Macmahon Awarded $485m Extension at Telfer

Macmahon Holdings Limited (ASX: MAH) (Macmahon or Company) is pleased to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary, Macmahon Contractors Pty Ltd, has been awarded a 42-month extension at the Telfer Gold Mine in Western Australia, owned by Greatland Resources Limited (Greatland) (ASX: GGP).

The extension has a contract value of $485 million over the 42-month term. Macmahon have been delivering mining services at the Telfer Gold Mine since 2015.

The Telfer extension represents a significant expansion of mining operations within West Dome Stage 7, including increased mining volumes and the delivery of full mining services, including drill and blast, load and haul, and associated operational activities.

Michael Finnegan, Managing Director and CEO, said:

“This extension represents an important milestone in our partnership with Greatland and reinforces the strategic importance of Telfer to our business and reflects our proven track record of operational performance on site for over a decade.

We are proud of the contribution our people have made over this period and look forward to supporting Greatland as it advances Telfer's next phase of growth and value creation.

We remain focused on delivering safe, reliable and productive outcomes while strengthening our collaboration with Greatland.”
