ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

CONNEQT Expands U.S. Consumer Distribution Through Blueprint Agreement

Highlights:

- CONNEQT enters commercial Marketing Agreement with Blueprint, a leading U.S. longevity and preventative health platform.
- CONNEQT Pulse to be promoted through Blueprint's Protocol Marketplace, where all products must be certified by Blueprint's longevity team and meet rigorous research standards.
- Agreement expands CONNEQT's distribution into a strategically aligned consumer audience focused on preventative health, longevity, and health optimisation.
- Commercial arrangement supports CONNEQT's strategy of expanding consumer distribution through strategically aligned health platforms.

CONNEQT Health Limited (ASX: CQT) ("CONNEQT" or "the Company") is pleased to announce that it has entered into a Marketing Agreement with Blueprint, expanding the Company's U.S. consumer distribution network through an leading U.S. longevity and preventative health platform.

Under the agreement, Blueprint has established a dedicated CONNEQT Pulse product page within its online marketplace to promote the Company's FDA-cleared CONNEQT Pulse Arterial Health Monitor through dedicated referral links and promotional offers.

Customers referred through Blueprint will purchase directly from CONNEQT. The agreement complements CONNEQT's existing direct-to-consumer strategy by adding another strategically aligned distribution channel targeting consumers actively engaged in preventative health, longevity and ongoing health optimisation.

Strategic Importance

The Blueprint agreement supports CONNEQT's strategy of expanding distribution through trusted health ecosystems while broadening access to consumers actively seeking preventative cardiovascular health solutions.

The Company's commercial model continues to evolve beyond hardware sales through premium digital services, cardiology reporting, enterprise healthcare solutions, and its developing cloud-based cardiovascular analytics platform.

The Blueprint partnership also complements CONNEQT's existing direct-to-consumer strategy by broadening customer acquisition opportunities and supporting the long-term growth of the Company's digital health platform.

Craig Cooper, CEO, CONNEQT Health commented:

"Blueprint has established a trusted community of consumers focused on evidence-based longevity and preventative health, making Blueprint a natural commercial partner for CONNEQT Pulse and our broader cardiovascular health platform."

"This agreement represents another important step in expanding our commercial distribution strategy through trusted health ecosystems. By complementing our existing direct-to-consumer activities with strategically aligned partners, we believe partnerships such as Blueprint can broaden awareness of CONNEQT Pulse while providing access to consumers whose interests closely align with CONNEQT's focus on preventative cardiovascular health."

About Blueprint

Founded by Bryan Johnson, tech entrepreneur and investor turned longevity influencer, Blueprint is a U.S.-based health platform offering evidence-based health products, protocols and educational content designed to support long-term health optimisation.

All products available through the Blueprint Protocol Marketplace are subject to clinical review by Bryan Johnson's dedicated team of doctors and longevity researchers. Protocol Marketplace products must meet stringent quality and research standards to become Blueprint Certified.

Blueprint's customer community comprises consumers actively seeking technologies and health solutions aligned with preventative care, longevity and health monitoring, closely matching CONNEQT's target customer demographic.
