

BLOOMBERG ARTICLE AND TELSTRA OUTAGE CLARIFICATION

National power and communications infrastructure provider GenusPlus Group Ltd (ASX: GNP) (GenusPlus or the Company) refers to the Bloomberg article entitled "Telstra Contractor GenusPlus Shares Fall After Connection Issues" (Article) which appeared in the press today.

The Article headline appears to imply that GenusPlus may be involved with or may have contributed to the Telstra outage issue across Australia today. GenusPlus confirms that as far as it is aware it has not been involved with and has not contributed in any way to the Telstra outage issue.

The Chairman and Managing Director have authorised the release of this announcement to the market.
