Q3 FY26 Quarterly activities report

Highlights

- Q3 FY26 net sales up 44% YoY with customer receipts of ~$1.8m
- Net sales reach ~$6m on a moving annual turnover (MAT) basis for the first time
- Normalised net operating outflow of ~($244k), adjusting for one-off costs including SANDAI matcha supply deposit, completion of Summer of Cricket marketing investment and one-off legal costs
- Three new Oat Milk Goodness PrOATein flavours secured national ranging across all 943 Woolworths stores, with on-shelf rollout scheduled for late June to early July 2026
- Dual matcha brand platform launched with Omura Matcha (premium ceremonial-grade) and Matcha Mode (accessible, mass-market), backed by exclusive five-year, 350,000kg supply agreement
- Food & Dairy Co appointed as first official matcha distributor, providing access to 2,000+ cafes and restaurants across NSW and Queensland
- Ingredient supply channel established via collaboration with The Little Marionette, marking the first commercial validation of this pillar of the matcha strategy
- Steve Smith, internationally recognised cricketer, appointed as Non-Executive Director, formalising his alignment as a co-founder and 9.6% shareholder of the Company
- Cash balance of ~$1.6m at 31 March 2026, with total available funding of ~$2.1m including undrawn facilities

OMG Group Ltd (ASX: OMG) (“OMG Group” or “the Company”) is pleased to provide the following overview of activities undertaken during the three-month period ended 31 March 2026 (the “quarter”).

Management commentary:

OMG Group Chief Executive Officer, Alex Aleksic said: “The March quarter delivered strong commercial momentum and important strategic progress across the business. We achieved 44% year-on-year net sales growth, secured a national Woolworths ranging extension for our PrOATein range, and successfully launched our dual-brand matcha platform, which is now generating early commercial activity across both distribution and ingredient supply channels.

Importantly, the investments made during the quarter were deliberate and aligned with scaling the business. This included building inventory under our long-term matcha supply agreement, executing a targeted marketing campaign that directly supported our Woolworths expansion, and progressing strategic initiatives across our growth pipeline. Adjusting for these items, the underlying business continues to demonstrate improving operating leverage and a clear pathway toward cash flow breakeven.

We are now entering a key execution phase. The national rollout of new SKUs across Woolworths, combined with increasing traction in our matcha platform and expanding food service distribution, provides multiple near-term revenue catalysts. In parallel, the appointment of Steve Smith, subsequent to the end of the period, strengthens our brand and commercial reach, further supporting distribution and consumer engagement opportunities.

With a capital-light operating model, expanding distribution footprint and a growing portfolio of scalable FMCG brands, we believe the Company is well positioned to continue delivering strong top-line growth while progressing toward sustainable profitability.”

Financial overview:

Revenue and operating cash flow

The company generated net sales of ~$1.6m, which marked a 44% increase on the previous corresponding period (PCP) (Q3 FY25: ~$1.1m), reflecting continued momentum across grocery, food service, petrol and convenience, and ecommerce channels. FY26 YTD net sales of ~$4.7m represent 66% growth on the PCP (~$2.8m). On a moving annual turnover (MAT) basis, the Company has reached ~$6m in net sales for the first time.

Customer cash receipts for the quarter were ~$1.8m, bringing total FY26 YTD receipts to ~$4.9m.

Net operating cashflow for the quarter was ($637k), which included one-off and strategic investments that are not reflective of the Company’s underlying trading position:

- Matcha supply deposit of $211k, representing an upfront inventory commitment under the SANDAI Group supply agreement to support the commercial launch of the matcha platform
- Summer of Cricket marketing investment of $152k, a peak-season campaign that materially increased brand awareness and consumer pull-through for Oat Milk Goodness and is directly attributable to the Woolworths ranging extension secured during the quarter
- One-off legal costs of $30k for the establishment of the matcha platform and ongoing M&A activity

Q3 FY26 Operating Cashflow — Reported vs Normalised ($A'000)

Adjusting for these items, normalised net operating outflow for the quarter was ~($244k), consistent with the Company’s improving underlying operating leverage.

Cash position

The company’s cash balance at 31 March 2026 was ~$1.6m, with total available funding available of ~$2.1m, which includes $505k in undrawn facilities under its OptiPay debtor finance and trade finance arrangements. The Company’s cash position provides flexibility to fund ongoing operations, new product launches, and the expansion of the matcha platform as commercial activity scales.

Operational overview:

Oat Milk Goodness - Woolworths national ranging extension

During the quarter, OMG Group received a Letter of Acceptance from Woolworths Supermarkets confirming a national ranging extension for three new Oat Milk Goodness ProAtein RTD flavours (Matcha & Strawberry, Banana & Peanut Butter and Salted Caramel), bringing the total ProAtein range to five products stocked nationally across all 943 Woolworths stores from late June to early July 2026. The new flavours are not exclusive to Woolworths and will be distributed across grocery, petrol and convenience channels as part of OMG's multi-channel strategy.

The Matcha & Strawberry SKU is the first product to utilise ceremonial-grade matcha sourced under the SANDAI supply agreement, integrating the new matcha platform into the Company's flagship retail brand. The ranging extension follows the Summer of Cricket marketing campaign, which drove material increases in brand awareness and consumer pull-through and is considered a key catalyst in Woolworths' decision to broaden the range nationally.

Dual matcha brand platform launch

OMG Group launched its dual matcha brand platform during the quarter, backed by an exclusive five-year supply agreement with SANDAI Group for up to 350,000kg of ceremonial-grade Japanese matcha per annum. The platform spans branded consumer products, food service distribution and raw ingredient supply, with two brands targeting distinct segments.

Omura Matcha targets the premium end of the market, focusing on ceremonial-grade provenance across specialty cafe, hospitality and wellness channels. Matcha Mode targets the mass-market segment with accessible, everyday products for broader retail distribution. Together, the brands allow OMG to address the full spectrum of food service and retail demand from a single supply platform.

Food & Dairy Co appointed as first official matcha distributor

Following the matcha platform launch, OMG appointed Food & Dairy Co (FDC) as the first official non-exclusive distributor of the Omura Matcha and Matcha Mode brands across food service channels. FDC services over 2,000 cafes and restaurants across New South Wales and Queensland and is an existing commercial partner.

FDC's purchase of Oat Milk Goodness products increased ~170% in the three months to December 2025 (from ~$15,000 to ~$41,000 per quarter), highlighting existing demand within its network.

Steve Smith appointed as Non-Executive Director

Subsequent to quarter end, OMG Group announced the appointment of Steve Smith as Non-Executive Director, effective 7 April 2026. One of Australia's most accomplished cricketers, Mr Smith is also a co-founder of the Oat Milk Goodness brand and holds ~9.6% of the Company. His global profile and networks across sport, media and consumer markets are expected to support distribution and brand awareness opportunities across OMG's portfolio. Concurrent with Mr Smith's appointment, Tim Freeburn was appointed Executive Chairman.

Little Marionette ingredient supply agreement

Subsequent to quarter end, OMG secured a collaboration agreement with The Little Marionette, a Sydney-based specialty coffee roaster, for the supply of 100% ceremonial-grade Japanese matcha as a raw ingredient. The agreement marks the first commercial validation of the ingredient supply channel, establishing a high-margin revenue stream complementary to the Company's consumer brands and food service distribution activities.

Outlook:

OMG Group enters Q4 FY26 with a growing distribution footprint, an expanding product portfolio and two complementary revenue platforms in Oat Milk Goodness and the newly launched matcha business.

Key near-term catalysts include the on-shelf launch of three new Woolworths PrOATein flavours in late May to early June 2026, continued scaling of the matcha platform across distribution and ingredient supply, and the integration of Steve Smith's networks and profile into the Company's commercial activities.

With a strengthened Board, a vertically integrated matcha supply platform and continued momentum in its core FMCG brands, OMG Group is well positioned to deliver continued revenue growth and build toward sustained cash generation through the rest of FY26 and into FY27.
