FOXTEL CONTRACT EXTENDED FOR TWO YEARS WITH TWO ONE-YEAR EXTENSION OPTIONS

BSA Limited (ASX: BSA) (“BSA” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce that it has executed a further two-year extension to its Foxtel contract. The extension means the Foxtel contract now has more than three years left to run until October 2029. Additionally, Foxtel still retains the option to extend the contract for two additional one-year extension options until October 2031.

BSA remains Foxtel's sole national supplier, delivering 100% of its commercial project work. The Company commenced providing residential and commercial satellite installation and maintenance services to Foxtel customers in 1998. This extension will see the relationship continue into its 33rd year.

Sasho Kacevski, Chief Executive Officer of BSA, said “Foxtel and BSA continue to maintain a strong strategic partnership, working collaboratively to deliver outstanding outcomes for Foxtel’s customers. This contract extension reinforces the strength and longevity of our long-standing relationship.”

Authorised for release by the Board of Directors.
