ASX grants relief from quarterly cash flow reporting

Melbourne, Australia – Alcidion Group Limited (ASX: ALC) ('Alcidion' or the 'Company') advises that the ASX has exercised its discretion to remove the requirement for the Company to lodge quarterly cash flow reports (Appendix 4C).

The relief reflects Alcidion's strengthened financial position, including a cash balance of $20.6 million and no debt as at 30 June 2026, and record full-year operating cash flow of $6.8 million for FY26, as reported in its Appendix 4C for the quarter ended 30 June 2026.

The Company's next periodic report under Chapter 4 of the ASX Listing Rules will be its half-year report (Appendix 4D) for the period ending 31 December 2026, due by 28 February 2027.

About Alcidion

Alcidion Group Limited has a simple purpose: to transform healthcare with proactive, smart, intuitive technology solutions that improve the efficiency and quality of patient care in healthcare organisations worldwide.

Alcidion offers a complementary set of software products and technical services that create a unique offering in the global healthcare market. Based on the flagship product, Miya Precision, the solutions aggregate meaningful information to centralised dashboards, support interoperability, facilitate communication and task management in clinical and operational settings and deliver clinical decision support at the point of care; all in support of Alcidion's mission to improve patient outcomes.

Since listing on the ASX in 2016, Alcidion has acquired multiple healthcare IT companies and now operates across three established markets — Australia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom — serving hospitals and healthcare organisations at scale, with further geographical expansion planned.

With over 25 years of healthcare experience, Alcidion brings together the very best in technology and market knowledge to deliver solutions that make healthcare better for everyone.
