directors may from time to time declare a dividend to be paid to the Shareholders entitled to the dividend which shall be payable on all Shares according to the proportion that the amount paid (not credited) is of the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited) in respect of such Shares.

The Directors may from time to time pay to the Shareholders any interim dividends as they may determine. No dividend shall carry interest as against the Company. The Directors may set aside out of the profits of the Company any amounts that they may determine as reserves, to be applied at the discretion of the Directors, for any purpose for which the profits of the Company may be properly applied.

Subject to the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act, the Company may, by resolution of the Directors, implement a dividend reinvestment plan on such terms and conditions as the Directors think fit and which provides for any dividend which the Directors may declare from time to time payable on Shares which are participating Shares in the dividend reinvestment plan, less any amount which the Company shall either pursuant to the Constitution or any law be entitled or obliged to retain, be applied by the Company to the payment of the subscription price of Shares.

(d) Winding-up

If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, divide among the Shareholders in kind the whole or any part of the property of the Company, and may for that purpose set such value as he considers fair upon any property to be so divided, and may determine how the division is to be carried out as between the Shareholders or different classes of Shareholders.

The liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, vest the whole or any part of any such property in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator thinks fit, but so that no Shareholder is compelled to accept any shares or other securities in respect of which there is any liability.

(e) Shareholder liability

As the Shares issued will be fully paid shares, they will not be subject to any calls for money by the Directors and will therefore not become liable for forfeiture.

(f) Transfer of shares

Generally, shares in the Company are freely transferable, subject to formal requirements, the registration of the transfer not resulting in a contravention of or failure to observe the provisions of a law of Australia and the transfer not being in breach of the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules.

(g) Future increase in capital

The issue of any new Shares is under the control of the Directors of the Company. Subject to restrictions on the issue or grant of securities contained in the ASX Listing Rules, the Constitution and the Corporations Act (and without affecting any special right previously conferred on the holder of an existing share or class of shares), the Directors may issue Shares as they shall, in their absolute discretion, determine.

(h) Variation of rights

Under section 246B of the Corporations Act, the Company may, with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a meeting of Shareholders vary or abrogate the rights attaching to Shares.

If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class), whether or not the Company is being wound up, may be varied or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of three quarters of the issued shares of that class, or if authorised by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

(i) Alteration of constitution

In accordance with the Corporations Act, the Constitution can only be amended by a special resolution passed by at least three quarters of Shareholders present and voting at the general meeting. In addition, at least 28 days written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution must be given.

RISK CATEGORY	RISK
Potential for dilution	In addition to potential control impacts set out in Section 1.6, Shareholders should note that if they do not participate in the Offer, their holdings are likely to be diluted by approximately 23% (as compared to their holdings and number of Shares on issue as at the date of this Prospectus). It is not possible to predict what the value of a Share will be following the completion of the Offer, and the Directors do not make any representation as to such matters. The last trading price of Shares on ASX prior to the Prospectus being lodged of $0.016 is not a reliable indicator as to the potential trading price of Shares after implementation of the Offer.
Hydrogen and Helium exploration and evaluation risk	The future value of the Company may depend on its ability to find, appraise, and develop natural hydrogen and helium resources that are economically recoverable within the Company's existing and future projects. Natural hydrogen exploration is an emerging area of the natural resources industry and knowledge and understanding of the geological processes behind its occurrence is limited. There is a risk that exploration activities conducted on the projects will not result in the discovery of hydrogen and helium, and indications of hydrogen observed during such exploration activities may not result in the presence or absence of natural hydrogen or helium at that location. The circumstances in which a discovered hydrogen or helium resource becomes or remains commercially viable depends on a number of factors. These include the particular attributes of the resource, such as size, depth, concentration, composition, development cost and proximity to infrastructure as well as key external factors such as

	hydrogen supply and demand. Hydrogen and helium exploration, production and development involves activities and operations which may not generate a positive return on investment. This may arise from, but is not limited to; dry wells, and / or wells that are productive but do not produce sufficient revenues to return a profit after accounting for drilling, operating and other associated costs. The outcome of any exploration program may be dependent on matters which include the host rock composition, the gas composition, the permeability of the host rock, the flow rate and the rate of any decrease in pressure as the gas flows to the surface. These matters cannot be known until the Company undertakes further drilling and testing programs. There are risks that any production testing from wells may be uneconomic in regards to gas compositions and/or sustained flow rates. In addition, any production testing outcomes from wells may also be impacted by various operating conditions, including insufficient storage or transportation capacity, water handling, gathering line cost, or other geological and mechanical conditions. In addition, managing drilling hazards or environmental damage and pollution caused by exploration and development operations could greatly increase the associated cost and profitability of individual wells.
Control risk	Fortescue is currently the largest Shareholder of the Company and has a relevant interest in approximately 38.62% of the Shares in the Company. Fortescue's significant interest in the capital of the Company means that it is in a position to potentially influence the financial decisions of the Company, and its interests may not align with those of all other Shareholders. Fortescue holds a relevant interest in more than 25% of the Company which means that it has the potential to prevent a special resolution from being passed by the Company (such resolution requiring at least 75% of the votes cast by members entitled to vote on the resolution). Special resolutions are required in relation to approve certain Company matters including potentially seeking the delisting of the Company, amending the Constitution, approving the voluntary winding up of the Company and, if at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of Shares, approving the variation of the rights attached to any such class.
Potential increase in Fortescue's voting power	As a result of the Offer, Fortescue's relevant interest in the Company may increase. If Fortescue takes up its full Entitlement and no other Shareholders accept their entitlements, Fortescue's voting power in the Company could reach as high as 45% after closing of the Offer. The Company considers it unlikely that Fortescue will be the only Shareholder that participates under the Offer, and notes that the Company intends to place any Shares not taken up under the Offer under the Shortfall Offer. However, any increase in Fortescue's interest as a result of the Offer would heighten the control risks described above.
Geological, technological, and operational risk on leases held	The leases of the Company, as it progresses through exploration, appraisal, development and possible production activities, may be adversely affected by a range of geological, technological and operational factors, including: (a) geological and reservoir conditions;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (b) limitations on activities due to seasonal or adverse weather patterns; (c) alterations to program and budgets; (d) unanticipated operational and technical difficulties encountered in geophysical surveys, drilling and production activities; (e) mechanical failure of operating plant and equipment, industrial and environmental accidents, acts of terrorism or political or civil unrest and other force majeure events; (f) industrial action, disputation or disruptions; (g) unavailability of transport or drilling equipment to allow access and geological and geophysical investigations; (h) shortages or unavailability of manpower or appropriately skilled manpower; (i) unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment (noting that the Company's exploration and development activities are dependent on the availability of drilling rigs and related equipment in the area of its leases); (j) prevention or restriction of access by reason of inability to obtain consents or approvals; or (k) loss of or damage to private property, personal injury or death, or environmental damage; or (l) landholder issues. Hydrogen is a highly reactive gas and can combine with most other elements. Consequently, there is a risk that, under certain conditions, a chemical reaction may take place between hydrogen and other elements or compounds which may naturally occur on the projects to form other gases and / or liquids (including methane and / or water), which may have an adverse effect on the value of the resource derived from the projects. The historic drilling results referred to by the Company regarding hydrogen and helium gas occurrences have been obtained by the Company from publicly available reports (i.e. gas analyses recovered from the wellbore). The Company cannot verify these historic results and they may be inaccurate or incorrect in certain respects. Therefore, there remains high uncertainty about how the historic well operations were executed, the sampling techniques used, and subsequent analyses undertaken. The reported concentrations of hydrogen and helium from mud gas logs and surface samples from any wells drilled by HyTerra carry residual uncertainty due to the nature of gas detection, drilling parameters and equipment, and behaviour of the gas due to geological and operational processes. Samples are air corrected to account for atmospheric contamination when collected at surface which is additional residual uncertainty in final numbers. A production test is required to fully appraise steady state gas flow rates and gas concentrations. The occurrence of any of these geological, technological, and operational risks could result in substantial financial losses to the Company in a number of different ways. Whilst the Directors will endeavour to anticipate,

RISK CATEGORY	RISK
	identify and manage the risks inherent in the activities of the business, with the aim of eliminating, avoiding and mitigating the impact of such, no assurance can be given that the Directors will be successful in these endeavours. Therefore, there can be no assurance that exploration of the leases, or any other leases that may be acquired in the future, will result in the discovery of an economic resource. There is a risk that the Company may complete its drilling and testing programs in accordance with its plan without any complications, and still not discover any hydrogen or helium in sufficient quantities for commercial operations. Furthermore, success of the Company will also depend upon the Company being able to maintain access to its leases and obtaining all required approvals for their contemplated activities. In the event that exploration programs prove to be unsuccessful this could lead to diminution in the value of the assets base of the Company, a reduction in the cash reserves of the Company and possible loss of leases. The exploration costs of the Company are based on certain assumptions with respect to the method and timing of exploration. By their nature, these estimates and assumptions are subject to significant uncertainties and, accordingly, the actual costs may materially differ from these estimates and assumptions. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the cost estimates and the underlying assumptions will be realised in practice, which may materially and adversely affect the Company's viability.
Resource, reserves and exploration target risks	The Company is engaged in hydrogen and helium exploration, appraisal and development which is inherently highly speculative and involves a significant degree of risk, as outlined under 'Geological, technological and operational risks' category above. Estimating Prospective Resources, Contingent Resources and Reserves is subject to significant assumptions and uncertainties associated with technical data and the interpretation of that data, the application of technology to access and recover the resources, future commodity prices and future development and operating costs, including being able to deal with the unique properties of hydrogen and helium in recovery from the subsurface, transporting and processing. Even if an apparently viable resource is identified, there is no guarantee that it can be economically exploited (e.g. commercial flow rates). There can be no guarantee that the Company will successfully be able to convert Prospective Resources into Contingent Resources, and if the Company is successfully able to convert Prospective Resources into Contingent Resources, there is no guarantee that the Company will successfully be able to convert Contingent Resources into Reserves. Further, if the Company does convert Contingent Resources into Reserves, there is no guarantee that the Company will be able to produce the volume of hydrogen or helium that it estimates as Reserves. Estimates may change significantly or become more uncertain or have changed geologic risk or have changed development risk when new information becomes available throughout the life of a project. Reduction in Prospective Resources, Contingent Resources and Reserves estimates may have a material adverse effect on the viability of a project or the business of the Company generally. The Company has identified and drilled a number of exploration targets at the projects, based on geological interpretations and limited geophysical data, geochemical

	sampling and historical drilling. Insufficient data however, exists still to provide certainty over the extent of the resource. Whilst the Company intends to undertake additional exploratory work and exploration drilling at the projects the aim of defining a resource, no assurances can be given that additional exploration work or drilling of identified targets will result in the determination of a resource.
Authorisations to explore, develop and produce resources	If the Company identifies a potentially economically viable discovery that it then intends to develop, it will, among other things, require various approvals, leases and permits for that location to develop any discovery (e.g. consent from relevant regulatory bodies, landowners). There is no guarantee that the Company will be able to obtain all required approvals, leases and permits. To the extent that required authorisations are not obtained or are delayed, the Company's operational and financial performance may be materially adversely affected.
Joint Venture Risk – General	The Company is currently and may in the future become a party to joint venture agreements governing the exploration and development of its projects. There is a risk that one of the Company's joint venture partners may default in their joint venture obligations or not act in the best interests of the joint venture. This may have an adverse effect on the interests and prospects of the Company. There is also a risk that disputes may arise between the Company and its joint venture partners in relation to the interpretation, performance or enforcement of joint venture agreements, funding obligations, operational matters or strategic objectives, and any such disputes may result in delays, increased costs, loss of rights, reputational harm and litigation, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial performance and prospects
Joint Venture Risk – NH2E	The Company's wholly owned subsidiary Neutralysis Industries Pty Ltd (Neutralysis), currently holds a 16% beneficial interest in a joint development and earn-in agreement (JDA) with Natural Hydrogen Energy LLC (NH2E). The financial performance of the Company is subject to its various counterparties performing their obligations under the JDA. If one of its counterparties (including NH2E) fails to perform their contractual obligations under the operating agreement, it may result in loss of earnings, termination of other related contracts, disputes and/or litigation of which could impact on the Company's financial performance. Disputes could also lead to extensive delays in the Company's proposed development activities. Furthermore, the Company is not the registered owner of the leases within the JDA with NH2E, and therefore the Company's ability to achieve its business objectives is reliant upon NH2E complying with its contractual obligations under the JDA, satisfying the terms and conditions of the leases as required to maintain the leases in full force and effect, free from any liability to forfeiture or nonrenewal, and comply with any other applicable legislation. The failure of NH2E or any future joint venture partner to comply with these obligations may result in the Company losing its interest in those leases which may have a material adverse effect on the Company's operations and performance, value of the Company's Shares, termination of other related contracts, and may lead to disputes and/or

	litigation. There is also a risk of financial failure or default under the joint venture arrangements by a participant in any joint venture to which the Company is, or may become, a party. Any withdrawal by a joint venture party or any issues with their ability to perform the obligations due under the joint venture arrangements could have a material adverse impact on the financial position of the Company.
Additional requirements for capital	The Company's capital requirements depend on numerous factors. Depending on the Company's ability to generate income from its operations, the Company may require further financing in addition to amounts raised under the Offer. Any additional equity financing will dilute shareholdings, and debt financing, if available, may involve restrictions on financing and operating activities. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, it may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its exploration programmes as the case may be. There is however no guarantee that the Company will be able to secure any additional funding or be able to secure funding on terms favourable to the Company.
Going Concern	The Company's annual report for the financial period ending 31 December 2025 (Financial Report) includes a note on the financial condition of the Company and the possible existence of a material uncertainty about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Notwithstanding the 'going concern' included in the Financial Report, the Directors believe that upon the successful completion of the Offer, the Company will have sufficient funds to adequately meet the Company's current exploration commitments and short term working capital requirements. However, it is highly likely that further funding will be required to meet the medium to long term working capital costs of the Company. In the event that the Offer is not completed successfully there is significant uncertainty as to whether the Company can continue as a going concern which is likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities.
Climate Risk	There are a number of climate-related factors that may affect the operations and proposed activities of the Company. The climate change risks particularly attributable to the Company include: (a) the emergence of new or expanded regulations associated with the transitioning to a lower-carbon economy and market changes related to climate change mitigation. The Company may be impacted by changes to local or international compliance regulations related to climate change mitigation efforts, or by specific taxation or penalties for carbon emissions or environmental damage. These examples sit amongst an array of possible restraints on industry that may further impact the Company and its profitability. While the Company will endeavour to manage these risks and limit any consequential impacts, there can be no guarantee that the Company will not be impacted by these occurrences; and

	(b) climate change may cause certain physical and environmental risks that cannot be predicted by the Company, including events such as increased severity of weather patterns and incidence of extreme weather events and longer-term physical risks such as shifting climate patterns. All these risks associated with climate change may significantly change the industry in which the Company operates.
Reliance on key personnel	The responsibility of overseeing the day-to-day operations and the strategic management of the Company depends substantially on its senior management and its key personnel. There can be no assurance given that there will be no detrimental impact on the Company if one or more of these employees cease their employment. The Company's future depends, in part, on its ability to attract and retain key personnel. It may not be able to hire and retain such personnel at compensation levels consistent with its existing compensation and salary structure. Its future also depends on the continued contributions of its executive management team and other key management and technical personnel, the loss of whose services would be difficult to replace. In addition, the inability to continue to attract appropriately qualified personnel could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business.
Risk of insolvency	The Directors are unable to predict the risk of the insolvency or managerial failure by any of the contractors used (or to be used in the future) by the Company in any of its activities or the insolvency or other managerial failure by any of the other service providers used (or to be used in the future) by the Company for any activity.
Results of studies	Subject to the results of exploration and testing programs to be undertaken, the Company may progressively undertake a number of studies in relation to the Company's projects. These studies may include economic feasibility, legal feasibility, operational feasibility and scheduling feasibility, production facility concept development and design, front end engineering and design, and engineering, procurement and construction studies. The Company intends to complete such studies within parameters designed to determine the economic feasibility of the subject projects within certain limits. There can be no guarantee that any of these studies will confirm the economic viability of the subject projects or that the results of other studies undertaken by the Company will be consistent with the results of previous studies undertaken. Even if a study confirms the economic viability of a project, there can be no guarantee that the project will be successfully brought into production as assumed or within the estimated parameters in a feasibility study (e.g., operational costs and commodity prices) once production commences. Further, the ability of the Company to complete a study may be dependent on the Company's ability to raise further funds to complete the study if required.

5.3 Industry risks

RISK CATEGORY	RISK
Commodity price volatility and exchange rate risk	If the Company achieves success leading to hydrogen and/or other co-existing subsurface gas (e.g. helium) production, the revenue it will derive through the sale of product exposes the potential income of the Company to commodity price and exchange rate risks. These commodity prices fluctuate and are affected by many factors beyond the control of the Company. Such factors include supply and demand fluctuations for production, technological advancements, forward selling activities and other macroeconomic factors. Furthermore, international prices and the operations of the Company are generally denominated in United States dollars, whereas the income from capital raising of the Company are and will be taken into account in Australian dollars, exposing the Company to the fluctuations and volatility of the rate of exchange between the United States dollar and the Australian dollar as determined in international markets.
Environmental risk	The operations and proposed activities of the Company are subject to a country's regulations concerning the environment. As with most exploration projects and development operations, the Company's activities are expected to have an impact on the environment, particularly if advanced exploration or production development proceeds. These operations have inherent risks and liabilities associated with safety and damage to the environment and the disposal of waste products occurring as a result of a Company's activities. Also, events such as unpredictable weather or wildfires may impact on the Company's ongoing compliance with environmental legislation, regulations and licences. Approvals are required for access, land clearing and for ground disturbing activities. Delays in obtaining such approvals can result in the delay to anticipated exploration or development activities. It is the Company's intention to conduct its activities to the highest standard of environmental obligation, including compliance with all environmental laws. However, despite its best efforts, the Company's operations may cause harm to the environment due to an unexpected occurrence or occurrences. Depending on the circumstances, the Company may suffer reputational damage, may have an obligation to remediate the damage and may also have its leases suspended or revoked, all of which may have a material adverse effect on the viability of a project or the business of the Company generally.
Government policy and compliance risk	The Company's businesses are affected by government policies across the world. Reviews by foreign investment committees or adverse changes in government policies or legislation may affect, but not limited to, ownership of leases, taxation, royalties, land access, labour relations, and exploration, development and production activities of the Company. It is possible that the current system of exploration and resource permitting in any country that the Company is undertaking activities may change, resulting in impairment of rights and possibly expropriation of the Company's properties without adequate compensation.
Competition risk	The industry in which the Company will be involved is subject to domestic and global competition. Although the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in its business decisions

General risks

RISK CATEGORY	RISK
Economic	General economic conditions, movements in interest and inflation rates and currency exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the Company's exploration, development and production activities, as well as on its ability to fund those activities.
Market conditions	Share market conditions may affect the value of the Company's quoted securities regardless of the Company's operating performance. Share market conditions are affected by many factors such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) general economic outlook; (b) introduction of tax reform or other new legislation; (a) interest rates and inflation rates; (b) changes in investor sentiment toward particular market sectors; (c) the demand for, and supply of, capital; and (d) terrorism or other hostilities. The market price of securities can fall as well as rise and may be subject to varied and unpredictable influences on the market for equities in general and resource exploration stocks in particular. Neither the Company nor the Directors warrant the future performance of the Company or any return on an investment in the Company.
Litigation risks	The Company is exposed to possible litigation risks including intellectual property claims, contractual disputes, occupational health and safety claims and employee claims. Further, the Company may be involved in disputes with other parties in the future which may result in litigation. Any such claim or dispute if proven, may adversely impact on the Company's operations, financial performance and financial position. The Company and its subsidiaries are not currently engaged in any litigation.
Dividends	Any future determination as to the payment of dividends by the Company will be at the discretion of the Directors and will depend on the financial condition of the Company, future capital requirements and general business and other factors considered relevant by the Directors. No assurance in relation to the payment of dividends or franking credits attaching to dividends can be given by the Company.
Taxation	The acquisition and disposal of Shares will have tax consequences, which will differ depending on the individual financial affairs of each investor. All prospective investors in the Company are urged to obtain independent financial advice about the consequences of acquiring Shares from a taxation viewpoint and generally. To the Full extent permitted by law, the Company, its officers and each of their respective advisors accept no liability and responsibility with respect to the taxation consequences of subscribing for Shares under this Prospectus.

Economic conditions and other global or national issues	General economic conditions, laws relating to taxation, new legislation, trade barriers, movements in interest and inflation rates, currency exchange controls and rates, national and international political circumstances (including outbreaks in international hostilities, wars, terrorist acts, sabotage, subversive activities, security operations, labour unrest, civil disorder, and states of emergency), natural disasters (including fires, earthquakes and floods), and quarantine restrictions, epidemics and pandemics, may have an adverse effect on the Company's operations and financial performance, including the Company's exploration, development and production activities, as well as on its ability to fund those activities. General economic conditions may also affect the value of the Company and its market valuation regardless of its actual performance.
Global Conflicts	The current and evolving conflicts involving Ukraine and Russia, Israel and Palestine, and Iran, including the broader regional instability in the Middle East (together, the Geopolitical Conflicts), are impacting global economic markets. The nature and extent of the effect of the Geopolitical Conflicts on the performance of the Company remains uncertain. The Company's share price may be adversely affected in the short to medium term by the economic uncertainty, market volatility and supply chain disruption arising from the Geopolitical Conflicts. Recent developments involving Iran have also heightened risks in relation to global energy prices, shipping routes and broader regional security, which may further contribute to volatility in financial and commodity markets. The Company's ability to complete current work programs and plan effectively may be adversely impacted by disruptions to access to fuel, equipment, supplies or personnel as a result. The Directors continue to closely monitor the potential secondary and tertiary macroeconomic impacts of these events, including changing commodity and energy prices, disruptions to shipping and trade routes, cyber activity affecting governments and businesses, inflationary pressures, and any deterioration in general investor confidence. Further, any governmental or industry measures taken in response to the Geopolitical Conflicts, including sanctions, limitations on travel, restrictions on shipping, and changes to import/export arrangements involving affected regions, may adversely impact the Company's operations and are likely to be beyond the control of the Company. The Company is monitoring the situation closely and, at this stage, considers the direct impact of the Geopolitical Conflicts on the Company's business and financial performance to be limited. However, the situation remains dynamic and the consequences, including any broader impact on financial markets, commodity prices, logistics and investor sentiment, are inherently uncertain.

5.5 Speculative investment

The risk factors described above, and other risk factors not specifically referred to, may have a materially adverse impact on the performance of the Company and the value of the Shares.

Prospective investors should consider that an investment in the Company is highly speculative.

There is no guarantee that the Shares offered under this Prospectus will provide a return on capital, payment of dividends or increases in the market value of those Shares.
