Update on CCAA Process and appointment of CFO

Calgary, Alberta – Burgundy Diamond Mines Limited (ASX:BDM) (Burgundy or the Company) advises that the Supreme Court of British Columbia granted Arctic Canadian Diamond Company Ltd (“ACDC”) an extension of the stay of proceedings (originally granted on May 1) until July 28, and the Court also approved an interim Debtor-in-possession financing arrangement as well as the commencement of a sales and investment solicitation process in respect of ACDC and its assets.

Separately, Burgundy is pleased to announce the appointment of Brent Mierau, CPA, CA, as Chief Financial Officer, effective immediately. Mr. Mierau joined Burgundy as Head of Finance in May 2025 and has been leading the Company’s finance function since July 2025. He has played a key leadership role in securing critical financing initiatives that strengthened the Company’s position during a challenging diamond market environment.

Prior to joining Burgundy, Mr. Mierau spent the majority of his career with Shell Canada, where he held a series of senior finance leadership roles and led teams through periods of significant organizational transformation, operational improvement, and complex business integration initiatives. He also spent ten years in public practice providing attestation, tax, systems implementation, and business process improvement services across a diverse range of industries.

Burgundy Chief Executive Officer, Jeremy King, commented:

“Brent has already made a significant contribution to Burgundy through his financial leadership, disciplined approach, and ability to execute in a highly challenging market environment. His experience leading through complex business cycles, combined with his strong financial and operational expertise, make him exceptionally well suited to the CFO role. The Board and I are very pleased to appoint Brent as Chief Financial Officer and look forward to his continued leadership as Burgundy advances its operational, financial, and strategic objectives.”
