Corporate Activities

The Company refers to its most recent announcement dated 29 April 2026.

The Company previously lodged an 'in-principle advice on suitability' application with the ASX regarding a transaction it was seeking to undertake.

On 25 June 2026, the Company received a letter from the ASX advising that there is a significant likelihood that SIV will fail to satisfy ASX listing rule 1.1 condition 1 if it proceeded with a proposed application for admission to the official list.

As a result, the Company has immediately commenced seeking alternative opportunities.
